November 20, 2015

The Academic Affairs and Student Success Committee of the Board of Regents of the University of North Texas System convened on Friday, November 20, 2015 in Room 43/47 of the Gateway Center, University of North Texas, 801 North Texas Blvd, Denton with the following members in attendance: Regents Al Silva, A.K. Mago, Gwyn Shea, and Milton Lee.

There being a quorum present the meeting was called to order by Committee Chairman Silva at 8:33 am. The minutes of the August 27-28 Academic Affairs and Student Success Committee meeting were approved on a 4-0 vote following a motion by Regent Shea seconded by Regent Lee.

Chair Silva asked Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Student Success, Dr. Rosemary Haggett, to present the Quarterly Activity Report, in which she commented briefly on enrollment trend data, degree production, research dollars, and student success.

The next item on the agenda was the Presentation of Certificate of Appreciation to James Scott, Dean of UNT College of Music. Chair Silva recognized Dean Scott and thanked him for his outstanding work during his 14 years as Dean. Dean Scott made brief comments of appreciation for this recognition by the Board of Regents.

The Committee had three presentations scheduled for this meeting. The first, Review of Comparative Status, Performance and Quality of Academic Programs, was given by Vice Chancellor Haggett, UNT Provost Finley Graves, UNTHSC Provost Tom Yorio, and Dr. Thad Anglin, UNT Dallas Vice Provost for Academic Experience and Outcomes. Discussion followed.

Vice Chancellor Haggett presented to the second briefing on Faculty Deployment and Policies, which was followed by discussion.

Because of time constraints, the third briefing, Report on Research Funding, was postponed until the February Board of Regents meeting.

The Committee had one action item to consider.

5. UNTD Approval of Tenure Recommendation for New UNT Dallas Faculty Appointee

Pursuant to a motion by Regent Milton Lee and seconded by Regent A.K. Mago, the Committee approved the above item on a 4-0 vote.

Alignment with the UNT Mission

Focus to significantly improve the following areas:

- People: Recruit faculty in STEM disciplines who will be able to transfer their grants from their current institution to UNT.

- Research Space: Identify other ways to increase research space over the next several years as UNT did not receive a TRB for the science and technology building. Renovate the SRB to provide space for new hires next year. Renovate and repurpose other spaces. Expand research space at Discovery Park.

- Instrumentation and User Facilities: Continue developing high-end, state-of-the-art equipment facilities, such as the Center for Advanced Research and Technology and associated Clean Room, the Bioanalytical Facility and the Logistics Lab.
Situation: Federal funding in constant dollars has decreased by 16% since 2010. Only real growth in funding has been for interdisciplinary and multi-investigatory multi-million dollar awards.

Solution: Four cross-departmental Institutes of Research Excellence. Proposals for these large awards pursue private sector funding.

- Advanced Materials and Manufacturing Processes Institute (AMMPI)
- BioDiscovery Institute (BDI)
- Institute for Logistics Research

Questions & Discussion
Enrollment Management

- Rosemary Haggett, UNTS, VC for Academic Affairs & Student Success
- Shannon Goodman, UNT, Vice President for Enrollment
- Stephanie Holley, UNT Dallas, Vice President for Enrollment Management
- Thomas Yorio, UNTHSC, Provost and Exec VP for Academic Affairs & Research

Presented to the Board of Regents Academic Affairs & Student Success Committee
February 25, 2016
Framing Questions

1. Given the enrollment trends of the last 10 years, what are the changes in student composition that are expected to occur and what other deliberate changes are planned? What are the strategies to achieve these results?

2. For what percentage of non-graduating departing students are you able to complete exit interviews, and what do these data tell you about the reasons they leave?
Overview of Past 10 Years

- Whites comprised 66.1% of total UNT population in 2006, now represent 50.2% in 2015 Headcount.
- Hispanics saw gains from 9.8% of total enrollment in 2006 to 19.0% in 2015 Headcount.
- African American enrollment remains constant with a small increase (11.9% in 2006 to 13.7% in 2015). UNT Dallas separation impacted this sub-population.

- UNT saw greatest percentages of graduate students in 2010 coinciding with economic downturn.
- Steady growth has occurred with undergraduates. Served as institutional buffer given declines from 2011-present in Masters population.
- Despite this reality, Overall UNT FTSE headcount has grown 21.17% from 2006 – 2015.
UNT FTIC & Transfer Trends

- FTIC growth dependent on physical infrastructure of campus. Rawlins Hall major factor in gains.
- Transfer present unique challenges as this group is highly diverse in comparison to the FTIC market. Differentiated strategies and partnerships required.

- Important sub-group of students given stronger retention record.
- Subgroup requires sophisticated merit packaging for UNT to remain competitive.
- National Merit Scholars is a nationally recognized standard for excellence in undergraduate education.
• Given 60x30xTX goals for Male student success and outcome based funding, UNT’s efforts to close gender gap appears to be working.

• Differentiated retention rates between males and females are being addressed through male-themed residence hall floors, symposia on campus, and UNT participation in the Texas Education Consortium for Male Students of Color.

• UNT has a record of strength in degree production throughout the state.

• 6,261 Baccalaureate degrees awarded in 2015. Represents 15.4% of all such degrees awarded in the State.

• 270 Doctoral degrees granted at UNT in 2015. Accounted for 13.8% of the total THECB reported Doctoral degrees awarded in Texas.

SAM Background

- UNT was an inaugural member
- The Student Achievement Measure provides a more comprehensive and accurate picture of student progress and completion as students move across institutions and state boundaries
- UNT is tracking second cohort in SAM.
- Leverages UNT’s partnership with the National Student Clearinghouse (NSC) to furnish data on students who leave UNT. Not all institutions of higher education participate in the NSC

Total Degrees Awarded
• The UNT Health Science Center has realized significant growth due to the increase of the medical (TCOM) class size, the addition of PT and Pharmacy, and the expansion of the medical science program in GSBS.

• We expect that the coming year will show our enrollment growth from around 2400 students to 2500 students in the Fall of 2016.

• We continue to strive towards recruiting and retaining the highest caliber students that represent the diverse demographics of our surrounding community.

• Strategies include:
  • a robust outreach program that includes active partnerships with institutions that serve students from under-represented backgrounds.
  • ongoing NIH funded programs to introduce undergraduate students to the health sciences
  • partner with the Ft. Worth school district to help direct their Texas Academy of Biomedical Sciences a High School dedicated to increasing participation in STEM areas.
• We complete exit interviews with students who leave our program prematurely, without graduating
• Aside from those students who leave involuntarily (i.e., for academic performance reasons), our ability to conduct exit interviews with nearly 100% of those students who leave voluntarily suggest that their reasons are rooted in typically one of three challenges:
  • being too far away from their support system (e.g., family)
  • financial challenges
  • personal matters (e.g., health).

Departmental Assessment
Student Satisfaction

• UNT offers a systematic cycle of planning, assessment, analysis and implementation of data-driven decision processes with the goal of improving the student experience.

• Results of assessment data are stored in the TracDat Institutional Effectiveness (IE) database, allowing outcomes to be tracked across time.
Examples of Departmental Assessment
Student Satisfaction

- Academic Support: Departmental Plans, Libraries, Center for Learning Enhancement, Assessment and ReDesign (CLEAR) and Learning Center
- Student Health: Student Health and Wellness Center, Recreational Sports, and Counseling and Testing
- Campus Engagement: Student Activities Center, University Union, and Student Affairs Administration
- Life Skill: Career Center, Student Money Management Center and Multicultural Center
- Campus Community: Housing and Residence Life, Center for Student Affairs at Discovery Park, and Orientation and Transition Programs.
Institutional Assessment
Student Satisfaction

• Beyond unit level plans, planning and assessment also occur at the institutional level.

• Office of Institutional Research and Effectiveness oversees much of the data used in reporting.

• Mission-critical data is accessible to stakeholders through UNT’s Dataspot website.

Applying Student Assessments to Refine Services and Improve Customer Satisfaction

How do you use student assessments to refine services and improve customer satisfaction?

- Utilizing both quantitative and qualitative methods of measurement, data is used to make immediate decisions on services provided to students.

Do you have good, and complete, data?

- Yes; Reports are generated every semester through various data storage locations.
- THECB, Survey Instruments, IPEDS, etc...

If not, what enhancements are planned to assess student satisfaction with academic and non–academic services?

- UNT Dallas will start using the NSSE survey instrument to measure certain aspects of the students’ experiences in the classroom and university. Thank you Rosemary Haggett for the assistance!

1. How do you use student assessments to refine services and improve customer satisfaction? Do you have good, and complete, data? If not, what enhancements are planned to assess student satisfaction with academic and non-academic services?

- UNT Health Science Center (UNTHSC) conducts annual student satisfaction survey. The data influences academic and non-academic decisions. Covers academic and services offered. Deans need to respond to areas of concern and develop action plans. Have as part of our strategic plan.

- Deans also hold round tables and focus group meetings to gain input into ongoing programs. Course evaluations also provide assessment information on specific program areas. We also have a committee APART (Academic Program Assessment Review Team) that annually provides deans and provost with an assessment of each academic program. This is in addition to our five year assessments with external reviewers.
2. How many of your graduating students have had a career-related experience in their course of study, and how are you planning to expand those experiences, improve the quality of the experience, and build a better database?

3. Texas is now asking every academic program to identify the marketable skills that will be acquired by students.

Can the University provide access for every student to valuable elective marketable skills in addition to those marketable skills that are specifically included within each academic department?
Mapping Career Experiences

Career Connect

• Preliminary estimates indicate that UNT offers thousands of career-related experiences for students in their courses of study.

• The proposed Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) Career Connect will:
  ✓ expand career-related experiences for students;
  ✓ create a mechanism for capturing this data, and ✓ help students articulate their acquired skills to potential employers.

Enhancing Experience and Tracking Students

How many of your graduating students have had a career-related experience in their course of study?

- For Fall 2015, 97 students participated in some type of internship, practicum, or student/clinical teaching.
- Since 2013, the number of internships have increased 20%.

How are you planning to expand those experiences, improve the quality of the experience, and build a better database?

- To expand experiences inside and outside of the classroom we will offer major/college related workshops/seminars and invite guest speakers from key industry to share insight which will aid in our professional development efforts or our students.
- The data will be capture from students, faculty and employers utilizing Qualtrics after each appointment and career/internship fairs to improve quality of services. We will use College Central Network and Razor Edge to store employer contacts.

Integrating Marketable Skills Development throughout all Academic Departments (General Education and Majors)

General Education

- Through the core curriculum, students will gain a foundation of knowledge of human cultures and the physical and natural world; develop principles of personal and social responsibility for living in a diverse world; and advance intellectual and practical skills that are essential for all learning.

Majors

- Every academic program (major) at UNT Dallas conducts some type of assessment to measure a student’s competencies in certain areas that relate to their discipline. For example, each program determines 3-5 Student Learning Outcomes (SLO’s), types of tests and surveys (Measures), and Targets that will ultimately show the effectiveness of their program and if students are achieving certain competencies.

2. How many of your graduating students have had a career-related experience in their course of study, and how are you planning to expand those experiences, improve the quality of the experience, and build a better database?

- Most UNTSC students have a career related experience prior to graduation.
- Type of experience varies from school to school.
- Every student completes a clinical experience, a practical experience, or an internship.
- Each dean assesses experiences through student focus groups and evaluations, including site evaluations.
- Always engaged in process improvement as exemplified by APART assessments of each academic program each year.
3. Texas is now asking every academic program to identify the marketable skills that will be acquired by students. Can the University provide access for every student to valuable elective marketable skills in addition to those marketable skills that are specifically included within each academic department?

- Professional schools have a list of competencies that students must acquire prior to graduation.
- These skills and professional characteristics are included in our curricula.
- Also provided opportunity for leadership development to identify the next generation of health professions leaders.
Questions & Discussion
UNT SACSCOC Reaffirmation Brief:
The University of North Texas is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). Maintaining accreditation allows UNT to continue to receive federal financial aid and it adds value to the degrees UNT imparts. There are two main parts to reaccreditation, the Compliance Certification Report and the Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP).

UNT received its last 10-year SACSCOC Reaffirmation in December 2006. There were no follow-up reports required. In May 2012, UNT completed its fifth-year SACSCOC Interim Report with no follow-up reports required.

April 2013 UNT started the process of a 10-year Reaffirmation Self-Study regarding the 96 standards associated with the SACSCOC Compliance Certification Report. It resulted in a 660-page Compliance Certification Report that included several thousand pieces of evidence. The following are dates related to this 10-year reaffirmation process:

- Sept. 4, 2015: The UNT SACSCOC Reaffirmation Compliance Report was submitted to the SACSCOC Off-site Review Committee.
- Nov. 20, 2015: UNT’s SACSCOC Leadership Team received a preliminary report from the SACSCOC Off-site Review Committee in which the Off-site Committee requested additional documentation associated with 14 compliance standards.
- Jan. 18, 2016: The UNT SACSCOC Leadership Team hosted the appointed SACSCOC On-site Committee Chair, Dixon Hanna from Virginia Tech, at UNT to review planned accommodations for the On-site Committee.
- Feb. 11, 2016: UNT sent additional documentation for the 14 compliance standards requested by the SACSCOC Off-site Review Committee, and UNT provided writings about the new QEP to the SACSCOC On-site Committee members. (Note: Of the top 11 most frequently cited standards by the off-site review committee, UNT was only cited for six.)
- March 21 to March 23, 2016: The UNT campus will host the SACSCOC On-site Committee. The SACSCOC On-site Committee will review additional compliance justifications and the new QEP.
- March 22, 2016: UNT President Neal Smatresk, the SACSCOC Vice President, the On-site Committee Chair and UNT’s SACSCOC Liaison will meet with two UNT System Board of Regents to discuss the role and responsibilities of the UNT System Board of Regents as it relates to the SACSCOC Accreditation Standards.
- March 24, 2016: The SACSCOC On-site Committee Chair and SACSCOC Vice President will address UNT’s leadership regarding the status of UNT’s compliance with 96 SACSCOC Compliance Standards.
• Six-weeks later: If needed, UNT will provide additional documentation to the Commission’s Committee on Compliance and Reports related to any non-compliance findings from the SACSCOC On-site Committee.

• December 2016: UNT’s accreditation status will be announced at the business meeting held at the close of the December SACSCOC Conference.

At this time, UNT’s SASCOC Steering Committee and UNT’s SACSCOC Leadership Committee are expecting a successful SACSCOC On-site Committee visit.
Title: Review of University of North Texas, University of North Texas Health Science Center at Fort Worth, and University of North Texas at Dallas policies related to Carrying of Concealed Handguns on Campus

Background:
In 2015, the Texas Legislature enacted Senate Bill 11 to amend the laws regarding concealed carry of handguns and allow individuals who are properly licensed to carry a concealed handgun on a university campus beginning on August 1, 2016 subject to rules established by the president and reviewed by the Board of Regents.

Concealed handgun licenses are issued and regulated by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS). To obtain a license, individuals must be a resident of Texas, be at least 21 years old (unless active duty military or a veteran), and meet certain other statutory requirements. Based on DPS’ demographics, approximately 3% of the Texas population had a concealed handgun license in 2014; 86% of the licenses were issued to individuals over 30 years old and 67% were issued to individuals over 40 years old. The laws regarding concealed carry of handgun have been in effect since 1997 and since that time have prohibited the carrying of a concealed handgun in certain locations, including schools, churches, collegiate sporting events or interscholastic events, correctional facilities, hospitals and nursing homes. Senate Bill 11 did not change these exclusions and as such they continue to be prohibited locations.

Senate Bill 11 provides that the president shall establish reasonable rules and regulations regarding the carrying of concealed handguns on campus after consultation with faculty, staff and students. The consultative process must take into account the nature of the student population; uniqueness of the campus environment; and specific safety concerns. Rules also may be established regarding the storage of handguns in residence halls. However, the president may not establish rules that generally prohibit or have the effect of generally prohibiting license holders from carrying concealed handguns on campus.

Senate Bill 11 specifically provides that the governing board shall review the institution’s rules within 90 days of the date they are established by the president. The board may amend the rules by a two-thirds majority vote. If amended by the board, the amended version becomes the institution’s rules. The institution must publish its rules on the institution’s website so that they are accessible by students, faculty, and staff. Rules may be amended by the president after engaging in the type consultative process described above and submission to the governing board for review.

To assist in implementing the new law, the System formed a working group with representatives from each campus as well as System staff from Government Relations, General Counsel, Human Resources, and Academic Affairs and Student Success. Each of the presidents formed a campus committee consisting of students, faculty, staff, and administrators charged with consulting with students, faculty, and staff and recommending a campus carry policy and guidelines for their respective campus. Each campus held several town hall meetings in Fall 2015 for students, faculty, and staff at various campus locations. Several of the town hall meetings were also streamed live and recorded so that individuals could watch if unable to attend the meeting in person. Members of the campus committees were present to inform attendees about the new campus carry law, answer questions, and solicit verbal and written comments regarding the campus carry policy. Additionally, students, faculty, and staff at the UNT Health Science Center received a survey soliciting comments. Each of the institutions also established a website with information about the law, FAQs, schedule of town hall meetings, and the work of the task force.

All three campuses have developed policies and guidelines that meet the requirements of Senate Bill 11. The policies take into account the comments and feedback received from students, faculty and staff and aim to balance interest in promoting safety with respect for the right to carry concealed handguns. The policies identify locations and activities where handguns are prohibited on the respective campuses. These prohibited areas generally fall into several broad categories and are included in the respective campus policies, as applicable: (1) areas prohibited by state or federal laws, or specific contracts, such as where the contract funding source for research grants prohibits guns, or collegiate sporting events, (2) areas where services to minors are provided; (3) areas where medical, health, or clinical services are provided including patient care areas and where special medical equipment (e.g. MRI) is present, (4) areas where special student support services are provided, (5) areas that pose special dangers to human life, and (6) areas hosting large scale events of 200 attendees or more. All of the proposed policies also contain detailed processes for designating locations temporarily prohibiting concealed handguns on campus premises and for review of such decisions.

The UNT policy contains procedures regarding storage of handguns in residential facilities owned or leased and operated by the university and located on the campus premises. UNT Dallas will consider an amendment to its policy to add procedures regarding storage of handguns when its first residence hall comes on line. The UNT Health Science Center does not have residential facilities, and therefore its policy does not address this issue.

Per Senate Bill 11, the Board must review each of the institution’s policies, which establish rules related to Carrying of Concealed Handguns on Campus. Based on such review, the Board can accept the policies as written or amend, in whole or part, provisions in the policies by a majority two-thirds vote. Additionally, Senate Bill 11 requires each institution to submit a report to the Legislature each even-numbered year beginning September 1, 2016 that describes the institution’s rules and the reasons for the rules.

Financial Analysis/History:

Each of the campuses anticipate some costs associated with implementation of SB 11. UNT estimates a total of $6275 in costs for signage, gun safes, and educational training. UNTHSC estimates a total of $2,500 in costs for signage. UNT Dallas estimates initial costs of $2,375 for signage and additional costs of $14,880 for gun safes in its residence hall.

Title: Approval of University of North Texas, University of North Texas Health Science Center, University of North Texas at Dallas, and UNT System Administration policies related to Prohibiting Sexual Harassment, Sexual Violence, and Retaliation

Background:

In 2015, the Texas Legislature enacted House Bill 699 requiring institutions of higher education to adopt policies that address sexual assault on campus. The law prescribes that sexual assault policies include definitions of prohibited behavior and sanctions that may be imposed for violation of the policy; contain protocols for reporting and responding to reports of sexual assaults received by institution officials; publish the policy in student and employee handbooks; and create and maintain a web page that is dedicated solely to the policy. In addition, HB 699 mandates that institutions require entering freshman and undergraduate transfer students to attend education on the policy before or during their first semester on campus. The bill requires the Board of Regents to approve the policies before final adoption by the institutions.

The campuses are taking a comprehensive approach to addressing sexual assault and other forms of sexual misconduct by proposing policies that meet the requirements of HB 699 as well as the requirements of federal laws that are intended to prevent and remediate sexual misconduct in the educational and work environments. These laws include Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Clery Act, and the Violence Against Women Act. The proposed policies also incorporate certain requirements of Regents Rule 04.1100 by protecting individuals who report or participate in investigations of suspected wrongdoing from retaliation and by requiring employees to fully cooperate in investigations of suspected wrongdoing. The campuses coordinated their policy development to include similar definitions and protocols, which will allow for consistent interpretation, application and enforcement of sexual assault policies across the System.

Under the proposed policies, universities may address prohibited misconduct whether it occurs on or off campus when the behavior is reasonably likely to have an adverse effect on the institution. As required by HB 699, the policies include definitions of prohibited behavior, including sexual assault, and set out sanctions that can be imposed for violating a policy. The policies direct individuals to contact the police in emergencies, and informs students and employees where they can report prohibited misconduct, including using the compliance hotline if they wish to remain anonymous. All employees and individuals who act on behalf of the System and its institutions are required to report sexual violence and sexual harassment to campus officials who are authorized to take immediate action. The policies create a safe-harbor for employees who, because of their professional licensure and job responsibilities, are prohibited from disclosing reports made to them in confidence.
The proposed policies also contain detailed protocols to facilitate the timely and equitable resolution of reports of sexual misconduct, to include provisions that: protect the confidentiality of survivors of sexual assault to the extent allowed under state and federal laws; require prompt review of all reports of sexual assault and sexual harassment; protect individuals who report prohibited misconduct as well as those who are accused of engaging in misconduct; require investigation of all credible reports of sexual misconduct to be completed within 45 days; and outline procedures for imposing sanctions if a person is found to have engaged in prohibited conduct.

In addition to requiring freshman and undergraduate transfer students receive education and awareness training during their first semester on campus, the policies require student organizations to conduct training for their members, and encourages all students to participate in training each year. Employees are required to participate in training within their first 30 days of employment and every two years thereafter, as currently required by state regulation. The policies prohibit employees who fail to comply with the training requirement from receiving a salary increase during the year in which their training expires. Further, a general enforcement provision allows for the suspension of students, termination of employees, and termination of business relationships of other individuals who violate any provision of the policy.

Also included for the Board’s approval is the UNT System Administration employee policy that complies with the requirements of HB 699. The System Administration policy is similar in style and content to the campus employee policies.

The Board has the authority to approve policies related to Prohibiting Sexual Harassment, Sexual Violence, and Retaliation before final adoption by the Institutions under section 105.101 of the Texas Education Code, which grants to the Board the power to adopt rules and policies for the administration of the Board’s powers and duties.

Procedures and Responsibilities.

I. Reporting. The University of North Texas has established procedures that are sensitive to students who report prohibited misconduct and retaliation. The University strongly encourages all students to report behavior they believe to be in violation of this policy.

1. Reporting Prohibited Misconduct:
   a. A student who believes the threat of sexual violence is imminent should immediately call 911. A student may file a police report with campus police for sexual violence occurring on campus or with local police for sexual violence occurring off campus.
   b. A student may report a suspected violation of this policy to the Dean of Students and contact the office for assistance. If the Respondent is a student, the Dean of Students will consider whether the alleged conduct violated the Code.
      Responsible Party: Dean of Students.
   c. A student may report a suspected violation of this policy to the Title IX Coordinator, located in the Office of Institutional Equity and Diversity. The Title IX Coordinator will monitor and regularly be updated on any investigation conducted by the Dean of Students or interim protective measures put in place. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for informing the student of the right to file criminal charges, and for informing the student of the availability of counseling and mental health resources, survivor advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, and other resources on and off campus. The Title IX Coordinator also will inform the student of measures that can be taken to prevent contact with the suspected Respondent.
      Responsible Party: Title IX Coordinator
   d. Anonymous Reporting. Students or any individuals who wish to remain anonymous may report a suspected violation of this policy to the University Institutional Compliance office or to the UNT System Compliance Hotline.
      Responsible Party: Compliance Office

2. Protection against Retaliation. Retaliation against a student or any person who reports or encourages another to report prohibited misconduct or retaliation; who participates in an investigation conducted under this policy; or who seeks assistance or guidance from any University or external official to remediate a suspected violation of this policy is strictly prohibited.
II. False and Bad Faith Reporting. Any student who makes a false report under this policy or who makes a report in bad faith is subject to disciplinary action. A report is not false or made in bad faith simply because the evidence from an investigation is insufficient to find that a violation occurred.

III. Anonymity and Confidentiality.
   1. Anonymity.
      a. The University shall make every effort to protect from disclosure the identity of a student who makes a report under this policy regardless whether the student ask for her or his identity to be protected. If the Complainant asks that her or his identity not be disclosed or that the complaint not be pursued, the University will take reasonable steps to comply with the request as long as doing so does not prevent the University from responding effectively under this policy. The Complainant will be informed that such a request may limit the University’s ability to respond to the report and that anonymity in the student conduct process cannot be assured.

      b. The Title IX Coordinator will evaluate the Complainant’s request for anonymity along with the University’s responsibility to provide a safe and respectful environment for all students. In determining whether a request can be granted, the Title IX Coordinator will consider:
         i. the severity and nature of the allegation;
         ii. whether the alleged behavior or conduct presents a threat to individuals other than the student who makes the request;
         iii. whether effective measures can be put in place to protect the student against continued physical or psychological harm or retaliation;
         iv. whether delaying an investigation could reasonably result in the destruction or deterioration of potential evidence to prove or disprove the allegation; and
         v. any other information that reasonably could influence the decision.

   2. Confidentiality.
      The University values the privacy of its students and will not disclose information more broadly than necessary to respond appropriately under this policy and as required by law and Regents Rules, which may impose obligations on employees to disclose reports of prohibited misconduct made to them. When obligated to disclose information, University faculty and staff will do so only as necessary to fulfill their official responsibilities.

IV. University Response and Interim Measures.
   1. University Response to Complainant. Upon becoming aware that a student has been a victim of prohibited misconduct, and depending on when the University receives a report, the Title IX Coordinator or Dean of Students will:
      a. provide the Complainant with information regarding access to medical care;
b. provide the Complainant with information about on and off campus mental health resources;

c. assess any immediate safety needs the Complainant may have;

d. assist the Complainant contact campus or local police, if desired;

e. review whether the Complainant wants to remain anonymous and the steps the University can take to protect anonymity and confidentiality;

f. inform the student that they are not required to file a complaint but that the University may be required to investigate the allegation(s);

g. inform the Complainant of their right to file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator and with the U.S. Department of Education Office of Civil Rights;

h. assess the need to implement interim or long-term protective measures;

i. provide the Complainant a copy of the Code and this policy, and inform the Complainant about timeframes for review or investigation, and resolution;

j. explain to the student that in addition to being interviewed by the designated University official, the student may provide a written statement; and

k. take steps to protect the Complainant and others against retaliation as necessary.

a. notify the Respondent, in writing, of the existence and general nature of the allegation(s) and this policy;

b. provide the Respondent a copy of the Code and this policy and inform the Respondent about timeframes for review or investigation, and resolution;

c. provide the Respondent sufficient information, consistent with federal and state privacy laws, to respond to the allegation(s);

d. explain to the Respondent that in addition to being interviewed by the designated University official, the respondent may provide a written response to the allegation(s);

e. inform the Respondent that retaliation against the Complainant or any individual participating in an investigation will not be tolerated and can result in immediate disciplinary action.

3. Interim Measures. The Dean of Students or Survivor Advocate, in consultation with Title IX Coordinator, and other University officials or faculty as appropriate, may coordinate action to protect the Complainant, the Respondent, and any other student against conduct prohibited under this policy or further allegations of misconduct. Interim measures also may be taken to ensure the prompt and efficient completion of an investigation and resolution of the allegation(s). Interim measures are not disciplinary in nature and must be consistent with other University policies. These measures may include but are not limited to changes in housing, changes in class schedules, issuance of a no-contact directive to one or more students or student organizations, and issuance of a no trespass directive as appropriate.

   c. Notice of Decision on Request to Reopen an Investigation. The Complainant and Respondent will be notified, in writing, of the decision whether to reopen an investigation. Employees who receive a report of prohibited misconduct in the course of performing their official University responsibilities and who, as a requirement of a professional license, are prohibited from disclosing confidential communications are not obligated to report as set out in this policy. These individuals are expected to report as required by the rules of their professional license and nothing in this policy shall be interpreted as conflicting with those rules.

II. Protection against Retaliation. Retaliation against any person who reports or encourages another to report prohibited misconduct or retaliation; who participates in an investigation conducted under this policy; or who seeks assistance or guidance from any University department or external official or organization authorized to remediate conduct prohibited under this policy is strictly prohibited.

III. Confidentiality.

1. Confidentiality. University shall make every effort to protect information that reasonably could lead to the identification of an individual who reports or who participates in an investigation of alleged prohibited misconduct or retaliation, and information that reasonably could identify the individual. This information is confidential and shall not be disclosed except as required by law, including when disclosure is necessary to ensure individuals accused of violating this policy are afforded lawful notice and the opportunity to fully respond to the accusation.

2. Protection of Non-Confidential Information. As permitted by section 51.971 of the Texas Education Code, information may be protected from disclosure even if it is not confidential if the information is collected or produced as part of an investigation conducted under this policy and disclosing the information would interfere with an ongoing investigation.

3. Authorized Disclosure of Information. Confidential information and information that is protected from disclosure under this policy may be released:
a. with the written and signed consent of the individual whose identity would be disclosed;
b. to law enforcement agencies or prosecutors;
c. to federal and state agencies responsible for investigating prohibited misconduct or retaliation;
d. to notify a Complainant and Respondent of the outcome of an investigation, including sanctions imposed for violating this policy;
e. to allow the University to take effective protective measures; or
f. as required by lawfully issued subpoena or otherwise authorized by law.

IV. False Reports. Any individual who makes a false report under this policy is subject to disciplinary action. A report is not false or made in bad faith simply because an investigation determines the allegation was not substantiated.

V. Investigation of Allegations and Interim Measures.
1. Reviewing Reports. Allegations of prohibited misconduct and retaliation, reviewed by the Office of Equal Opportunity shall include a determination of whether an investigation should be conducted regardless whether a written complaint is filed. Reports of prohibited misconduct and retaliation made directly to law enforcement officials do not have to be reported to the Office of Equal Opportunity for review. In addressing reports of prohibited misconduct and retaliation, law enforcement will determine whether to notify the Office of Equal Opportunity. The Office of Equal Opportunity shall consult the complainant of the alleged offense, if the individual's identity is known, before recommending interim remedial measures or before initiating an investigation. This consultation must include informing the Complainant that:
   a. the Complainant may file a criminal complaint with law enforcement officials at any time;
   b. the University has an obligation to remediate prohibited misconduct and that an investigation may be conducted whether a criminal complaint is filed;
   c. the University can take measures to protect against continued misconduct and retaliation;
   d. voluntary withdrawal of an allegation will not necessarily result in termination of an investigation; and
   e. the Complainant should contact the Office of Equal Opportunity if retaliation is suspected.
2. Interim Measures to Protect Complainants, Respondents, and Other Individuals. The University may take administrative action to protect the Complainant, the Respondent, and any other individual against prohibited conduct or allegations, or to ensure the prompt and efficient completion of an investigation. Interim measures are not disciplinary in nature and must be consistent with other University policies. Interim measures may be initiated only after consultation with Human Resources, the Office of General Counsel, and the Dean of Students, as appropriate, and may include but are not limited to placing the faculty or staff employee who is accused of violating this policy on administrative leave with pay, temporarily modifying work schedules and assignments, and suspending business relationships.

3. Investigating Reports. All allegations of prohibited misconduct and retaliation that the Office of Equal Opportunity determines to be credible, shall be investigated promptly. If the complainant of the alleged offense asks the University not to investigate or to delay investigating the allegation, that no disciplinary action be taken, or that the person who allegedly violated the policy not be notified of the allegation, the Office of Equal Opportunity shall inform the individual, in writing, of the University's obligation to meaningfully investigate and respond appropriately to the allegation and that honoring the request could compromise its ability to do so. In determining whether the request can be granted, the Office of Equal Opportunity shall consider the following factors:
   a. the seriousness/nature of the allegation;
   b. whether the alleged behavior or conduct presents a threat to individuals other than the person who is making the request;
   c. whether effective measures can be put in place to protect the individual against continued physical or psychological harm or retaliation;
   d. whether delaying an investigation could reasonably result in the destruction or deterioration of potential evidence to corroborate or refute the allegation; and
   e. any other information that has a reasonable bearing on the decision.

Individuals will be informed in writing if the request to not take or to delay action is not granted. The notice should include the factors considered in making the decision.

4. Obligation to Participate in Investigations under this Policy. Individuals are expected to be cooperative in investigations conducted under this policy, and any person who knowingly interferes with an investigation is subject to disciplinary sanctions. Interference with an investigation includes, but is not limited to:
   a. attempting to coerce, compel, or prevent an individual from providing information related to the investigating;
   b. removing, destroying, or altering information that relates to the investigation; or
   c. providing false or misleading information in the course of an investigation or encouraging others to do so.

VI. Procedures for Grievance and Review of Reports.
1. Timeline and Notifications. Investigations will be completed within a reasonable time, generally not to exceed forty five (45) business days except in exceptional circumstances as determined by the Office of Equal Opportunity.

2. Procedures for Resolving a Complaint of Prohibited Misconduct or Retaliation when the Alleged Offender is a Student. The Dean of Students is responsible for investigating reports of prohibited misconduct and retaliation when the alleged offender is a student. The Dean of Students must consult with the Office of Equal Opportunity in advance of issuing a report of investigation. The Title IX Coordinator shall review all final investigation reports.

3. Procedures For Pursuing and Resolving a Complaint of Prohibited Misconduct or Retaliation when the Alleged Offender is an Employee (including a student employee), Visitor, or Individual Acting on Behalf of or Doing Business with the University:
   a. The Complainant and Respondent shall receive notice of the allegation and periodically be informed of the status of the review or investigation. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) does not protect student employees who, pursuant to this procedure, are named as Respondents.
   b. The Respondent shall be given an opportunity to respond both orally and in writing to the allegations and to any evidence against her or him prior to a determination that this policy has been violated. Any response must be provided within seven (7) calendar days of notification by the Office of Equal Opportunity that it is prepared to finalize its report of investigation.
   c. The Complainant shall be given an opportunity to respond both orally and in writing to information provided by the Respondent before the investigation is completed. Any response must be provided within seven (7) calendar days of notification by the Office of Equal Opportunity that it is prepared to finalize its report of investigation.
   d. The Office of Equal Opportunity must consult with the Office of General Counsel before completing a report of investigation.
   e. The Office of Equal Opportunity shall prepare a written report setting out the findings of the investigation and whether the Respondent violated this policy.
   f. The Complainant, Respondent, and the Respondent’s supervisor(s) (when the Respondent is an employee) shall be notified, in writing, of the Office of Equal Opportunity’s findings and determination, and be provided a summary of the investigation within five (5) business days after the report of investigation is completed. The Vice President for Institutional Equity and Diversity will determine whether another University official will be notified when the Respondent is a visitor or person acting on behalf of the University.
   g. Respondents found to have violated this policy may request a review of the findings and determination from the Vice President for Institutional Equity and Diversity.
h. A request for review must be submitted to the reviewing official within five (5) business days from the date of the notice. The request must include the reason(s) for the review and provide any new information the individual wishes the reviewing official to consider. The decision of the reviewing official regarding the finding and determination is final.

i. Non-faculty employees found to have violated this policy may file a grievance under UNT Grievance policy (1.7.2) concerning any disciplinary action taken as a result of the investigation.

j. Faculty members, other than Teaching Fellows and Teaching Assistants, found to have violated this policy may file a grievance concerning any disciplinary action taken as a result of the investigation in accordance with department and college grievance procedures and the University’s Faculty Misconduct and Discipline policy (15.1.33). Teaching Fellows and Teaching Assistants may use the staff grievance process.

VII. Record Retention. Unless otherwise required by state law or the university’s Records Retention Policy, records of complaints and investigations will be confidentially maintained by the University Archivist and discarded after ten (10) years unless other incidents occur within the 10 years. In all cases, access to complaint and investigation records is strictly limited to those university officials directly investigating or adjudicating a complaint or implementing a complaint resolution, unless otherwise compelled by law.

VIII. Education and Resources.

1. New Employee Education and Training. New employees shall receive training on the University’s Title IX program and this policy no later than the 30th day after employment. At a minimum, training must include: obligations under Title IX, Title VII, the Violence Against Women's Act and this policy; the name and contact information for the Title IX Coordinator, the procedures for reporting sexual harassment and other violations of this policy; the University’s prevention and awareness program and ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns; the rights of individuals who report being a complainant of sexual violence regardless whether the offense occurred in the workplace; and the availability of interim measures to protect against continued violations of this policy and all remedies, including civil action, for violations Title VII and Title IX.

2. Supplemental Education and Training. Every employee is individually responsible for completing the training described in item 1 of this section every two years.

3. Record and Notification of Education and Training. Supervisors are responsible for ensuring employees under their supervision are in compliance with the education and training requirement and certifying to the Title IX Coordinator when each employee completes requirement. In addition, supervisors shall clearly note on the employee’s annual performance evaluation whether training has been completed.
4. Enforcement of Training Responsibilities. An employee who fails to complete education and training as required under this section may be subject to discipline according to applicable University policies.

5. Resources and Services. The experience of sexual violence has different meanings for each person. Prompt intervention can help to lessen the trauma and enhance healing. Resources and services can be found on the University’s Title IX Coordinator webpage https://edo.unt.edu/title-ix-coordinator.

IX. Sanctions and Legal Implications.

Any violation of this policy may result in sanctions imposed by the University or federal or state authorities, or legal action.

UNTHSC shall make every effort to protect from disclosure the identity of a student who makes a report under this policy regardless whether the student asks for her or his identity to be protected. If the Complainant asks that her or his identity not be disclosed or that the complaint not be pursued, UNTHSC will take reasonable steps to comply with the request as long as doing so does not prevent it from responding effectively under this policy. The Complainant will be informed that such a request may limit UNTHSC’s ability to respond to the report and that anonymity in the conduct process cannot be assured.

2.) The Title IX Coordinator will evaluate the Complainant’s request for anonymity along with UNTHSC’s responsibility to provide a safe and respectful environment for all students. In determining whether a request can be granted, the Title IX Coordinator will consider:

b.) whether the alleged behavior or conduct presents a threat to individuals other than the student who makes the request;

c.) whether effective measures can be put in place to protect the student against continued physical or psychological harm or retaliation;

e.) any other information that reasonably could influence the decision.

b. Confidentiality. UNTHSC values the privacy of its students and will not disclose information more broadly than necessary to respond appropriately under this policy and as required by law and Regents Rules which may impose obligations on employees to disclose reports of sexual harassment or sexual misconduct made to them.

The Title IX Coordinator, in consultation with the Office of Student Affairs and other UNTHSC officials or faculty as appropriate, may coordinate action to protect the Complainant, the Respondent, and any other student against conduct prohibited under this policy or further allegations of misconduct. Interim measures also may be taken to ensure the prompt and efficient completion of an investigation and resolution of the allegation(s). Interim measures are not disciplinary in nature and must be consistent with other UNTHSC policies. These measures may include but are not limited to changes in class schedules, issuance of a no-contact directive to one or more students and student organizations, and issuance of a no trespass directive as appropriate.

Protective measures may remain in place as long as the Title IX Coordinator determines the measures are necessary, including after final resolution.

6. Investigation and Resolution.

   a. Timeline and Notifications.

   1.) UNTHSC will take timely action to stop behavior prohibited under this policy and take appropriate action to prevent recurring misconduct.
2.) The Title IX Coordinator will notify the Office of Student Affairs upon receipt of a report that a student is suspected of violating this policy. When the Respondent is an employee, the Title IX Coordinator will notify Human Resources and the System Administration Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion. Likewise, the Office of Student Affairs will notify the Title IX Coordinator of any violation of this policy. Both the Office of Student Affairs and Title IX Coordinator will coordinate with campus law enforcement as appropriate.

3.) Allegations made under this policy will be resolved within a reasonable time, generally not to exceed forty-five (45) days from receiving a report of sexual misconduct, domestic or dating violence, stalking, or retaliation except in exceptional circumstances as determined by the Title IX Coordinator.

4.) The Title IX Coordinator will notify the Respondent within five (5) days of becoming aware of the allegation(s).

5.) The Title IX Coordinator will update the Complainant and Respondent on the status of the investigation regularly. When the Respondent is an employee, the Title IX Coordinator will update Human Resources and the System Administration Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion regularly.

6.) A criminal complaint or investigation will not preclude UNTHSC from taking interim protective measures, initiating an investigation, or taking other appropriate action necessary to resolve a complaint under this policy.

b. Review of Allegations and Possible Sanctions.

1.) Mandatory Review of Reports. The Title IX Coordinator will review all allegations of sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, domestic and dating violence, stalking, and retaliation to determine whether an investigation should be conducted regardless whether a written complaint is made. If an investigation is determined to be necessary, the Title IX Coordinator will coordinate and monitor the investigation.

2.) Sanctions. A student determined to have violated this policy may be placed on disciplinary probation, suspended, expelled, issued a no-contact directive, or trespassed from campus. In addition, conduct prohibited under this policy may result in criminal charges and civil action.

c. Investigation.

1.) Prompt, Fair and Equitable Investigation and Resolution. The Office of Student Affairs will assure a prompt, fair, and equitable investigation and resolution; and the Respondent and Complainant will be given the same opportunity to participate in an investigation conducted under this policy.

2.) Standard of Proof. The greater weight of the evidence standard will be used in determining whether this policy has been violated.

d. Termination of Investigation without Finding a Policy Violation.

1.) Termination of an Investigation. At any point during the investigation the Title IX Coordinator may determine that there is no basis to proceed under this policy. In this instance, the Dean of Students will notify the Complainant and the Respondent of the decision and explain the reason for ending the investigation. The notice must be in writing and consistent with applicable privacy laws. When the Respondent is an employee the Title IX Coordinator also will notify Human Resources and the System Administration Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion.

2.) Review of Decision to Terminate an Investigation. The Complainant may request review of the decision to end an investigation. A request for review must be submitted in writing, generally within ten (10) days after receiving notice of the decision. If a request for review is made, the Respondent will be informed and given an opportunity to provide information before a decision is made whether to reopen the investigation. If the Respondent is a student, the request will be reviewed by the Vice President for Student Affairs. If the Respondent is an employee, the request will be reviewed by the Associate Vice Chancellor for Human Resources or delegate. The decision of the reviewing official is final.

The University strongly encourages all students to report behavior they believe violates this policy.
1. Reporting Sexual Misconduct

V. False and Bad Faith Reporting

Any student who makes a false report under this policy or who makes a report in bad faith is subject to disciplinary action. A report is not false or made in bad faith simply because an investigation determines the allegation was not substantiated.

If the Complainant asks that her or his identity not be disclosed or that the complaint not be pursued, the University will take reasonable steps to comply with the request as long as doing so does not prevent the University from responding effectively under this policy. The Complainant will be informed that such a request may limit the University’s ability to respond to the report and that anonymity in the student conduct process cannot be assured.

b. The Title IX Coordinator will evaluate the Complainant’s request for anonymity along with the University’s responsibility to provide a safe and respectful environment for all students. In determining whether a request can be granted, the Title IX Coordinator will consider:

i. the seriousness and nature of the allegation;
ii. whether the alleged behavior or conduct presents a threat to individuals other than the student who makes the request;
iii. whether effective measures can be put in place to protect the student against continued physical or psychological harm or retaliation;
iv. whether delaying an investigation could reasonably result in the destruction or deterioration of potential evidence to prove or disprove the allegation; and
v. any other information that reasonably could influence the decision.

2. Confidentiality.

The University values the privacy of its students and will not disclose information more broadly than necessary to respond appropriately under this policy and as required by law and Regents Rules, which may impose obligations on employees to disclose reports of sexual harassment or sexual misconduct made to them. This information is confidential and shall not be disclosed except as required by law, including when disclosure is necessary to ensure individuals accused of violating this policy are afforded lawful notice and the opportunity to fully respond to the accusation.

B. Protection of Non-Confidential Information. As permitted by section 51.971 of the Texas Education Code, information may be protected from disclosure even if it is not confidential if the information is collected or produced as part of an investigation conducted under this policy and disclosing the information would interfere with an ongoing investigation.

C. Authorized Disclosure of Information. Confidential information and information that is protected from disclosure under this policy may be released:

   i. with the written and signed consent of the individual whose identity would be disclosed;
   ii. to law enforcement agencies or prosecutors;
   iii. to federal and state agencies responsible for investigating sexual misconduct or retaliation;
   iv. to notify a complainant and respondent of the outcome of an investigation, including sanctions imposed for violating this policy;
   v. to allow the University to take effective protective measures; or
   vi. as required by lawfully issued subpoena or otherwise authorized by law.

VI. False Reports
Any individual who makes a false report under this policy is subject to disciplinary action. A report is not false or made in bad faith simply because an investigation determines the allegation was not substantiated.

VII. Investigation of Allegations and Interim Measures
A. Reviewing Reports. Allegations of sexual misconduct and retaliation reviewed by the System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion shall include a determination of whether an investigation should be conducted regardless of whether a written complaint is filed. Reports of sexual misconduct and retaliation made directly to law enforcement officials do not have to be reported to the System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion for review. In addressing reports of sexual misconduct and retaliation, law enforcement will determine whether to notify the System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion. The System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion shall consult the complainant of the alleged offense, if the individual’s identity is known, before recommending interim remedial measures or before initiating an investigation. This consultation must include informing the individual that:

   i. she or he may file a criminal complaint with law enforcement officials at any time;
   ii. the University has an obligation to remediate sexual harassment and other sexual offenses and that an investigation may be conducted whether or not a criminal complaint is filed;
iii. the University can take measures to protect against continued misconduct and retaliation;
iv. voluntary withdrawal of an allegation will not necessarily result in termination of an investigation; and
v. she or he should contact the System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion if retaliation is suspected.

B. Interim Measures to Protect Complainants, Respondents, and Other Individuals. The University may take administrative action to protect the complainant, the respondent, and any other individual against prohibited conduct or allegations, or to ensure the prompt and efficient completion of an investigation. Interim measures are not disciplinary in nature and must be consistent with other University policies. Interim measures may be initiated only after consultation with Human Resources, the Office of General Counsel, and the Title IX Coordinator, as appropriate, and may include but are not limited to placing the faculty or staff employee who is accused of violating this policy on administrative leave with pay, temporarily modifying work schedules and assignments, and suspending business relationships.

C. Investigating Reports. All allegations of sexual misconduct and retaliation that the System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion determines to be credible, shall be investigated promptly. If the complainant of the alleged offense asks the University not to investigate or to delay investigating the allegation or that the person who allegedly violated the policy not be notified of the allegation, the System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion shall inform the individual, in writing, of the University’s obligation to meaningfully investigate and respond appropriately to the allegation and that honoring the request could compromise its ability to do so. In determining whether the request can be granted, the System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion shall consider the following factors:

i. the seriousness/nature of the allegation;
ii. whether the alleged behavior or conduct presents a threat to individuals other than the person who is making the request;
iii. whether effective measures can be put in place to protect the individual against continued physical or psychological harm or retaliation;
iv. whether delaying an investigation could reasonably result in the destruction or deterioration of potential evidence to corroborate or refute the allegation; and
v. any other information that has a reasonable bearing on the decision.

Individuals will be informed in writing if the request to not take or to delay action is not granted. The notice should include the factors considered in making the decision.

D. Obligation to Participate in Investigations Under this Policy. Individuals are expected to be cooperative in investigations conducted under this policy, and any person who knowingly interferes with an investigation is subject to disciplinary sanctions. Interference with an investigation includes, but is not limited to:

ii. Removing, destroying, or altering information that relates to the investigation; or
iii. Providing false or misleading information in the course of an investigation or encouraging others to do so.

B. Procedures for Resolving Complaints of Sexual Misconduct or Retaliation Involving a Student. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for investigating reports of sexual misconduct and retaliation involving students. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) do not protect student employees who, pursuant to this procedure, are named respondents. When the alleged offender is an employee, visitor, or individual acting on behalf of or doing business with UNT Dallas, the Title IX Coordinator must consult with the System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion in advance of issuing a report of investigation.

C. Procedures For Pursuing and Resolving a Complaint of Sexual Misconduct or Retaliation Not Involving a Student (includes Employee, Visitor, or Individual Acting on Behalf of or Doing Business with UNT Dallas):

   ii. The System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion shall prepare a written report setting out the findings of the investigation and whether the respondent violated this policy.
   iii. The complainant, respondent, and the respondent’s supervisor(s) (when the respondent is an employee) shall be notified, in writing, of the System Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion’s findings and determination, and be provided a summary of the investigation within five (5) business days after the report of investigation is completed. The Vice Chancellor of Human Resources will determine whether another University official will be notified when the respondent is a visitor or person acting on behalf of UNT Dallas.
   iv. Respondents found to have violated this policy may request a review of the findings and determination from the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources.
   v. A request for review must be submitted to the reviewing official within five (5) business days from the date of the notice. The request must include the reason(s) for the review and provide any new information the individual wishes the reviewing official to consider. The decision of the reviewing official regarding the finding and determination is final.
   vi. Staff employees found to have violated this policy may file a grievance under Policy 5.005 concerning any disciplinary action taken as a result of the investigation.
vii. Faculty members, other than Teaching Fellows and Teaching Assistants, found to have violated this policy may file a grievance concerning any disciplinary action taken as a result of the investigation in accordance with department and college grievance procedures and the University’s Policy 6.011. Teaching Fellows and Teaching Assistants may use the staff grievance process.

IX. Record Retention
Unless otherwise required by state law or the University’s Records Retention Policy, records of complaints and investigations will be confidentially maintained by the University Archivist and discarded after 10 years unless other incidents occur within the 10 years. In all cases, access to complaint and investigation records is strictly limited to those university officials directly investigating or adjudicating a complaint or implementing a complaint resolution, unless otherwise compelled by law.

X. Education and Resources
A. New Employee Education and Training. New employees shall receive training on the University’s Title IX program and this policy no later than the 30th day after employment. At a minimum, training must include: obligations under Title IX, Title VII, the Violence Against Women’s Act and this policy; the name and contact information for the Title IX Coordinator, the procedures for reporting sexual harassment and other violations of this policy; the University’s prevention and awareness program and ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns; the rights of individuals who report being a complainant of sexual violence regardless of whether the offense occurred in the workplace; and the availability of interim measures to protect against continued violations of this policy and all remedies, including civil action, for violations of Title VII and Title IX.

D. Enforcement of Training Responsibilities. An employee who fails to complete education and training as required under this section may be subject to discipline according to applicable UNT Dallas policies.

E. Resources and Services. The experience of sexual violence has different meanings for each person. Prompt intervention can help to lessen the trauma and enhance healing. Resources and services can be found on the University’s Human Resources web site.

XI. Sanctions and Legal Implications
Any violation of this policy may result in sanctions imposed by the University or federal or state authorities, or legal action.

A. University Imposed Sanctions. Any individual who violates this policy is subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to: involuntary termination of employment under the Staff Employment and Discipline Policy; revocation of tenure for moral turpitude or gross neglect of academic responsibilities under the University’s Policy 6.011; expulsion from the University; and termination of a business relationship, the privilege to come onto University property or to participate in its programs and activities. Key Points

• This is a 5 year plan, but some goals extend beyond 5 years (e.g. research, enrollment & fundraising).

• The three left columns – Theme, Key Objectives, and Initiatives – are intended to be a permanent framework that shapes our work for years to come.

• Campus Initiatives language varies, but some have been standardized (e.g. Reserves, Fundraising, Endowment Growth, Employee Satisfaction)

• Quarterly meetings on campus will review progress and revise/update the action plan, as necessary.

• The team goals will change as projects are completed and new goals and actions are identified.

• The Performance Measures & Targets will be updated frequently as data is available and will sometimes be refined or clarified.

• All language and data changes at the top levels of this plan will be highlighted and disclosed to the Board each quarter.
Beginning Stages of Progress

Most initiatives have a 5+ year completion date.
Supporting Team Goals and Team Member Action Items are more short-term goals and actions that work together to accomplish the initiative. They are flexible and change often.

Purpose and Authority

The Audit Committee of the Board of Regents ("Board") of the University of North Texas System (System) assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities for:

1. Oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting financial, and non-financial reporting practices;
2. Oversight of the internal audit function, any external auditors who the Committee may employ, and engagements with the State Auditor;
3. Oversight of the internal control environment;
4. Oversight of legal and regulatory compliance;
5. Oversight of information security and controls;
6. Oversight of the integrity of the System's financial statements and the System's accounting and financial reporting processes and financial statement audits;
7. Oversight of the System's disclosure control processes and procedures, internal controls over financial reporting, and compliance with ethical standards adopted by the System; and
8. Oversight of the System's risk management process.

The Audit Committee should encourage continuous improvement, and should foster adherence to the System's policies, procedures, and practices at all levels. The Audit Committee should also provide for open communication among the external auditor, financial and senior management, the internal audit function, and the Board of Regents.

The Audit Committee has the authority to conduct investigations into any matters within its scope of responsibility and obtain advice and assistance from outside legal, accounting, or other advisers, as necessary, to perform its duties and responsibilities. In carrying out its duties and responsibilities, the Audit Committee shall also have the authority to meet with and seek any information it requires from employees, Regents, or external parties.

The System will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Audit Committee, to fund the internal audit activity, to compensate the external auditor, to compensate any advisers that the Audit Committee chooses to engage, and for payment of ordinary administrative expenses of the Audit Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

The Audit Committee’s principal responsibility is one of oversight. The fundamental responsibility for the integrity of the System's financial statements and disclosures rests with management and the external auditor.

Membership and Meetings

The Audit Committee is a standing committee of the Board and is composed of not fewer than four members of the Board. The Chairman of the Finance Committee shall serve as an ex officio voting member of the Audit Committee.

Committee members will be appointed by the Chairman of the Board of Regents.

The Audit Committee members will be financially literate and the Committee will provide its members with continuing education opportunities in financial reporting and other relevant areas. The Audit Committee should include at least one financial expert.

The Audit Committee will meet four times annually or more frequently as circumstances require. The Audit Committee may meet in executive session as needed and as allowed by law. The Audit Committee should meet with the external auditors, internal auditors and management in separate executive sessions.

The agenda for Committee meetings will be developed by the Audit Committee Chairman in consultation with the Chancellor and the Chief Internal Auditor.

The committee will meet periodically with the external auditor and management to discuss the annual audited financial statements and quarterly financial statements.

Independence

The Board of Regents and management must be independent from vendors. If overlapping financial interests or personal relationships exist, they must be fully disclosed, and the appropriate personnel must recuse themselves from discussions and voting on related matters.

Accounting / Financial Information Review Duties

1. Review the annual financial statements and related footnotes and discuss with management, the Chief Internal Auditor and the external auditor.
2. Review the financial statements and all of its disclosures, especially fees paid to vendors, activities unrelated to the System's purpose and transactions with related entities.

External Auditor Review Duties

1. Appoint, compensate, retain, and oversee the work performed by the external auditor retained for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work. Review the performance and independence of the external auditor and remove the external auditor if circumstances warrant. The external auditor will report directly to the Audit Committee and the Audit Committee will oversee the resolution of disagreements between management and the external auditor if they arise.
2. Review both the audit and non-audit services to be provided by the external auditor.
3. Consider whether the external auditor’s provision of permissible non-audit services is compatible with the auditor’s independence. Actively engage in dialogue with the external auditor with respect to any disclosed relationships or services that may affect the independence and objectivity of the auditor and take appropriate actions to oversee the independence of the external auditor.
4. Review with the external auditor any problems or difficulties with respect to the audit and obtain reports on significant findings and recommendations, together with management responses.
5. Hold timely discussions with the external auditor regarding the following:
   a. All critical accounting policies and practices.
   b. All alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) related to material items that have been discussed with management, ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the external auditor.
6. At least annually, obtain and review a report by the external auditor describing:
   a. The external auditor’s internal quality-control procedures.
   b. Any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review or peer review, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities within the preceding five years with respect to independent audits carried out by the external auditor, and any steps taken to deal with such issues.
   c. All relationships between the external auditor and the System.
7. Annually, evaluate the external auditor’s qualifications, performance, and independence. Further, the Audit Committee will review the experience and qualifications of the lead partner. The Audit Committee will also consider whether there should be rotation of the external auditor itself. The Audit Committee should present its conclusions to the board.
8. Set policies for hiring personnel of the external auditor.

Financial Reporting Processes, Accounting Policies, and Internal Control Structure Duties
1. Discuss with the external auditor, the internal audit function, and management, the extent to which changes or improvements in financial or accounting practices have been implemented.
2. In consultation with the external auditor and the internal audit function, review the integrity of the System’s financial reporting processes (both internal and external).
3. Understand the scope of the external auditor’s review of internal control over financial reporting.
4. Monitor the effectiveness of the internal control systems. Receive and review any disclosures from the System’s CFOs and Controllers made in connection with the certification of the System’s financial reports: a) significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the university’s ability to record, process, summarize, and report financial data; and b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the university’s internal controls.
5. Review major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the System’s selection or application of accounting principles; major issues as to the adequacy of the university’s internal controls.
6. Review analyses prepared by management and the external auditor setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the financial statements for state and local governments.
7. Review and approve all related-party transactions.
8. Establish and oversee procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters, including procedures for confidential, anonymous submissions by System employees regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.
9. Confirm that significant findings and recommendations made by the internal and external auditors are received, discussed and acted upon appropriately and promptly.
10. Assure that management is setting the appropriate tone in communicating the importance of internal controls and in establishing policies and procedures to mitigate risk.

Internal Audit Duties

1. Review all internal audit reports and responses and monitor the implementation of recommendations.
2. Recommend for approval by the Board the hiring, removal, and evaluation of the Chief Internal Auditor who shall report to the Board through the Audit Committee.
3. Annually review the performance of the Chief Internal Auditor.
4. Review the effectiveness of the internal audit function, including staffing, training, independence, and adequacy of resources.
5. Approve the internal audit purpose statement, charter, and other governance documents related to internal audit activities, and annually review and recommended changes, as needed, of the internal audit governance documents (including the purpose statement and charter).
6. Periodically review, with the Chief Internal Auditor, any significant difficulties, disagreements with management, or scope restrictions encountered in the course of conducting their work.
7. Periodically review the internal audit function’s responsibility, budget, and staffing.
8. Meet with the Chief Internal Auditor in private without representation from administration present.

Ethical Compliance, Legal Compliance, and Risk Management Duties

1. Oversee, review, and periodically update the System’s code of conduct and how the System assures compliance with and enforces this code.
2. Oversee the System’s risk management process.
3. Review any legal and regulatory matters that may have a material impact on the financial statements, internal auditing, and/or compliance activities.
4. Recommend the annual System-wide risk assessment and annual internal audit plan for review and approval by the Board of Regents.
5. Initiate audits and compliance activities as deemed necessary to ensure appropriate risk management and control processes within the System.
6. Review all compliance reports and monitor the implementation of recommendations.
7. Consider the risk of management’s ability to override the internal controls.
Reporting and Duties

1. Recommend to the Board of Regents that the audited financial statements be included in the System's annual report.
2. Report regularly to the Board of Regents regarding the execution of the Audit Committee's duties, responsibilities, activities, and any issues encountered.

Other Responsibilities and Duties

2. Conduct an annual performance assessment relative to the Audit Committee's purpose, duties, and responsibilities outlined herein.
3. Perform any other activities consistent with this charter, the System's bylaws, and governing laws that the Board of Regents or Audit Committee determine are necessary or appropriate.

<td>Compliance with System Policy Requirements – Based on Internal Audit’s detail review of investment information reported for period ending May 31, 2014, the resulting recalculation of short term and long term investment percentages for UNT System based on market values were 50.6% and 49.4% respectively. These percentage investment results were not within establish Board approved investment percentage range requirements for short and long term investments. Per UNT System policy 08.2000 the range for short term investments is to be at least 55% but not more than 75%. For long term investments the percentage range is to be at least 25% but not more than 45%. We recommend the Vice Chancellor for Finance: 1. Review the Investment of System Funds Regulation 08.2000 pertaining to short and long term investment percentages to determine if the percentage requirement ranges should be updated to reflect the potential actual investment needs of the UNT System and its institutions. System Regulation 08.2000 is already under review for potential revisions, including appropriate percentage ranges for each investment pool. In addition, the increased professional staffing in Treasury will allow for improved compliance with the current and future versions of the regulation. <td>The Net Position in the FY2012 and FY2013 Financial Statements could be Overstated by as much $23 Million. – The former UNT Associate Vice President for Finance and Controller and the former Director of Financial Reporting and Operations were aware of the unreconciled differences and potentially uncollectible receivables prior to the issuance of the FY2012 and FY2013 UNT and UNTS financial statements. They directed and recorded this adjustment rather than valuating the validity of these differences as to whether they were true assets of the UNTS. Recommendations for the Acting UNT Vice President for Finance and Administration: 4. Periodically evaluate receivables to determine their collectability.</td>
<td>UNT/UNTS concur and will review the current UNT Allowance for Doubtful Accounts Policy in comparison to historical receivable collectability to ensure the Policy and related process results in an accurate estimate. Any required revisions to the current Policy will be completed before August 31, 2014. UNT/UNTS will periodically evaluate all receivables in light of this Policy to determine receivable collectivity and appropriate asset value. UNT/UNTS will also ensure all necessary action is taken relative to the referenced UNT adjusting journal entry and will recalculate the Allowance for Doubtful Accounts estimate presented in the FY 2013 UNT and UNTS consolidated financial statements to ensure the net accounts receivable balance was presented accurately. Any necessary adjustments to prior period UNT and UNTS consolidated financial statements will be completed by August 31, 2014.</td>

<td>High</td>
<td>Inappropriate Management Review – The UNT Financial Reporting &amp; Operations Department does not require an escalation of review and approval based on a monetary threshold or for unusual or non-recurrent transactions. Failure to require an appropriate level of management to review all journal entries that are unusual, over a specified monetary threshold or non-recurrent increases the risk of error and/or fraud. Recommendation for the UNT System Interim Chief Financial Officer: 10. Develop and document a System-wide policy for processing journal entries that includes an escalated approval process for transactions above a pre-determined monetary threshold. Transactions over a specified monetary threshold should require executive level review and approval.</td>
<td>UNT/UNTS will develop an appropriate improved Journal Entry Policy, including documentation requirements, segregation of duties, and an escalation approval process for transactions based on a pre-determined threshold. Implementation of new policy controls and any corrective actions will be completed by August 31, 2014. While a comprehensive policy is under development, directives from the UNTS CFO will be provided to the UNTS components outlining requirements that all journal entries be properly evidenced with supporting documentation, approved by an individual with appropriate institutional authority, reviewed by the Financial Reporting &amp; Operation Offices, and approved by an executive level for a specified monetary threshold. Further, UNT will perform an assessment of resources needed to address the recommendation that all journal entries be reviewed by the Financial Reporting &amp; Operations Office and any need for additional personnel resources will be evaluated. In support of these procedure and policy improvements, UNT will begin an assessment in collaboration with UNT System Information Technology Shared Services to Implement PeopleSoft Journal Entry (JE) review and approval functionality. To strengthen the control environment, journal entry training sessions will be held for the UNT Financial Reporting &amp; Operations Department to address the new directives and outline compliance with GAAP. These steps to improve the journal entry process will be in place by August 31, 2014.</td>

<td>Ineffective Reconciliation Processes – The UNT Financial Reporting &amp; Operations Department does not maintain adequate account reconciliation definition schedules, reconciliation processes, or policies regarding reconciliation preparation, review, and approval. Key to an effective reconciliation process is timely review and resolution of reconciling items. The majority of the line items on the adjusting journal entry related to unresolved reconciling differences dated prior to September 1, 2010 that remained unresolved at the time of the issuance of this report. Bank and account reconciliations are detective controls and are crucial elements of the internal control structure. Failure to resolve differences identified in the reconciliation process in a timely manner increases the risk of error and fraud. Recommendations for the UNT System Interim Chief Financial Officer: 11. Create System-wide Policies and develop procedures related to account reconciliations and write-off timelines for unresolved reconciling items. 13. Institute an effective review process of all differences identified in the reconciliation process. This process should require the reviewer to immediately research and follow up on the nature of the difference and elevate the issue to the appropriate level of upper management. In addition, differences identified to-date should be immediately evaluated as to the reason and amount to determine if potential write-off of those items is appropriate.</td>
<td>To ensure reconciliations are comprehensive and fully address unresolved transactions, UNT/UNTS will put in place a standardized reconciliation procedure and template. UNT/UNTS will also develop a formal Account Reconciliation Policy and initiate the necessary training of all affected employees. This new Policy will be in place by August 31, 2014, and a training program will be created and put on place by November 2014, to ensure that future reconciliations will occur timely and in accordance with accepted standards. UNT/UNTS will immediately begin corrective actions necessary to resolve any identified reconciliation discrepancies from past years that have not been addressed. It is anticipated that all reconciliations will be brought current and fully addressed by November 2014.</td>

Section I. Organizational Actions

There were no significant actions that affected the Compliance program for this reporting period.

Section II. Compliance Risks

High-Risk #1: Electronic Information Handling (Information Technology Shared Services - ITSS)

Action Taken by Management:

- As a result of UNT System's financial transformation efforts, risk identification, assessment, and remediation of over-allocated access have been deployed to mitigate known risk. Where circumstances exist that prevent full separation of duties among staff, special controls are being identified and developed to further lessen the remaining risk.

- Financial transformation next steps include complete identification and development of compensating controls across all business functions and continued work within the PeopleSoft Upgrade for Finance (PUFF) to ensure that Finance version 9.2 security has separation of duties principles applied for March 1 go-live.

- The ITSS information security office submits security reports each month to the Texas Department of Information Resources (DIR) in fulfillment of Texas Administrative Code (TAC) 202.73. Reports include instances of security violations involving UNT System component resources. Three required monthly reports were submitted to DIR this quarter.

- Texas Administrative Code 202.74(b)(2) requires institutions of higher education to introduce information security awareness and inform new employees of information security policies and procedures during the onboarding process. This material is presented to new employees as part of the online onboarding process facilitated by campus Human Resources. Security awareness training was provided to fifty-three (53) new employees as part of the online onboarding process.

- A disaster recovery exercise was successfully conducted on November 11, 2015. The purpose of the exercise was to conduct a live restoration of a critical enterprise system whose functionality was lost.

- IT support is provided to UNT System through Information Technology Shared Services.

Action Taken by System and/or Institutional Compliance:

- System and Institutional Compliance continues to partner with ITSS to identify opportunities to enhance the processes and procedures associated with information security and Electronic Information Handling.
High-Risk #2: Records Management and Retention (Office of Institutional Compliance)

Action Taken by Management:

- The UNT Compliance Officer (and Chief Records Management Officer), the System Compliance Officer, and Chief Records Management Representative were involved in hiring a new Institutional Records Management Director.

- The Program’s next steps will focus initially on reestablishing the Records Management Representative (RMR) network and developing campus-wide records management training.

Action Taken by Institutional Compliance:

- The UNT Compliance Officer (and Chief Records Management Officer), the System Compliance Officer, and Chief Records Management Representative hired a new Institutional Records Management Director.

High-Risk #3: Required Compliance Related Training (Office of Institutional Compliance)

Action Taken by Management:

- The UNT Operations & Infrastructure Implementation Team (work-team for employee training and development) has identified seven (7) training subjects that must be completed by all employees.

- UNT Risk Management Services is working with UNT System/UNT HR and UNT System IT Shared Services to finalize a pilot test that identifies a process within PeopleSoft that will track any type of completed training.

- The plan is to use this pilot process to initially track the seven (7) training subjects identified by the OIIT for any UNT System institution.

Action Taken by System and/or Institutional Compliance:

- System and Institutional Compliance has partnered with RMS, UNT System/UNT HR, and other responsible System-wide parties to ensure these trainings are available via the web and when completed, coordinating with IT Shared Services to be able to track the completed training using the PeopleSoft pilot test process.

High-Risk #4: I-9 Compliance (Associate Vice Chancellor for HR & Campus HR Director)

Action Taken by Management:

- New law implements E-Verify for all new employees as of September 1st, 2015. E-Verify process and structure was created and implemented by September 1st, 2015. EIS systems were modified to facilitate compliance with the new law and process in confirming that new employees are authorized to work through E-Verify.

- The current process is being enhanced to reduce the amount of risk posed by the transmittal of I-9 documents via secured email.

- The new process reduced and will maintain the lowest possible number of I-9 Input Coordinators on the UNT campus and track I-9 training to reduce the risk of errors.
UNT System/UNT HR are monitoring cases where delays exist in entering I-9 documentation, identifying the source of these delays, and implementing solutions that will facilitate compliance with Federal Law.

Action Taken by System and/or Institutional Compliance:

- System and Institutional Compliance is partnering with UNT System/UNT HR to enhance current I-9 processing so that both processes (I-9 and E-Verify) are completed within the required time-frame.

Section III. Compliance Training

- System/UNT Institutional Compliance developed Compliance Awareness Training that is designed to be completed (web-based) by UNT System, UNT, and UNT Dallas employees. This training was provided in a lecture format to a System-wide group of employees during a UNT System Business Support Services’ (BSS) workshop at the Business Service Center.

- The Office of General Counsel (OGC) provided Ethics in Public Service training during the same BSS workshop. System/UNT Institutional Compliance will work with OGC to develop a web-based version of this ethics training designed to be completed by UNT System, UNT, and UNT Dallas employees.

Section IV. Confidential and Other Complaint Reporting for UNT System

- UNT System maintains a web-based Compliance Hotline that allows anonymous or confidential reporting as required by the U.S. Federal Sentencing Guidelines.

- An analysis of the fourteen (14) reports (via hotline) received by UNT System during this quarter reveals the following breakdown of complaints:

  - One report was received pertaining to alleged FERPA issue, fraudulent practice, and a disability accommodation issue involving UNT. This report is being handled by UNT System Internal Audit, UNT's Equity and Diversity and Institutional Compliance (IC).

  - One report was received with no complaint information provided. This report was closed upon receipt.

  - Two reports were received with multiple allegations pertaining to some enrollment, employer paid educational benefits, and salary increase concerns at UNT Dallas. IC met with executive management and found that most of the allegations were not accurate. IC explained (via the hotline) what actually took place. IC also asked for additional information to be able to follow-up on a couple of additional concerns. IC is waiting for a response and will close the report if no additional information is received.

  - Ten (10) reports were received pertaining to a community issue involving a UNT faculty member. The information in these reports were passed on and being handled by the appropriate university officials.
Section I. Organizational Actions

There were no significant actions that affected the Compliance program for this reporting period.

Section II. Compliance Risks

High-Risk #1: Laboratory Inspections and Follow-up (Risk Management Services - RMS)

Action Taken by Management:

- Of the 220 laboratories inspected this quarter, two (2) laboratories required re-inspection to resolve the identified impairments.

Action Taken by Institutional Compliance:

- Institutional Compliance continues to attend regular meetings between Risk Management Services and other applicable UNT System and UNT Risk partners to assist in resolving any findings and/or impairments identified during inspections as quickly as possible and identifying opportunities to enhance laboratory inspections and follow-up processes and procedures.

- Institutional Compliance and RMS are working to finalize the laboratory inspection and follow-up review of UNT's most critical laboratories to evaluate the efficiency of this process.

- As part of this review, escalation procedures were developed to help assure that findings are addressed within the applicable period designated by RMS. Institutional Compliance, Facilities, and Risk Management Services are finalizing their review of these draft procedures and will forward to the Office of General Counsel for its final review to finalize the content of the escalation procedures.

High-Risk #2: Emergency Planning & Preparedness and Business Continuity (Risk Management Services - RMS)

Action Taken by Management:

Emergency Planning & Preparedness and Business Continuity

- Risk Management Services is preparing to submit the Continuity of Operations Plan (COOP) to the State Office of Risk Management (SORM). A COOP program has been developed to detail project management practices for each Mission Essential Function (MEF). Phase One (1) of the COOP program includes: pre-planning, planning, post-plan development, and pre-exercise. This will be the focus of future planning for the first half of calendar year 2016.

- Construction on the UNT Emergency Operations Center (EOC) is in progress and expected to be completed by March 2016. UNT Risk Management is in the process of hiring an EOC manager who will have the responsibility of managing the physical location, support personnel, and associated programs and training.
International Risk Management

- UNT-International (UNT-I) and RMS Emergency Management continue to address risk management oversight for international travel. International travel includes study abroad programs, faculty led programs, and individual faculty and staff travel.

- Primary concerns include registering personnel traveling abroad in order to provide effective support should emergency situations arise. It includes providing pre-departure safety, health and security resources for personnel traveling abroad, ensuring plans are in place to appropriately address a crisis or emergency situation, and establishing an institutional review process for proposed travel to high-risk destinations.

Action Taken by Institutional Compliance:

- Institutional Compliance continues to attend regular meetings between Risk Management Services and other applicable UNT System and UNT risk partners to assist in identifying opportunities to enhance Emergency Planning & Preparedness and Business Continuity processes and procedures.

High-Risk #3: Environmental Compliance (Risk Management Services - RMS)

Action Taken by Management:

- Within RMS, Environmental Management (EnvM) continues to monitor the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) metals. Both the Chemistry and Discovery Park outfalls continue to show low levels of RCRA metals, which remain below the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) established threshold limits.

- The Mercury Scrubber tank was pumped out which removed excessive Mercury. Planned improvements to the Mercury Scrubber system will be implemented by the end of the calendar year to bring the system back on line.

- EnvM is using the new fats, oil, and grease (FOG) testing process for all grease interceptors on campus (food cooking and vehicle washing facilities). Current cleaning processes disperse most of the fats and oils into the water area, thus giving a high percentage of fats in the water and low oil and solids being separated out. ENVM will determine what steps are needed to resolve this problem. The earliest that UNT would be subject to any new thresholds would be when it renews its permits in the spring of 2016.

Action Taken by Institutional Compliance:

- Institutional Compliance regularly meets with Risk Management Services and other applicable UNT System and UNT risk partners and the City of Denton (as applicable) in preventing exceeding RCRA metal, FOG, or other applicable thresholds.

High-Risk #4: Radiation Safety (Risk Management Services - RMS)

Action Taken by Management and Institutional Compliance:

- The Texas Department of State Health Services (TDSHS) requested that ENVM streamline the radiation license to include new requirements.

- Institutional Compliance regularly meets with Risk Management Services and other applicable UNT System and UNT risk partners to ensure the program is in compliance with state radiation safety regulations.
High-Risk #5: Research Conflict of Interest (Office of Grants & Contract Administration - OGCA)

Action Taken by Management:

- The Office of Grants & Contracts Administration only has two (2) conflict of interest (COI) disclosures (out of approximately 300) yet to be concluded for FY 2016, and are expected to be completed in early December 2015 with the assistance of the COI Committee. This is a substantial improvement in terms of timeliness as a result of targeted changes implemented.

- The Division of Research and Economic Development hired a new Director of Research Integrity and Compliance. The new director comes to UNT with research integrity and compliance experience from Rice University and the University of Central Oklahoma and has other Texas university experience.

Action Taken by Institutional Compliance:

- Institutional Compliance was an active search committee participant, working with the division and search committee members to fill this vacant position.

Action Taken by Institutional Compliance:

- Institutional Compliance will follow-up with the Office of Research Services and the new Director of Research Integrity and Compliance to discuss, document, and address any ongoing time and effort reporting goals, objectives, and challenges.

High-Risk #7: Export Controls (Office of Grants & Contract Administration - OGCA)

Action Taken by Management:

- The responsibility for reviewing visa petitions for proposed H-1B beneficiaries to determine whether or not an export control license would be needed for the release of any controlled technology or technical data by UNT to H-1B beneficiaries has been accomplished via a UNT-International (UNT-I) contract with a consultant to perform these reviews.

High-Risk #9: Electronic Information Handling (University Information Technology and Information Technology Shared Services - ITSS)

Action Taken by Management:

- As a result of UNT System’s financial transformation efforts, risk identification, assessment, and remediation of over-allocated access have been deployed to mitigate known risk. Where circumstances exist that prevent full separation of duties among staff, special controls are being identified and developed to further lessen the remaining risk.

- Financial transformation next steps include complete identification and development of compensating controls across all business functions and continued work within the PeopleSoft Upgrade for Finance (PUFF) to ensure that Finance version 9.2 security has separation of duties principles applied for March 1 go-live.

Action Taken by System and/or Institutional Compliance:

- System and UNT Institutional Compliance continues to partner with University Information Technology and ITSS to identify opportunities to enhance the processes and procedures associated with information security and Electronic Information Handling.

High-Risk #10: Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Compliance (Office of Institutional Compliance)

Action Taken by Management and Institutional Compliance:

- Institutional Compliance continues to coordinate with UNT System Administration, UNT, and UNT Dallas units to ensure that all applicable units are designated as a health care component, with other applicable units that touch personally identifiable health information, having to comply with other privacy protections in accordance with applicable Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health (HITECH) Act requirements.

- Institutional Compliance continues to work with UNT System units to ensure that each component unit has a HIPAA Security and Privacy Officer.

High-Risk #11: Records Management and Retention (Office of Institutional Compliance)

Action Taken by Management and Institutional Compliance:

- The UNT Compliance Officer (and Chief Records Management Officer), the System Compliance Officer, and Chief Records Management Representative were involved in hiring a new Institutional Records Management Director.

- The Program’s next steps will focus initially on reestablishing the Records Management Representative (RMR) network and developing campus-wide records management training.

- The plan is to use this pilot process to initially track the seven (7) training subjects identified by the OIIT for any UNT System institutions.

Action Taken by System and/or Institutional Compliance:

- System and Institutional Compliance has partnered with RMS, UNT System/UNT HR, and other responsible System-wide parties to ensure these trainings are available via the web and when completed, coordinating with IT Shared Services to be able to track the completed training using the PeopleSoft pilot test process.
High-Risk #14: I-9 Compliance (Associate Vice Chancellor for HR & Campus HR Director)

- New law implements E-Verify for all new employees as of September 1st, 2015. E-Verify process and structure was created and implemented by September 1st, 2015. EIS systems were modified to facilitate compliance with the new law and process in confirming that new employees are authorized to work through E-Verify.

- The current process is being enhanced to reduce the amount of risk posed by the transmittal of I-9 documents via secured email.

- The new process reduced and will maintain the lowest possible number of I-9 Input Coordinators on the UNT campus and track I-9 training to reduce the risk of errors.

- UNT System/UNT HR are monitoring cases where delays exist in entering I-9 documentation, identifying the source of these delays, and implementing solutions that will facilitate compliance with Federal Law.

Section I. Organizational Actions

There were no significant organizational actions that affected the Compliance program for this reporting period.

Section II. Risk Assessment Monitoring Activities Conducted by Individual Compliance Divisions

The Institutional Compliance Office receives quarterly reports from the Compliance Divisions on all low, medium and high risks identified during the fiscal year 2015-16 risk assessment. The First Quarter actions taken by UNT Health Science Center (UNTHSC) to address the UNTHSC Compliance high risks are below:

High-Risk #1: Billing and Coding in Compliance with State and Federal Law (Clinical Division)

Description: Review of sample medical records of Medicare and Medicaid patients to confirm that the documentation supports the bill.

Action Taken by Management:

- The percentage of sample medical records reviewed that meet billing documentation requirements during the first quarter is 83%. Our Measure of Success is an aggregate of 90%
  - One-on-one education was provided by the Clinical Compliance Department to each provider who scored below the 90% threshold. Refunds were initiated for claims which were over coded by two levels or more. A summary of each department's audit results was presented by the Compliance Specialist at the department meetings which allowed for discussion of identified issues and additional education to providers and directors.

- In an effort to enhance compliance related to documentation of Texas Health Steps medical checkup claims, our Clinical Compliance department has implemented the following additional steps:
  - The Compliance Specialists worked with the Health Information Management Template Developer to create a new template for the providers to use in documenting Texas Health Steps medical checkup claims in the electronic medical record. The new template ensures that all mandated components of a Texas Health Steps visit are properly captured.
  - The Compliance Specialists are providing ongoing training to the providers on properly documenting Texas Health Steps medical checkup claims.
  - The Compliance Specialists are conducting prospective audits on all Texas Health Steps medical checkup claims to ensure that all required components are documented to support the claims submitted.
Action Taken by Compliance:

- The Clinical Division Compliance Officer reports to the Chief Compliance and Enterprise Risk Management Officer.

High-Risk #2: Unauthorized Access to Protected Institutional Data/HIPAA Privacy and Security (Information Resources Technology Division)

Description: UNTHSC monitors actions taken to protect and prevent unauthorized access to Institutional Data and Protected Health Information ("PHI"), including data within UNTHSC’s information technology systems.

Action Taken by Management:

- Institutional Laptop Encryption Project - The laptop encryption rollout efforts are currently ongoing.

  - Approximately 37% of UNTHSC issued laptops have been encrypted. ITS is currently working on an action plan for outstanding laptops.

- Review of Office 365 OneDrive Security - The UNTHSC ITS Department, working with UNT System IT Shared Services, is performing a security evaluation of the Microsoft Office 365 OneDrive product as a possible enterprise solution for institutional file storage and sharing.

  - Latest update: The existing product and available feature set is not ready for UNTHSC enterprise-wide rollout due to mobile security related risks and the inability to prevent downloading of Institutional data to employee personal and/or unmanaged, untrusted devices. Awaiting additional security features to be made available within Microsoft OneDrive for possible re-evaluation (expected in the spring of 2016).

- Mobile Device Security Enhancements - This project involves the discovery, evaluation and piloting of a mobile device management solution that can be deployed to protect Institutional data that is downloaded to faculty/staff personal mobile devices.

  - Latest update: Based on discovery work that ITS (UNTHSC) and ITSS (UNT System) have collaborated on, the mobile device management options available within the Microsoft Office 365 suite of products look to offer a viable solution for controlling the risk of mobile devices for conducting UNTHSC business. This effort has been on hold during this quarter due to an issue on the vendor (Microsoft) side that is preventing this feature set from being available to UNTHSC. ITSS is currently pursuing resolution.

- Enterprise Encrypted Messaging - While stand-alone encrypted messaging products such as TigerText and Accellion are currently in use by specific departments at UNTHSC, an enterprise-wide solution would be more ideal. Project scope includes the discovery, evaluation and roll out of an enterprise secure messaging solution for UNTHSC.

  - Latest update: Microsoft Office Message Encryption (#HSCSecure) was selected as a viable (both from a cost and functionality perspective) enterprise solution for secure messaging at UNTHSC. One significant security weakness was identified within the product during the evaluation phase. ITSS has crafted a custom solution to mitigate this weakness and released this custom feature for testing on 9/10/15. Select customer departments are currently using this product. Enterprise release expected in spring of 2016.
UNTHSC IT Acceptable Use Policy – The Office of General Counsel has completed its review of the policy, and it is now ready to be released campus-wide.

The following activities capture ongoing risk management efforts that are built into the UNTHSC IT Security Program:

- Training classes and new employee orientations include computer policies and security awareness training. "Refresher" training is delivered to existing staff on an annual basis. Compliance rate for most recently concluded “refresher” training is 100%.

- Password security policies electronically enforced including use of strong passwords and changing passwords every 12 months.

- Completed Q1 external vulnerability assessment of all UNTHSC public facing applications, services and networks.

- Completed Q1 compliance assessment of anti-virus and Windows security updates posture of all Institutional servers and PCs.

Action Taken by Compliance:

- The Institutional Compliance Office works closely with the Director of Infrastructure and Security to provide support for compliance activities as needed and is responsible for UNTHSC HIPAA training. The Office of Institutional Compliance monitors access to the UNTHSC Health electronic medical record to confirm access is appropriate based upon role of user.

High-Risk #3: Non-Compliance with Center for Medicaid and Medicare Services ("CMS") 1115 Waiver Requirements (Strategy Division)

Description: The CMS 1115 waiver projects are Medicaid incentive payment programs designed to improve access to and quality of medical care for Medicaid and indigent patients. Incentive payments are awarded based upon meeting target results of selected quality measures. UNTHSC monitors compliance with 1115 waiver requirements.

Action Taken by Management:

- An 1115 Waiver Steering Committee has been formed and meets on a quarterly basis to discuss any potential compliance issues with CMS and/or the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (“HHSC”). The 1115 Waiver management team also meets with the project leads, the Office of Grants and Contracts, clinical operations personnel and the Offices of Institutional Compliance and Quality and Risk Management on a regular basis to build awareness and discuss potential compliance issues before they arise. The 1115 Waiver management team also works with the Offices of Institutional Compliance and Quality and Risk Management to conduct regular audits of patient outcome data in order to minimize risks and potential issues.

- UNTHSC received notification of a random “Category 3” audit for two of our projects. The same firm that conducted the mid-point assessment is conducting the audit. The 1115 Waiver management team has responded to the audit. Similar audits are expected in the future due to the nature of the 1115 Waiver projects.
Action Taken by Compliance:

- The Institutional Compliance Office works closely with the Executive Director of Strategic Alignment to provide support for compliance activities as needed. The Chief Compliance and Enterprise Risk Management Officer is involved in key meetings and reviews and signs off on the data submitted to HHSC.

High-Risk #4: Title IX Compliance (Student Affairs Division)

Description: Title IX of the U.S. Education Amendments of 1972 protects people from discrimination based upon sex in education programs or activities that receive financial assistance. UNTHSC monitors compliance with Title IX requirements.

Action Taken by Management:

- The UNT Health Science Center has designated Dr. Trisha Van Duser as the Campus Title IX Coordinator. In October 2015, Dr. Van Duser and eight other members of the Division of Student Affairs attended Title IX Investigator Training and Title IX Coordinator Training. Dr. Van Duser has also updated our Student Code of Conduct, Sexual Harassment, and Consensual Relationship policies to reflect changes in the law based on Title IX. Student Conduct and Title IX investigations are now separated and function independently to avoid any perceived conflicts of interest.

- On-going Title IX training is required of all faculty, staff and students.

Action Taken by Compliance:

- The Institutional Compliance Office works closely with the Vice President of Student Affairs to provide support for compliance activities as needed. The Institutional Compliance Office assisted Student Affairs in developing Title IX training.

High Risk #5: Distance Education (Academic Affairs Division)

Q1 Budget to Actual Review

Bob Brown, Vice President for Finance and Administration, UNT
John Harman, Senior Vice President for Finance and CFO, UNT Health Science Center

Date: February 25-26, 2016
Highlights

• First report in new All Funds Budget Format
• Impacts of Accruals/Deferrals
• First year with quarterly estimates - to be refined in FY17
• Revenues for all component units are tracking at or over estimate for first quarter as adjusted for discounts, allowances, accruals, and timing
• Expenditures for all components tracking under estimated budgets (when adjusted for accruals.)
• Overall first semester enrollment is either exceeding expectations or tracking close to targets at all institutions.
Overview

Revenues Variance –
- Tuition and Fees for component institutions reflect excess of approximately 12% over Q1 budgets (adjusted for discounts and allowances.)
- Revenues in Sales and Services tracking above Q1 budgets due largely to Housing and Dining at maximum capacity at UNT.
- Other significant variances are due to timing and deferrals.

Expenses Variance –
- System-wide, Q1 actuals reported at 5% under Q1 budget expectations in total Personnel Costs.
- Other expense categories reflecting lower than expected actuals (after adjusting for accruals) are Professional Fees and Services – largely due to delayed payment of service contracts.
- Due to timing of expenses combined with the impact of FY15 accruals, several categories of expense in Q1 reflect expenses lower than anticipated for Q1 – will even out as FY16 expenses accrued in FY15 are incurred.

Transfers Variance –
- Variances in Transfers resulting from timing of capital projects (transfers of HEF to Plant Funds), and other timing differences not anticipated (transfers budgeted in Q1, not occurring until Q2, etc.)

Transfers Variance –
- College of Law asset transfer budgeted in Q1, to be recorded upon approval of College of Law transfer by BOR (Q3).
General Appropriations Act Article III Special Provisions Section 4, Transfer Provisions, allows intercomponent transfers of state appropriations with Governing Board approval. State Comptroller staff has requested more explicit transfer approval from the UNT System Board of Regents than was visible in the FY2016 budget approved in August.

The FY2016 Board-approved budget includes the following items:

- State general revenue formula and special item appropriations transferred from UNT System Administration to UNT Dallas for UNTD College of Law.
- State general revenue group insurance appropriations transferred from UNT System Administration to UNT Dallas for UNTD College of Law.
- Collection of statutory tuition and graduate differential tuition for UNTD College of Law as part of UNT Dallas.
- State general revenue special item appropriations for Federation of North Texas Universities and Universities Center at Dallas transferred as needed from UNT System Administration to UNT.
- State general revenue for operating transferred from UNT Health Science Center and UNT Dallas to UNT System Administration for assessments.

At the request of State Comptroller staff, there are two items for approval of the full Board on the agenda tomorrow: one related specifically to the transfer of appropriations for the College of Law from UNT System Administration to UNT Dallas; one more general approval that covers other appropriations transfers approved in the FY2016 budget.
Title: Approval of Broker/Dealer list for Fiscal Year 2016

Background:
In accordance with System Regulation 08.2005.10, Authorized Broker/Dealers, “The Board of Regents must annually review and adopt a list of financial institutions and broker/dealers qualified and authorized to engage in investment transactions with and for the System.”

Prior to the Board’s approval of a revised investment policy in November, 2015, the list of authorized investments in the Short Term Pool – the only investments managed directly by the System – did not necessitate the use of broker/dealers, thus the system does not currently have an approved list. The system will now need a diversified list of broker/dealers from whom to solicit investments.

Based on the situation described above, the selection of the individuals and firms represented by the attached list is based primarily on reputation in the industry.

If approved, the list will then fall into an annual cycle of review and approval by the Board of Regents.

Financial Analysis/History:
There is no cost associated with this action.

Legal Review:
This item has been reviewed by General Counsel.
Schedule:
Approval would be effective immediately.

Recommendation:
The Associate Vice Chancellor for Treasury recommends that the Board of Regents approve the attached list of broker/dealers, authorizing them to engage in investment transactions with and for the System.

Whereas, System Regulation 08.2005 states, “The Board of Regents must annually review and adopt a list of financial institutions and broker/dealers qualified and authorized to engage in investment transactions with and for the System”, and

Whereas, System Regulation 08.2000 now includes authorized investments that would require the services of a broker/dealer,

Title: Amendment to Regents Rule 10.200, Accounting, Operating Budgets, and Appropriation Requests

Background:
University of North Texas Regents Rule 10.200, Section 10.201 - Approval of Accounting Records
Section 10.201 Approval of Accounting Records sets forth the structure for review and approval of accounting records and changes to procedures. The change proposed to this section adds clarity and better reflects the current structure. Excerpt:

Current: The System Administration and each Institution shall submit all accounting records and procedures to the Vice Chancellor of Finance for approval.

Proposed: All accounting records and procedures shall be subject to approval of the Vice Chancellor of Finance.

University of North Texas Regents Rule 10.200 Section 10.203 - Budget Recommendations, sets forth guidance for preparation of the annual operating budget of each component of the UNT system. Section 10.203 – Budget Recommendations currently authorizes the Chief Executive Officer of each component to issue instructions and forms each year for preparing annual operating budgets. A revision to the rule is needed to codify authority at the System level to issue general system-wide guidelines for effective consolidation and presentation of budgets.

To allow for consolidation at the System level, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer from each component submit an operating budget to the System Budget Office in a common template, using consistent guidelines, and following a uniform timeline. Improvements taking place as part of the UNT System’s financial transformation, including use of a uniform chart of accounts, adoption of similar processes among components, and system-wide uniformity in reporting, enable further consistency in budgeting processes across the System.

Neither Section 10.203, nor any other rule within Chapter 10 - Fiscal Management of the Regents Rules, addresses the broad guidelines, timelines, forms, and instructions that are issued from the Chancellor (System level) to manage consolidation, consistency, and uniformity. To this end, it is recommended that section 10.203 of Regents Rule 10.200 be revised to incorporate the broad guidelines and instructions for preparing annual operating budgets issued from the UNT System level. The recommended revision maintains that local instructions are issued at the institution level. Excerpt:

Budget Recommendations. The Chancellor shall issue System instructions to be followed in preparing budgets. The Vice Chancellor for Finance for System Administration and the President for each Institution shall issue local instructions and forms to employees making budget requests.
Financial Analysis/History:

Section 10.201 Approval of Accounting Records:
The System Controller with review and approval from the Vice Chancellor for Finance manages most accounting records and financial reports for all institutions and System Administration. This proposed change better reflects this structure.

Section 10.203 Budget Recommendations:
The general instructions, timelines, forms, and guidelines are issued by the UNT System Budget Office. The applicable Regents Rule needs revision to align with the current and evolving organization - shared services, unified controller functions, uniform chart of accounts, current and future reporting.

Legal Review:

This item has been reviewed by General Counsel.

Schedule:

Effective upon Board approval.

Recommendation:

It is recommended that the Board of Regents approve the revised University of North Texas Regents Rule 10.200, Accounting, Operating Budgets, and Appropriation Requests, Sections 10.201 - Approval of Accounting Records and 10.203 – Budget Recommendations.

Title: Authorization to Amend the UNTS FY16 Capital Improvement Plan to Add Multi-phase Residence Hall at UNT

Background:
Continued expansion of on-campus housing, particularly for lower division students, continues to be a high priority for the campus. As of fall 2015, the total number of bed spaces on campus is 6,216 and the total number of students housed on the 12th day of class was 6,199. Continued enrollment growth is expected.

Responding to this growth and building on the success of the recently completed Rawlins Hall, the campus plans to construct new housing for approximately 1,000 students. The project will proceed in two phases of approximately equal size; planned completion for the first phase is early summer 2018. It is expected that construction on the second phase will commence about one year after the first phase, pending confirmation of continuing enrollment growth and financing availability, with completion expected in summer of 2019. A project budget of $93,000,000 ($44.8M for the first phase and $48.2M for the second phase) has been developed; the budget is based on the recent Rawlins Hall project with appropriate adjustments for cost escalation in the construction market. The 2013 Campus Master Plan provides for increasing capacity on on-campus housing to 9,650 beds and identifies sites sufficient to accommodate this growth.

On August 27, 2015 the Board of Regents approved the UNTS FY2016 Capital Improvement Plan which identified capital projects for the UNT System. The requested action is to amend the UNTS FY2016 Capital Improvement Plan to include the new residence hall. Emphasis will be given to providing a living-learning type of environment with ample study and shared common spaces throughout the buildings. Site analysis will be conducted during the programming phase to determine the locations of the facilities consistent with the UNT 2013 Campus Master Plan.

Financial Analysis/History:
The project will be funded through the Revenue Financing System using short and long term vehicles and supported by housing fees and other auxiliary revenue. Ongoing financial analysis of the UNT housing system indicates that a phased program of rate increases beyond inflationary factors will be needed to support this project and maintain appropriate support for the entire portfolio. Appropriate financial analysis including project proformas and enrollment projections will be documented and validated before project commencement. Financing considerations will be confirmed by the Vice Chancellor of Finance. Planning and design funds up to $1.5M would be from the UNT Housing/Auxiliary services to be reimbursed with bond funds once the financing arrangements are in place.

A new project will construct 1,000 beds on the main campus. This project may be undertaken in phases with approximately 500 beds being completed during the initial phase. Emphasis will be given to provide a living-learning type of environment with ample study and shared common spaces throughout the building(s). Site analysis will be conducted during the programming verification phased to determine the location(s) of the facility/facilities as consistent with the UNT Campus Master Plan.

JUSTIFICATION: As of Fall 2015, the total headcount at UNT was 37,175. This represents an over 2.5% growth in student enrollment over the preceding year. The existing residence halls can accommodate 6,216 students and as of Fall 2015, these beds were nearly 100% occupied. With enrollment growth anticipated to continue, additional on-campus housing is needed to provide the resources to accommodate the goal of housing 22-25% of the undergraduate and 5% of graduate students.

LOCATION MAP

The potential housing locations per the 2013 UNT Master Plan Update will be evaluated and the exact location for the new residence hall will be determined during the programming phase of the project.
Title: Amendment to Regents Rules 03.300, Board Ethics and Standards of Conduct; 03.900, Delegation of Authority for Contracts and Agreements; 04.500, Audit and Compliance; and 05.700, System Administration and Institution Ethics and Standards of Conduct

Background:

Senate Bill 20, signed into law in 2015, mandates significant changes to the state contracting process. Senate Bill 20 includes expanded ethics, conflicts of interest, training and reporting requirements related to procurement. For institutions of higher education, procurement authority pursuant to the Education Code is now contingent on the Board of Regents, the System and the campuses adopting and implementing the rules, policies and procedures described in the bill. Senate Bill 20 also revises the retention requirement for contract documents and requires disclosure of research sponsors in public communications.

Senate Bill 20 took effect September 1, 2015, but provides for an implementation period after the effective date so that affected state agencies can adopt rules, processes, and procedures and take actions necessary to execute all of the changes required by the new law. A workgroup organized by UNT System Business Support Services has been formed to manage implementation of Senate Bill 20.

At the August 2015 Board Meeting, the Board approved amendments to Regents Rules 03.900, Delegation of Authority for Contracts and Agreements; 04.500, Audit and Compliance; and 05.700, System Administration and Institution Ethics and Standards of Conduct, to begin bringing the UNT System Regents Rules into compliance with Senate Bill 20. At this time, it is recommended that additional amendments be made to the following Regents Rules to comply with the requirements of Senate Bill 20:

- 03.300, Board Ethics and Standards of Conduct – addition of ethical requirements applicable to Regents such as a prohibition against using System and Institution resources for unauthorized purposes and a two year prohibition for former members of the Board who have participated on behalf of the System in a procurement or contract negotiation from accepting employment with that individual or business entity.
- 03.900, Delegation of Authority for Contracts and Agreements – requires the System to adopt contract monitoring and reporting requirements, a verification process for large purchasing contracts, and a procedure to identify contracts that require enhanced contract or performance monitoring.
• 04.500, Audit and Compliance – requires Internal Audit to annually assess whether the System Administration and the Institutions have adopted the rules and policies required by Senate Bill 20 and to report the findings to the state auditor.

• 05.700, System Administration and Institution Ethics and Standards of Conduct – addition of ethical requirements applicable to employees, such as a two year prohibition for former employees who participated on behalf of the System Administration or an Institution in a procurement or contract negotiation from accepting employment with that individual or business entity. Also, addition of an ethical requirement applicable to the System Administration and Institutions, which prohibits entering into a purchasing contract with a vendor with whom the chancellor, a president, the general counsel, the chief procurement director, or a procurement director (or relatives of the above) have a financial interest.

No changes have been proposed regarding one aspect of Senate Bill 20 relating to ethics and conflicts of interest for Board members because this provision conflicts with another section of state law. Senator Jane Nelson has requested an Attorney General’s Opinion to resolve this statutory conflict, and we are awaiting the Attorney General’s guidance before making any further changes to Regents Rule 03.300.

The Board has the authority to adopt these amendments under Texas Education Code §105.101, which grants to the Board the power to adopt rules and policies for the administration of the Board’s powers and duties.

Financial Analysis/History:

There are no fiscal implications related to the adoption of new Regents Rules.

Legal Review:

This item has been reviewed by General Counsel.

Schedule:

Effective immediately upon Board approval.

Recommendation:

It is recommended that the Board adopt the amendments to the Regents Rules, as set forth in the attachment.

03.300 Board Ethics and Standards of Conduct

03.301 Board Ethics and Conduct. The responsibility for educating and training the future leaders of the state and nation carries with it the duty to adhere to the highest ethical standards and principles. It is of the highest importance that the people of the State of Texas have complete confidence in the integrity of their public servants.

1. General Standards of Conduct. Members of the Board shall perform their duties and activities in conformity with applicable federal, state, and local laws, administrative rules, and these Regents Rules, and may be subject to disciplinary action for violation of this Regents Rule.

a. A member of the Board shall not:

   a. i. accept or solicit any gift, favor, or service that might reasonably tend to influence the member in the discharge of official duties, or that the member knows or should know is being offered with the intent to influence the member’s official conduct;

   b. ii. intentionally or knowingly solicit, accept, or agree to accept any benefit for having exercised his or her official powers or performed his or her official duties in favor of another;

   c. iii. disclose confidential information, information that is excepted from public disclosure under the Texas Public Information Act or information that has been ordered sealed by a court, that was acquired by reason of the member’s official position, or accept other employment, including self-employment, or engage in a business, charity, nonprofit organization, or professional activity that the member might reasonably expect would require or induce the member to disclose confidential information, information that is excepted from public disclosure under the Texas Public Information Act, or information that has been ordered sealed by a court, that was acquired by reason of the member’s official position;
d. iv. shall not accept other employment, including self-employment, or compensation or engage in a business, charity, nonprofit organization, or professional activity that could reasonably be expected to impair the member’s independence of judgment in the performance of the member’s official duties;

e. v. shall not make personal investments, or have a personal or financial interest, that could reasonably be expected to create a substantial conflict between the member’s private interest and the public interest; or

f. vi. shall not use System resources for unauthorized purposes or in an unreasonable manner;

vii. shall not act as an agent for another person in the negotiation of the terms of any agreement relating to the provision of money, services, or property to the System;

viii. shall not engage in any political activity while on state time or utilize state resources for any political activity;

ix. shall promptly report any conduct or activity that the Board member believes to constitute fraud, waste or abuse or to be in violation of any Regents Rule. Reports shall be made to the Chairman of the Board, the Chancellor and the Vice Chancellor and General Counsel, unless the conduct or activity being reported has to do with any of these parties, in which case the report shall be made to the other parties;

x. shall participate in regular training on ethical obligations and this Regents Rule;

xi. shall participate in an intensive short orientation course as required by Texas Education Code 61.0841 that is developed by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, and training sponsored or coordinated by the Office of the Governor, on the first opportunity after taking the oath of office. No member of the Board appointed on or after January 1, 2016, may vote on a budgetary or personnel matter until the intensive short course is completed.

b. Former members of the Board who participated on behalf of the System or an Institution in a procurement or contract negotiation involving an individual or business entity may not accept employment from that individual or business entity before the second anniversary of the date the member’s service with the System ceased.

2. Conflicts of Interest. State officers and employees shall not have direct or indirect interests, including financial and other interests, engage in business transactions or professional activities, or incur any obligation of any nature that is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of the officer’s or employee’s duties in the public interest. In order to implement this Regents Rule and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of the State of Texas in the integrity of persons serving on the Board of Regents, the Board requires the following:

a. Ethics Commission Financial Disclosure Statements. Members of the Board must file a financial statement with the Texas Ethics Commission annually using forms prescribed by the commission.

b. Contracts Prohibited. Except as permitted by Regents Rule 03.301.2(c) below, the System may not enter into a contract in which a member of the Board has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest. An “indirect pecuniary interest” includes an interest owned by a member of a Board member’s family.

c. Contracts with Business Entities. If a member of the Board has an interest in a business entity, the System is not prohibited from entering into a contract or other transaction with that business entity if:

i. The affected member’s interest in the business entity is not a substantial interest; or

ii. The affected member has a substantial interest in the business entity, and the affected member discloses such interest in a public meeting of the Board. Such disclosure shall be entered into the minutes of the meeting. The Board may consider such contract or other transaction, but the affected member shall not vote or otherwise participate in such deliberation or action of the Board. Any such contract or transaction requiring Board approval must be approved by an affirmative majority of the members voting on the contract or transaction.

All contracts or transactions with a business entity in which a member of the Board has a substantial interest shall be presented to the Board for approval irrespective of any exemption, Rule or policy to the contrary.
A “business entity” is any entity recognized by law through which business is conducted, including a sole proprietorship, partnership, firm, corporation, limited liability company, holding company, joint stock company, receivership, or trust.

A member of the Board has a “substantial interest” in a business entity if:

1. the member owns 10 percent or more of the voting stock or shares of the business entity or owns either 10 percent or more or $15,000 or more of the fair market value of the business entity;
2. funds received by the member from the business entity exceed 10 percent of the member’s gross income for the previous year;
3. the member is an officer of the business entity or a member of the governing board of the business entity; or
4. an individual related to the member in the first degree by consanguinity or affinity, as determined under Chapter 573 of the Texas Government Code, has an interest in the business entity as described in (1) – (3) above.

d. Disclosure of Personal or Private Interest. A member of the Board who has a personal or private interest in a measure, proposal, or decision pending before the Board, other than a contract in which the member has a pecuniary interest, shall disclose such interest in a public meeting of the Board, and such disclosure shall be entered in the minutes. The Board may consider such measure, proposal, or decision, but any member of the Board having such an interest shall not vote or otherwise participate in such deliberation or action of the Board. This procedure may not be utilized for contracts in which a member of the Board has a pecuniary interest.

e. Disclosure of Potential Conflict of Interest. A member of the Board shall disclose any potential conflict of interest and any other relevant information to the Chairman and the Vice Chancellor and General Counsel as soon as possible after becoming aware of the potential conflict. In such an event, the Vice Chancellor and General Counsel shall review the potential conflict and render an opinion.

f. Contracts with Nonprofit Corporations. The Board is not precluded from entering into contracts or other transactions with nonprofit corporations merely because a member of the Board serves on the board of, or is a member of, the nonprofit corporation. Other factors and interests, such as pecuniary or personal interests, may require disclosure and recusal, as described in this Regents Rule.

g. Disclosure of Interest in Property to be Acquired. Members of the Board are required to disclose any legal or equitable interest in property that is to be acquired with public funds. Such disclosure shall be made by filing an affidavit containing specific information as required by Texas Government Code § 553.002.

3. Travel.

a. Travel Reimbursement from Appropriated Funds. Members of the Board shall comply with the requirements of the Travel Regulations Act, Chapter 660 of the Texas Government Code, rules adopted by the Comptroller, travel provisions of the General Appropriations Act, and other applicable federal and state laws when seeking travel payments or reimbursements from public funds.

b. Travel Reimbursement from Institutional Funds. The Board shall adopt rules as necessary to administer and control travel expense payments and reimbursements from Institutional funds as required by Texas Government Code § 660.004.

4. Benefits, Gifts, and Honoraria. A “benefit” is anything reasonably regarded as pecuniary gain or pecuniary advantage, including benefit to any other person in whose welfare the member has a direct and substantial interest.

a. The following benefits, gifts, and honoraria are prohibited:

i. Bribery. No member of the Board may solicit, offer, or accept any benefit in exchange for his or her decision, opinion, recommendation, vote, or other exercise of official power or discretion. A benefit that is otherwise allowed by these Regents Rules is nevertheless prohibited if it is offered in exchange for official action as described above.

ii. Benefits From Interested Persons. As public servants who exercise discretion in connection with contracts, purchases, payments, claims, and other pecuniary transactions of government, a member of the Board may not solicit, accept, or agree to accept any benefit from any person the member knows is interested in, or is likely to become interested in, any contract, purchase, payment, claim, or transaction involving a member’s discretion.

iii. Handling Unsolicited Gifts. A member of the Board who receives an unsolicited benefit that he or she is prohibited from accepting by law may return the benefit, donate the benefit to a governmental entity that has the authority to accept the gift, or donate the benefit to a recognized tax-exempt charitable organization formed for educational, religious, or scientific purposes.

b. Members of the Board may accept the following benefits, gifts, and honoraria:

i. Gifts Valued at Less Than $50. A member of the Board may accept non-cash items of less than $50 in value when the gift is not offered in exchange for an official action or decision.

ii. Benefits from Friends, Relatives, and Associates. A member of the Board may accept a benefit from a person such as a friend, relative, or business associate with whom he or she has a relationship independent of his or her status as a member if the benefit is given on account of that relationship rather than his or her official status and not offered in exchange for official action or decision.

iii. Payment for Goods or Services. A member of the Board may accept a payment for which he or she gives legitimate consideration in a capacity other than as a public servant. The use of the term “legitimate consideration” means that the payment the member receives must reflect the actual value of the services or goods the member provided in exchange for the payment.

iv. Food, Lodging, Transportation, or Entertainment. A member of the Board may accept benefits in the form of food, lodging, transportation, or entertainment in any amount if the member accepts them as a “guest” and reports them if there is an applicable reporting requirement. In order for the member to accept something as a “guest,” the donor must be present.

v. Honoraria. A member of the Board may not solicit, accept, or agree to accept an honorarium in consideration for services if the member would not have been asked to provide the services but for his or her official position or duties. This prohibition includes a request for or acceptance of a payment made to a third party if made in exchange for such services. Members may, however, accept the direct provision of, or reimbursement for, expenses for transportation and lodging incurred in connection with a speaking engagement at a conference or similar event.
Meals provided as a part of the event or reimbursement for actual expenses for meals may also be accepted.
Participation by a member must be more than merely perfunctory.

vi. Awards. Members of the Board may accept plaques and similar recognition awards.

vii. Benefits from Lobbyists. Members of the Board may accept certain gifts, awards, and mementos from persons required to register as lobbyists. “Gift” in this context does not include food, entertainment, transportation, or lodging if the lobbyist is present at the event. Lobbyists may provide a member with transportation and lodging only in connection with a fact-finding trip related to his or her official duties or in connection with an event, such as a conference, at which the member will be providing “more than perfunctory” services in his or her official capacity.

5. Reporting Requirements. Members of the Board are required to report the following benefits, gifts, and honoraria:

a. Members of the Board shall disclose to the Chairman any benefit received in the course of official business having a value of more than $250.

b. Members of the Board are required to report on their personal financial statement to the Texas Ethics Commission the acceptance of gifts worth more than $250, except for gifts from a member’s immediate family or from a lobbyist required to report the gift.
Members also must report on their personal financial statement acceptance of meals, transportation, or lodging provided in connection with a speech or other services provided in their official capacity.

6. Political Activities. Members of the Board shall not:

a. engage in any political activity while on state time or utilize state resources for any political activity;
b. use official authority or influence or permit the use of a program administered by the System to interfere with or affect the result of an election or nomination of a candidate or to achieve any other political purpose;

c. use appropriated money to employ, as a regular full-time or part-time or contract employee, a person who is required by Chapter 305 of the Texas Government Code to register as a lobbyist;

d. use or authorize the expenditure of appropriated money to pay, on behalf of the System Administration or an Institution, membership dues to an organization that pays part or all of the salary of a person who is required by Chapter 305 of the Texas Government Code to register as a lobbyist (this rule does not apply to the payment of membership fees under Chapter 81 of the Texas Government Code); or

e. use or authorize the expenditure of appropriated money to pay lobbying expenses incurred by: (1) the recipient of the money, (2) a person or entity that is required to register with the Texas Ethics Commission under Chapter 305, (3) any partner, employee, employer, relative, contractor, consultant, or related entity of a said person or entity, or (4) a person or entity that has been hired to represent associations or other entities for the purpose of affecting the outcome of legislation, agency rules, ordinances, or other government policies.

7. Use of Authority.

a. Misapplication of Property. Members of the Board shall use government property only for government purposes, not personal or private purposes.

b. Nepotism.

i. Members of the Board are prohibited from appointing, voting for the appointment of, or confirming the appointment of any person to a position that is directly or indirectly compensated from public funds if the person is related to the member within the degree specified by Texas Government Code § 573.002. In addition, a member may not take such action on behalf of any individual who is related to the member within the specified degree.
ii. Regents Rule 3.301.7(b)(1) does not apply if the person who is related to the member has been continuously employed in the office or position for at least thirty days prior to appointment or employment of the member. If the related person continues in such a position, the member may not participate in any deliberation or voting on the appointment, reappointment, confirmation, employment, re-employment, change in status, compensation, or dismissal of the related individual if that action applies only to that individual and is not taken regarding a bona fide class or category of employees.

c. Misuse of Official Information. It is a violation of state law for a member of the Board, in reliance on information to which he or she has access in his or her official capacity and which has not been made public to: (1) acquire or aid another to acquire a pecuniary interest in any property, transaction, or enterprise that may be affected by the information; (2) speculate or aid another to speculate on the basis of the information; or (3) disclose or use the information with the intent to obtain a benefit or harm another.

Adopted: November 15, 2007
Effective: November 15, 2007
Revised: February 16, 2012
03.900 Delegation of Authority for Contracts and Agreements

03.901 Purpose and Scope. The effective administration of contracts is essential to the operation of the System and the Institutions. This Regents Rule establishes authority for the System, the System Administration, and the Institutions to approve and execute contracts.

03.902 Authority of the Board. Pursuant to Texas Education Code § 105.108, the Board has authority to contract on behalf of the System, the System Administration, and the Institutions, and may delegate to an employee of the System Administration or an Institution the authority to negotiate, execute, and approve contracts. No person has the authority to bind the System, the System Administration, or an Institution contractually except in accordance with this Regents Rule. A contract that is not approved in accordance with this Regents Rule is void.

03.903 Definition. For the purpose of this Regents Rule, the term “contract” shall mean any written agreement that creates a binding obligation, financial or otherwise, for the System, the System Administration, or an Institution. Contracts include but are not limited to affiliation agreements, cooperative agreements, easements, grants, intellectual property agreements, interagency contracts, internship agreements, leases, letter agreements, letters of intent, licenses, loans, memoranda of understanding, nondisclosure agreements, professional services agreements, purchase orders, and amendments to any of these types of agreements.

03.904 Board Approval. Board approval is required for the following types of contracts:

1. Contracts that have a cost or monetary value to the System, the System Administration, or an Institution of $1,000,000 or more in cash or other consideration. The total value of a contract shall include the aggregation of all contract extensions and renewals. Regardless of value, approval by the Board is not required for contracts exempted from the approval process under Section 03.905, 03.906, 03.907, or 03.908 of this Regents Rule.

2. Employment contracts as follows:
a. employment contracts with a chancellor, president, or athletic director;

b. employment contracts with a head coach whose base salary during the term of the contract totals $500,000 or more; and

c. employment contracts having a total salary consideration of $1,000,000 or more.

d. For employment contracts with administrators that require Board approval under Regents Rule 03.904 a or c and that are to be paid in whole or part from appropriated funds, Board approval shall be contingent on a determination by the Board that the contract is in the best interest of the System, System Administration or an Institution and the contract shall be required to meet all other requirements of Texas Education Code §51.948.

3. Agreements with affiliated entities required by Regents Rule 09.500.

4. Contracts that involve athletic conference membership.

03.905 Exceptions to Board Approval. The following types of contracts shall not require approval by the Board, regardless of the contract amount:

1. Contracts relating to construction projects previously approved by the Board of Regents in a Capital Improvement Plan.

2. Contracts for utility services (water, gas, electric, telecommunications, internet or television services) or energy resources and related services, if any, when such contracts have been approved in advance by the Chancellor or the Chancellor’s delegee.

3. Contracts or grant proposals for sponsored research, including institutional support grants.

4. Contracts licensing or transferring rights in intellectual property, technology or products protectable by patents, copyright, or constituting a trade secret of unpatented technological know-how.

5. Contracts for the lease or purchase of replacement equipment or licensing of replacement software.

6. Contracts for the purchase of routinely purchased supplies.
7. Contracts for purchases made under a group purchasing program procured through a state contract, state catalog or other procurement methodology authorized by statute.

8. Contracts for the lease or purchase of new equipment or licensing of new software identified specifically in the System Administration or Institutional budget approved by the Board.

9. Contracts for the purchase or license of library books and library materials.

10. Contracts for athletic competitions.

11. Contracts for or related to legal services.

12. Contracts related to bequests or gifts.

13. Contracts with financial institutions to effectuate letters of credit authorized by these Regents Rules and applicable regulations of the System.

03.906 Contracts Related to Real Property. All contracts for (a) the purchase or sale of real property; (b) the lease, license or use of real property; (c) the granting or acceptance of easements or rights-of-way; and (d) any other acquisition or disposition of real property or real property interests is governed by Chapter 11 of these Rules.

03.907 Contracts Related to Major Construction Projects. All contracts related to major construction projects are governed by Chapter 11 of these Rules.

03.908 Emergency Contracts. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, in the event of an urgent situation that cannot or should not for good business reason be delayed until the next regularly scheduled Board meeting as determined by the Board Chairman in consultation with the Chancellor, the Chancellor may approve and execute a contract that would otherwise require Board approval in accordance with this Regents Rule. As soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable, the Chancellor shall provide to the members of the Board written notice of the approval and execution of the contract.

03.909 Delegation of Authority.

1. Delegations to the Chancellor.

a. The Board delegates to the Chancellor the authority to execute all contracts for the System, the System Administration, and Institutions that are approved by the Board in accordance with Regents Rule 03.904, unless otherwise specified by the Board.

b. For employment contracts exempt from Board approval pursuant to Regents Rule 03.904.2, the Board delegates to the Chancellor the authority to sign an employment contract with an administrator for the System Administration or an Institution that is to be paid in whole or part from appropriated funds or that otherwise comes under Texas Education Code §51.948. These contracts must comply with the requirements of Texas Education Code §51.948 and for any contract paid from appropriated funds shall require a determination that the contract is in the best interest of the System or System Administration. Authority to make such a determination is delegated to the Chancellor.

c. The primary responsibility of each officer and employee of the System Administration and the Institutions shall be to accomplish the duties and responsibilities assigned to that position. In order to implement this Regents Rule and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of the State of Texas in the integrity of officers and employees of the System Administration and Institutions, the Board requires the following:

   a. The following benefits, gifts, and honoraria are prohibited:

      i. Bribery. No employee may solicit, offer, or accept any benefit in exchange for his or her decision, opinion, recommendation, vote, or other exercise of official power or discretion. A benefit that is otherwise allowed by System Administration or Institution policy is nevertheless prohibited if it is offered in exchange for official action as described above.

      ii. Benefits From Interested Persons. An employee who exercises discretion in connection with contracts, purchases, payments, claims, and other pecuniary transactions of government may not solicit, accept, or agree to accept any benefit from any person the employee knows is interested in, or is likely to become interested in, any contract, purchase, payment, claim, or transaction involving the employee’s discretion.

iii. Payment for Goods or Services. An employee may accept a payment for which he or she gives legitimate consideration in a capacity other than as a public servant. The use of the term “legitimate consideration” means that the payment the employee receives must reflect the actual value of the services or goods the employee provides in exchange for the payment. This prohibition includes a request for or acceptance of a payment made to a third party if made in exchange for such services. Employees may, however, accept the direct provision of, or reimbursement for, expenses for transportation and lodging incurred in connection with a speaking engagement at a conference or similar event. Meals provided as a part of the event or reimbursement for actual expenses for meals may also be accepted. In order to receive reimbursement, the employee’s participation in the event must be more than merely perfunctory.

vi. Awards. Employees may accept plaques and similar recognition awards.

vii. Benefits from Lobbyists. Employees may accept certain gifts, awards, and mementos from persons required to register as lobbyists. “Gift” in this context does not include food, entertainment, transportation, or lodging if the lobbyist is present at the event. Lobbyists may provide an employee with transportation and lodging only in connection with a fact-finding trip related to the employee’s official duties or in connection with an event, such as a conference, at which the employee will be providing “more than perfunctory” services in his or her official capacity.

5. Political Activities. Employees shall not:

d. Use or authorize the expenditure of appropriated money to pay, on behalf of the System Administration or an Institution, membership dues to an organization that pays part or all of the salary of a person who is required by Chapter 305 of the Texas Government Code to register as a lobbyist (this rule does not apply to the payment of membership fees under Chapter 81 of the Texas Government Code); or a. Non-Elective Office. An employee may hold a non-elective public office with a board, commission, or other state, political subdivision, or federal entity if the holding of such office benefits the State of Texas or is required by state or federal law. The holding of such office must not conflict with the employee’s duties with the System Administration or an Institution.

b. Elective Office. An employee may serve as a member of the governing body of a school district, city, town, or other local governmental district if he or she receives no salary for serving as a member of the governing body and such a position does not conflict with the employee’s duties with the System Administration or an Institution.

7. Use of Authority.

a. Misapplication of Property. Employees shall use government property only for government purposes, not personal or private purposes.

b. Misuse of Official Information. It is a violation of state law if an employee, in reliance on information to which he or she has access in his or her official capacity and which has not been made public: (1) acquires or aids another to acquire a pecuniary interest in any property, transaction, or enterprise that may be affected by the information; (2) speculates or aids another to speculate on the basis of the information; or (3) discloses or uses the information with the intent to obtain a benefit or harm another.

Title: Authorization for UNTHSC to Submit a Proposal to Provide Comprehensive Medical Services to the Federal Correctional Institution—Fort Worth, with Delegation of Authority to the Chancellor or his Designee to Execute the Agreement.

Background:

On January 8, 2016, the Department of Justice – Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) announced plans to issue a Request for Proposals (RFP) to provide Comprehensive Medical Services to the Federal Correctional Institution (FCI) Fort Worth (men’s) facility. It is anticipated that the solicitation will be issued on or about January 25, 2016, with the expected due date for submission within 60-days, by March 25, 2016.

The University of North Texas Health Science Center (UNTHSC) seeks to be the successful bidder for these services and is the incumbent contractor, having provided these contracted services since October 1993. The UNTHSC also provides similar contract health care services for the Federal Medical Center (FMC) Carswell (women’s) facility.

Bid respondents must be able to provide acute care inpatient services, outpatient care, long term care and on-site institution specialist services. The UNTHSC expects to continue to meet these requirements with providers from the UNT Health clinical practice and through subcontracts with other community healthcare providers (hospitals, surgery centers, allied health providers and local physicians).

Financial Analysis/History:

The Agreement will be comprised of a Base Year with four (4) one-year Option periods for renewal at the unilateral discretion of the BOP. The amount of the UNTHSC proposal is estimated to total $14 million annually. Although we anticipate several rounds of discussion and negotiation, acceptance of UNTHSC’s initial proposal by the BOP may result in a binding Agreement.

Under the current Agreement, annual revenues are just under $15 million. Annual payments to subcontracted providers are about $4 million, while payments to subcontracted hospitals and outpatient facilities are just under $10 million with just over $600,000 going to the UNTHSC clinical practice.

Subcontracted partners have historically included: Tarrant County Hospital District/JPS Health Network, Kindred Hospital – Southwest, Harris Methodist- Fort Worth and Plaza Medical Center of Fort Worth.

Title: Delegation of Authority to Negotiate and Execute Professional Services Agreements for UNTHSC to Provide Physician Services to the Tarrant County Hospital District or Acclaim Physician Group.

Background:
In November 2009, the UNT Health Science Center (UNTHSC) entered into Professional Service Agreements (PSAs) with the Tarrant County Hospital District (TCHD) and Tarrant County Indigent Care Corporation (TCICC) to provide physician services to TCHD in Community Medicine, Orthopedics, Psychiatry and Obstetrics and Gynecology. UNTHSC also entered into PSAs to provide, Rheumatology, Cardiology and Gastroenterology. The PSAs for all but Cardiology and Rheumatology were extended and are set to expire on May 31, 2016.

TCHD desires for UNTHSC to continue providing professional services going forward. However, TCHD has recently established the Acclaim Physician Group (Acclaim PG), a wholly owned not-for-profit physician organization, through which it may decide to contract for some or all clinical services with affiliated entities practicing at TCHD facilities. However, this approach has not yet been finalized. Therefore, this Board Order assumes the final contract could be with either TCHD or Acclaim PG.

Financial Analysis/History:
The methodology whereby UNTHSC will be reimbursed by TCHD or Acclaim PG for professional services beginning on or about June 1, 2016 has not yet been determined. However, it will certainly exceed one-million dollars annually.

During FY2015 UNTHSC received approximately $23.0 million dollars under the current Agreements.

Title: Authorization to Enter into Agreement between City of Fort Worth and UNTHSC

Background:

In previous years, UNTHSC has entered into agreements with the City of Fort Worth (Research and Technology Development Project Agreements) as a partnership with the City of Fort Worth and TECH Fort Worth, a technology business incubator, which has successfully promoted economic development through the development and commercialization of technologies in health care and other fields. This partnership was supported by funds from the State of Texas and has consistently developed economic activity that resulted in tax revenues returning to the State of Texas. The funding agreement with the City of Fort Worth for the current biennium will be $1,000,000 which will require approval by the Board of Regents.

In the 2015 (84th) legislative session, the Texas Legislature approved $3,410,000 for the biennium of 2016-2017 to fund a partnership for economic development and technology commercialization between UNTHSC and the City of Fort Worth. The fund is part of UNTHSC’s appropriation and based on the agreement with the City of Fort Worth they receive $1,000,000 that we allocate from our appropriated budget. This would be the sixth biennium of funding. The initial round of funding was for the biennium of 2006-2007.

The funding is contingent upon the Comptroller of Public Accounts certifying that the joint activities of UNTHSC and the City of Fort Worth generate revenues to the State of Texas sufficient to offset the amount appropriated. The Comptroller will specify the supporting information to be provided by the collaboration. Throughout the history of this partnership the economic results have more than offset the funds appropriated. It is projected that the activities supported by the funds for 2016-2017 will also result in economic activity that will be more than sufficient to offset the funds appropriated.

These appropriations are required to be revenue-neutral for the State of Texas. During the 2014-2015 biennium, the combined efforts of UNTHSC, the City of Fort Worth’s Business Assistance Center, and TECH Fort Worth created or retained a total of 3,574 jobs. At $1,653 per job (figure provided by State Comptroller’s office), this resulted in revenues for the State of Texas of $5,907,822, which is higher than the appropriation of $3,410,000, exceeding the requirement to be revenue neutral. It is anticipated that the coming biennium of 2016-2017 will also be productive and will meet or exceed the goal of $3,410,000.
Financial Analysis/History:

For the previous biennium, 2014-2015, $3,410,000 was provided by the Legislature. The City of Fort Worth received $1,000,000 and an additional $200,000 was provided per agreement, to TECH Fort Worth. UNTHSC used the remaining $2,210,000 to support development and commercialization programs. The agreement with the City of Fort Worth for the 2016-2017 biennium will be for $1,000,000.

Legal Review:

This item has been reviewed by General Counsel.

Recommended By:

It is recommended that the Board of Regents authorize and approve the execution of the Technology Development and Transfer Agreement with the City of Fort Worth and UNTHSC.

Schedule:

It is anticipated that for the 2016-2017 biennium UNTHSC will receive two payments in the amount of $1,705,000 from the State of Texas. The funds will support amounts due to the City of Fort Worth under the Agreement. A date certain for the receipt of the initial funds cannot be set at this time because the Comptroller of Public Funds must certify the report for the previous biennium prior to the release of funds.

Recommendation:

It is recommended that the Board of Regents authorize and approve the execution of the Technology Development and Transfer Agreement with the City of Fort Worth and UNTHSC.

Board of Regents                              Board of Regents
This TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT AND TRANSFER AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between the University of North Texas Health Science Center ("UNTHSC"), a state institution of higher education established pursuant to Chapter 105 of the Texas Education Code, and the City of Fort Worth ("City"), a home rule municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of Texas.

RECITALS

A. The City owns the buildings occupied by the Fort Worth Business Assistance Center (the "BAC"), a non-profit business development center that provides skills development, technical advice and access to capital to small businesses and entrepreneurs. The BAC operates from the Guinn School Campus, consisting of three historic buildings (the former middle school, elementary school and gymnasium) on approximately five (5) acres of land in the City at the intersection of I-35 South and Rosedale Street (the "Guinn School Campus").

B. Pursuant to a special item appropriation adopted by the 84th Legislature of the State of Texas during its Regular Session as part of H.B. 1 (General Appropriations Act for the 2016-2017 Biennium) and as approved by the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts (the "Appropriation"), UNTHSC will receive a total of $3,410,000.00 (the "Appropriated Funds") in two (2) equal annual installments for costs associated with UNTHSC’s and the City’s joint economic development and technology commercialization activities.

C. UNTHSC and the City wish to enter into this Agreement in order to provide for UNTHSC’s transfer to the City of $1,000,000.00 of those Appropriated Funds in two (2) equal annual installments of $500,000.00 (the "City Allocated Funds"), all of which will be used by the City for operations of the BAC, including any contracted services geared toward small business development and job creation, and for renovations and maintenance of the Guinn School Campus.

NOW, THEREFORE, UNTHSC and the City, for and in consideration of the terms and conditions set forth herein, do hereby contract, covenant and agree as follows:
AGREEMENT

1. INCORPORATION OF RECITALS.

The parties hereby agree that the recitals set forth above are true and correct and form the basis upon which they have entered into this Agreement.

2. CITY ALLOCATED FUNDS.

2.1. Transfer by UNTHSC.

Within five (5) business days of receipt of each installment of the Appropriated Funds, UNTHSC will transfer the City Allocated Funds, as set forth in Recital C, to the City in accordance with a procedure reasonably acceptable to both UNTHSC and the City. The City agrees to deposit the City Allocated Funds into a segregated account(s) or sub-account(s) specifically designated for the funding of the BAC operations or renovations or maintenance of the Guinn School Campus. Any interest earned on the City Allocated Funds shall remain the property of the City, but shall not be spent for purposes other than BAC operations or renovations or maintenance of the Guinn School Campus.

2.2. Draw-Downs for BAC Operations and Guinn School Campus Renovations and Maintenance.

The City will pay invoices for construction and other authorized costs related to BAC operations and renovations and maintenance costs to the Guinn School Campus directly from those City Allocated Funds that have been deposited into the account(s) or sub-account(s) designated for that purpose. The City will provide UNTHSC with copies of all invoices and other reasonable supporting documentation within a time frame (but in no event later than thirty (30) calendar days following payment) and pursuant to a procedure reasonably acceptable to both UNTHSC and the City.

The City understands and agrees that City Allocated Funds received by UNTHSC must be used for a purpose authorized by the Appropriation and as permitted by this Agreement. The City will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that City Allocated Funds received by UNTHSC during a state fiscal year (September through August 31) are incurred during the same fiscal year. In the event that the City incurs such City Allocated Funds after expiration of the state fiscal year in which they were received by UNTHSC and the Comptroller demands repayment of all or any portion of such City Allocated Funds.
specifically due to that fact, the City will pay UNTHSC or the State of Texas an amount equal to the refund demanded from any legally available source of funds; provided, however, that UNTHSC will cooperate with the City if the City reasonably and in good faith disagrees with the Comptroller’s demand and wishes to employ any available administrative or legal remedy to contest the Comptroller’s demand, with the understanding that UNTHSC itself shall have no liability or responsibility in asserting or related to such a contest.

3. COOPERATION WITH STATE COMPTROLLER.

UNTHSC will comply and cooperate with all requests and requirements of the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts (the “Comptroller”) pertaining to the Appropriated Funds. The City will comply and cooperate with all requests and requirements of the Comptroller (whether received directly from the Comptroller or through UNTHSC) pertaining to the City Allocated Funds, including all requests for information to substantiate job creation. Each party shall notify the other in writing within five (5) calendar days of receipt of any such request or requirement and shall cooperate with one another as reasonably necessary to ensure that such request or requirement is met in a timely fashion. As of the execution date of this Agreement, UNTHSC and City are not aware of any remaining duty, obligation or provision of information that the City or UNTHSC must undertake or supply to the Comptroller. In the event Comptroller demands the refund of any Appropriated Funds transferred to the City as City Allocated Funds on account of the City’s misuse of such City Allocated Funds, City will pay UNTHSC or the State of Texas in a manner dictated by the Comptroller an amount equal to the refund demanded from any legally available source of funds; provided, however, that UNTHSC will cooperate with the City if the City reasonably and in good faith disagrees with the Comptroller’s demand and wishes to employ any available administrative or legal remedy to contest the Comptroller’s demand, with the understanding that UNTHSC itself shall have no liability or responsibility in asserting or related to such a contest.

4. TERM.

This Agreement shall take effect on the date as of which both UNTHSC and the City have executed it and shall expire at 11:59 P.M. CDT August 31, 2017. Any duty or obligation of a party arising prior to expiration shall survive the expiration.

5. BREACH OR DEFAULT.

City understands and acknowledges that UNTHSC is not obligated to pay the City Allocated Funds from any source other than the Appropriated Funds received by UNTHSC. City acknowledges and agrees that UNTHSC’s liability to City under this Agreement is limited to the amount of funds actually received by UNTHSC designated by this Agreement as the City Allocated Funds. If UNTHSC receives Appropriated Funds but fails to transfer the City Allocated Funds to the City in accordance with this Agreement, the City shall provide written notice to UNTHSC. If UNTHSC fails to transfer the City Allocated Funds to the City within ten (10) business days following receipt of such notice, UNTHSC shall be in breach of this Agreement, in which case the City shall have all rights at law for monetary damages or in equity for injunctive relief or specific performance. If either party breaches any other provision of this Agreement, the non-defaulting party shall notify the defaulting party in writing, specifying the nature of the default. If the defaulting party has not cured the default within thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of such notice (or, if the defaulting party has diligently and continuously attempted cure, such additional time as may reasonably be required to effect cure), the defaulting party shall be in breach of this Agreement, in which case the non-defaulting party shall have all equitable rights for injunctive relief or specific performance.

6. LIABILITY.

EXCEPT FOR UNTHSC’S DUTY AND OBLIGATION TO TRANSFER THE CITY ALLOCATED FUNDS TO THE CITY IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE CITY HEREBY HOLDS HARMLESS AND RELEASES UNTHSC FROM AND AGAINST ANY LOSS, DAMAGE, LIABILITY AND EXPENSE (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, COURT COSTS AND REASONABLE ATTORNEY’S FEES) ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO THE SCHOOL RENOVATION AND THE PROVISION OF PROGRAM SERVICES.

7. NOTICES.

All written notices called for or required by this Agreement shall be addressed to the following, or such other party or address as either party designates in writing, by certified mail, postage prepaid, or by hand delivery:

Title: UNT Dallas Naming of Outdoor Amphitheater

Background:

Regents Rule 09.200, Naming of Property, Programs and Academic Positions, requires approval of namings. Private funding has been secured for an outdoor amphitheater to be located on the UNT Dallas campus. Initial planning for the 150 to 200 occupant amphitheater is complete, design and construction set to commence once all funds are received. The construction of this building falls below the limits of the projects requiring Board approval for construction; however, UNT Dallas’s naming policy (9.001.1) requires naming approval by the Board.

The Hoblitzelle Foundation has pledged $300,000 (50%) of the construction costs associated with the building of the new outdoor amphitheater and declined the naming rights to the facility. The Hoblitzelle Foundation has paid $100,000 to date. Additional funding for the facility was received from the Hillcrest Foundation which pledged and paid $100,000 (8%). Mr. and Mrs. Hart pledged $250,000 (42%) and paid $251,685.91.

The addition of an outdoor amphitheater to the UNT Dallas campus will greatly enhance various programs for our students as well as provide a valuable resource for the neighboring communities. In recognition of the gift made by Mr. and Mrs. Hart, the University wishes to honor these individuals with the naming of the new amphitheater.

Financial Analysis/History:

Current UNT Dallas policy 9.001, Naming Policy, states:

“Naming of buildings and other major facilities...must be approved by the Board of Regents following the recommendations of the President. The criteria for a gift-related naming will consider the value, visibility, improvements, and marketability of the location and will be based on a minimum donation valued between 33% and 50% of the original construction, renovation, or current value of the property.”

The estimated cost of the new outdoor amphitheater at UNT Dallas is $600,000. UNT Dallas has received the following in gifts and pledges to date:
Pledged | Received | Donor
--- | --- | ---
$300,000 | $100,000.00 | Hoblitzelle Foundation

Matching grant from foundation, allowing UNT Dallas to retain naming rights. $100,000 pledge payments to be paid in FY 2016 & FY 2017.

$100,000 | $100,000.00 | Hillcrest Foundation

$250,000 | $251,685.91 | Linda & Milledge Hart

$650,000 | $451,685.91 | Total

There are no financial implications associated with this naming.

Background:

UNT Dallas College of Law inaugural class enrolled in August of 2014. To date, 272 students have enrolled. Approximately 400 students are expected to be enrolled by the end of FY 2017.

UNT Dallas College of Law’s core educational goal of delivering a legal education is second to none in developing practice-related competencies. Maintaining affordable tuition is consistent with this educational goal and critical to the mission.

The total tuition for resident students for 2015-2016 academic year is $14,565. In light of its mission, and to ensure the quality education of its students, UNT Dallas College of Law requests that tuition for resident full-time students be increased to $15,133 for 2016-2017 academic year or $7,567 per semester (an increase of 3.9%). This increase will only apply to incoming students as current students’ tuition rate are frozen for the entirety of their degree (as long as they maintain satisfactory progress towards their degree). Resident part-time students will pay the tuition at the same rate, reduced on a pro rata basis contingent on the amount of enrolled semester credit hours. Current non-resident tuition of $25,720 is recommended to be set at $26,723, also an increase of 3.9%.

Unlike many other law schools, UNT Dallas College of Law does not discount tuition. The goal of this transparent tuition model is to keep tuition costs as low as possible. This practice also allows students to determine their costs before applying, but presents a challenge when comparing the true cost of tuition and fees at other law schools. Nevertheless, a tuition comparison chart is presented on the following page to show this increase in tuition remains substantially lower than tuition charged by other Texas law schools. The breakdown of proposed UNT Dallas College of Law tuition charges is as follows:

 Gross not net of discounting

Financial Analysis/History:

Many other law schools set tuition and fees much higher and subsequently discount tuition for their students. This practice allows those schools to indirectly increase tuition (by decreasing the tuition discount). However, the transparent no discount tuition model embraced by UNT Dallas College of Law strategically maintains low tuition, produces modest operating revenue, and ensures access to historically disadvantaged students.

The proposed tuition is projected to generate net tuition and fee of $4.3m for FY 2017 (an increase of 3%). This projection includes tuition and fees from the first year class (1L) and second year class with frozen tuition of $14,040 and $14,565 respectively. UNT Dallas College of Law is also expected to receive $4.2m in State General Revenue.

Projected operating expenses for FY 2017 is $8.2m. Any variation in student enrollment could have a positive or negative effect on projected tuition revenue.

This increase is necessary to ensure the continued growth and sustainability of UNT Dallas College of Law, as well as to enhance its success with respect to accreditation from the American Bar Association. Following its first full year of operations with students in FY 15, the College of Law was able to determine ongoing operating expenses. The College of Law’s requested increase in revenue will allow for investment and growth in significant and needed areas. For example, the projected budget for fiscal year 2017 includes funding for five new full-time tenured or tenure-track professors, new initiatives, and programming. In addition, new administrative and staff personnel being considered by the College of Law are in the areas of Academic Success, Instructional Technology, experiential learning, career counseling, event planning, and additional administrative support. After a year-and-a-half of operations with students, these are the areas the College of Law has determined need additional investment to ensure compliance with the American Bar Association standards, thereby enhancing the College of Law application for provisional, and subsequently full, ABA approval. The projected budget for fiscal year 2018 includes funding for an additional five new full-time tenured or tenure-track professors, bringing the total projected full-time faculty to 20.

Title: Approval of UNT Faculty Development Leaves for 2016-2017 Academic Year

Background:
In accordance with UNT Policy 15.1.11, Faculty Development Leave Policy and Guidelines, “Faculty development leaves are authorized for the primary purpose of increasing the value of the recipient’s sustained contribution to the university by providing the individual an opportunity for professional growth. Such developmental leaves are not to be understood as deferred compensation, nor are they to be anticipated simply on the basis of longevity at the university, alone. Development leave may be granted, upon application, for study, research, writing, field observations or other suitable purposes.

Opportunities for additional training, for improving skills and for maintaining currency is understood to be included as a purpose of development leave.”

In 1984, the University of North Texas began granting faculty development leaves, recognizing the need for faculty to have an opportunity to pursue major research or creative projects in order to contribute to the body of knowledge in their fields and better serve their students by remaining current in their disciplines. In 1987, the 70th Texas Legislature similarly encouraged universities to expand faculty development programs through a series of measures that increased flexibility in accounting for faculty activities.

In the ensuing years, the faculty development leave program has proven vital in maintaining discipline mastery for our faculty as we push forward toward national research status. These development leaves contribute greatly to the increase in research funding, research publications, and national recognition for UNT.

After careful review of proposals at the department and college levels, by a Faculty Senate committee, and by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, the University plans to award a total of 50 (4.7% of the full-time faculty) developmental leaves for the upcoming academic year. This represents a decrease in the number and percentages of faculty development leaves that have been approved in the past several years.

Financial Analysis/History:

The cost incurred as a result of the recommended faculty development leaves will be covered by existing college and school budgeted funds and will total approximately $342,474. The total estimate for the costs incurred as a result of the recommended faculty development leaves was calculated from replacement costs submitted by colleges and estimated average costs for covering individual faculty leaves.

<td>The in-depth study of a broad range of international and historical textile traditions have influenced my artwork. Knowledge gained from these histories, techniques, and art forms has equipped me to further explore and utilize a variety of woven and non-woven structures in my work. To further my creative research, I am requesting a faculty development leave for the spring 2017 semester. This leave will give me the opportunity to participate in a four-week residency program at the 360 Xochi Quetzal Artist and Writer's Residency Program located in Chapala, Jalisco, Mexico. The residency will provide an environment away from distractions to focus on a new body of artwork and offers living quarters, studio space and the opportunity to engage with a diverse group of artists, musicians, and writers in a country known for its colorful textiles. Living in an area that is rich in historical and contemporary textiles for one month will provide unforeseen discoveries. The unique environment will aid in exploring concepts, developing new patterns and investigating new materials and techniques in two-dimensional, three-dimensional and installation formats. The residency will also give me the opportunity to network with artists from other countries. Upon completion of the residency, I will refer to digital images, sketches, samples, models and notes to develop a body of artwork that will be shown in solo and group exhibitions in prominent national and international galleries and museums.</td>
<td>The FDL will give me the opportunity to achieve five primary outcomes: 1) Participate in an internationally recognized artist-in-residence program. I will be participating in a four-week residency at the 360 Xochi Quetzal Artist and Writer’s Residency Program. During the residency I will be documenting Mexican textiles, interviewing contemporary fiber artists, photographing the environment, sketching, investigating new techniques and creating models that test the durability and stability of a variety of materials. 2) Produce a body of artwork that pushes the limits of my current work and is worthy of exhibiting in group and solo exhibitions. In my current artwork I stretch thread on two-dimensional surfaces. I also create large installations by stretching thread from the walls and ceilings in a gallery. During my development leave, I will investigate new materials and techniques and experiment with three-dimensional forms. 3) Document the artwork with professional images. 4) Submit proposals for national and international exhibitions, commissions, lectures, and workshops. Solo exhibitions are a challenge to acquire in any area of art, but the craft area (fibers, metals, ceramics) is at an extreme disadvantage, because most galleries and museums’ focus is on painting and sculpture. By marketing my artwork as mixed media I am able to show in venues that typically shy away from fibers. 5) Participate in solo and group exhibitions, present lectures and lead workshops in national and international venues.</td>

<td>The primary purpose of this leave is to conduct field research and gather data for a new project on the subject of leadership in media organizations. While there is a considerable body of literature devoted to leadership in general, material devoted to leadership in a media context is extremely sparse. At a time when the media is experiencing unparalleled evolution and change, understanding the role of media leadership is critical. My field of research is the management and economics of the media industries. While I have been working in this area for over 25 years, my focus has been at the organizational (firm) or industry levels. Recently I have been studying leadership from a micro perspective, and want to devote more time and effort to this topic. A leave will allow me to expand my expertise of media organizations that will not only benefit me but students in my courses at UNT. In terms of outcomes, several are possible. There should be enough data collected to prepare a book devoted to the topic. Conference papers and journal articles are certainly possible outcomes, but I lean more towards long form writing. As an author of 15 books I am well suited to take on such a project. My Editor at Routledge has already expressed interest in a book if the project moves in that direction.</td>
<td>The primary outcomes anticipated from this project will be three-fold: 1) To thoroughly identify existing theories and patterns in contemporary leadership using existing published research, resulting in a comprehensive leadership review. Studies conducted using for-profit enterprises will be a requirement. 2) Engage in field research utilizing primary qualitative methods to gather data to further refine leadership styles used in contemporary media organizations. 3) These efforts will provide the resources for a possible new book devoted to the topic of leadership in media organizations. The applicant has written/edited a total of 15 books to date, most of them published by Routledge, a much respected international publisher. The author has already conducted some work on this project by collecting initial literature and engaging in pilot discussions with contemporary media managers to develop ideas.</td>

<td>The primary activity of my leave will be the writing of a pedagogical tool in the form of a method book for training singers in the tradition of bel canto voice production. Bel canto is the style of singing used for opera and art song in the west since the early 17th century. I am recognized as a leading expert in the United States and abroad in the field of vocal pedagogy and voice science as it applies to the classically trained singing voice. I have over 60 published articles in professional journals related to voice. A book is the natural progression of my contribution to my field of expertise and will enhance my career as the author of one of the only true method books written in the last several decades. The intended outcome of my leave is to provide the modern voice teacher (private and academic) of the bel canto style with a method book and supporting videos based on principles of the historical method that trained the singers during the period of time when the greatest development of the vocal art form occurred.</td>
<td>In the 18th and 19th centuries there were many books published around the world which could be characterized as a progressive method for training singers. They all followed a similar course, like those still used today in training beginning musicians on any musical instrument. The method was based upon the acquisition of fundamental skills in a slow, methodical fashion. As one skill was acquired, a new more complex one was added: relying upon the acquisition of the previous skill before the next more complex one was introduced. Around the turn of the 20th century, the progressive methods were largely replaced by books focusing on the scientific detail of the vocal mechanism to the exclusion of a methodical approach to teaching singing as a skill. The primary outcome of my leave will be to write a new progressive vocal method that will be modeled after the successful but forgotten methods of the 18th and 19th century for training singers. There is no other book on the market that fits this model. The historical ones are out of print and largely unavailable. I have published extensively on this topic in a regular column in a professional journal over the last 10 years.</td>

<td>Applied philosophy can do a better job of achieving its stated goal of societal relevance. Improving the impacts of applied philosophy would benefit philosophy (by demonstrating its value) as well as policy makers and STEM researchers (by assisting with the ethics and values dimensions of problems). Accounts of applied philosophy's impact are rare. So too are accounts of how to have impacts. This suggests that much of applied philosophical research may never reach the stakeholders who are actually struggling with the problems addressed by the applied philosopher. And it means that the next generation of applied philosophers has little guidance for how to do impactful work. This proposal is part of my ongoing research project to improve the effectiveness of applied philosophy. In particular, this proposal covers the crucial phases of assessing cutting-edge practices in Europe and composing a handbook for best practices. I will conduct the following activities: a) a qualitative review and mapping of European literature and databases; b) interviews with reviewers, philosophers, STEM researchers, and policy makers in Europe; and c) dissemination of results. The main outcomes of my research project will be: a) posts on our research website, philosophyimpact.org; b) scholarly articles and presentations; and c) a handbook of best practices for improving the broader impacts of applied philosophical research.</td>
<td>The primary outcomes of my leave activities are as follows: a) Posts on our research website, philosophyimpact.org; b) Scholarly articles and presentations; and c) A handbook of best practices for improving the broader impacts of applied philosophical research. The main audience for these outcomes is philosophers, particularly early career philosophers who will benefit from a collection of best practices in a handbook. There is growing interest in conducting socially relevant philosophy, as evidenced by new organizations like the Public Philosophy Network and the Socially Relevant Philosophy of and in Science and Engineering consortium. Yet this emerging community lacks the tools needed to improve their skills and practices of socially engaged research. The handbook as well as my other publications and research website are designed to provide those tools. Other audiences for my work include policy makers and STEM researchers. My objective includes communicating with them so that they can be aware of the potential benefits provided by socially engaged philosophers. I am also targeting academic administrators, because part of the project of fostering more socially relevant philosophy is institutional in nature. So, my outcomes will also speak to how administrators can incentivize and structure more impactful philosophical research.</td>

<td>I plan to collaborate with Dr. Qing Zhou and other scholars from the Culture and Family Study Laboratory in the Department of Psychology at University of California--Berkeley on multiple research projects. I will use state-of-the-art statistical modeling techniques to examine the impact of temperament, cultural influences, family socialization, and parenting practices, on the developmental pathways to mental health problems and competence in children and adolescents from immigrant families (with Asian heritage in particular). We plan to seek funding together from agencies like National-Institute-of-Child-Health-and-Human-Development (NICHD). This leave will allow me to extend my pre-tenure work on acculturation, parenting, and child adjustment and academic achievement in immigrant families, as well as improvement of quantitative methods for clustered and/or longitudinal data. I will use statistical modeling techniques that are relatively new to the field of family sciences, which allows the examination of between-person differences and handles violation of independence assumptions for dyadic/clustered and longitudinal data. Collaboration with substantive researchers will offer me different perspectives to real-world problems and generates methodological research ideas. I will have the opportunity to publish papers (2-4) in high-impact journals and apply for a grant with UC-Berkeley scholars and bring recognition to both UNT and myself. The collaboration can lead to collaborative research efforts between UNT and UC-Berkeley at both the faculty and student levels.</td>
<td>The outcomes of my leave are as follows: 1) To collaborate with internationally recognized researchers and laboratories at Psychology Department of UC-Berkeley on multiple research projects; 2) To understand the problems associated with analyzing dyadic and longitudinal data in family studies, generate methodological research ideas and conduct methodological research; 3) To develop growth mixture model, multi-level model, growth model, and multilevel structural equation model that handles the violation of independence assumption for longitudinal dyadic data; 4) I plan to publish 2-4 quality papers in high-impact journals. Examples of paper outlets are Developmental Psychology, Child Development, Journal of Educational Psychology, Journal of School Psychology, Early Childhood Research Quarterly, and Journal of Applied Developmental Psychology; 5) To present the research findings at 2-3 national and international conferences such as the annual or biennial meeting of American Educational Research Association (AERA), Society for Research in Child Development (SRCD), American Psychological Association (APA), and Psychometric Society (IMPS). 6) To attend research seminars, talks, and psychology and educational psychology courses at UC-Berkeley, update my knowledge and skills in research, measurement and statistics, as well as in developmental psychology; 7) To submit a grant application to agencies like National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD); 8) To establish a working relationship between UNT and UC-Berkeley that will last even upon my return to UNT.</td>

<td>Designed to facilitate national and state mandates for educating students about the relationships between music and hearing loss, I intend to use my leave to write a book that will leverage my award-winning research as the basis for content, theory, and application. The intended audience is college and public school music professionals. As a practical resource, this book will include applied strategies designed to help music educators teach student musicians about hearing health. This book will enhance my academic career by exposing my work to new audiences while providing UNT an opportunity for expanded visibility and leadership in this rapidly growing area.</td>
<td>The primary outcome of my leave will include the development of a draft manuscript for a book that includes chapters on music and hearing loss, the history of hearing conservation in the US, standards of practice for industrial settings, integration of standards into musical settings, dosimetry, the NIOSH Dream initiative, musician earplugs, earplug testing, and future directions.</td>

<td>After conducting preliminary research in the US, I will dedicate the fall term to primary research in England on the career of Charles Tegart, a colonial police officer in India, who was reassigned to quell the Arab revolt in British Palestine. I will investigate Tegart’s experience as a counterinsurgency specialist in India and Palestine (1901-1941), using Tegart’s policies to gauge British assessments of prior colonial conflicts in America, Asia, and Africa. British “small wars” experience offered varied solutions to the problem of insurgencies. Tegart’s commitment to defensive measures (bureaucratic, administrative, and logistical) reflected his analysis of these prior conflicts. The challenges regular forces face when confronting insurgencies is a topic I investigated in my first two research monographs (on wilderness warfare in British America in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, and on Atlantic anti-piracy campaigns in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries). The current research, which will produce a monograph published by a reputable university press, will carry this investigation into the early-twentieth century, collecting modern counterinsurgency with early-modern experiences of colonial warfare, and identifying the historical context of contemporary and current debates on counterinsurgency among strategists and policy-makers. By expanding my field of expertise from the New World to the Old, and from the early-modern era to the modern age, I will trace cultural, administrative, and military continuities between the First and Second British Empires.</td>
<td>I expect to locate sources on debates among civilian and military policy-makers in Britain, India, and British Palestine on the circumstances, causes, and solutions to colonial insurgencies of the nineteenth century. Initial data suggests that conflicting approaches toward counterinsurgency in the early-twentieth-century Indian and Palestine reflected conflicting historical and military analyses of Britain’s prior experiences with insurgencies and “small wars” elsewhere. The most important objective of my Fall 2016 research activity will be to create a monograph published by a reputable university press that will document the policies of Tegart and his predecessors, in both India and Palestine, in the context of Britain’s “small wars” of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, and of the bureaucratic culture of imperial authorities.</td>

<td>The primary activity of leave will be to pursue an in-depth, multi-method research study of the role of identity in family firms. The leave will provide me with the opportunity to pursue a number of goals that are critical to my professional development and to facilitate the continuation of a productive research career for the next several years. My research stream focuses on employee identities in organizations. A development leave will offer an opportunity to further expand my knowledge and extend my work into the growing field of family firm research, an area of strategic focus for my department, to link the new research with my past work, and to establish a more comprehensive research program. During the proposed leave, I plan to develop and test new theory using identity to understand employee dynamics within family firms. I intend to share the findings from this research through submissions to conferences and ultimately through publications in research outlets. These activities will contribute to the strategic goals of my department by further enhancing our visibility in the academic community in the area of family firm research. Additionally, by further developing this stream of research, I will also be able to share my increased expertise in this area with doctoral students and contribute to their development in this topic area. By studying these firms, I will also be able to complement my teaching activities to undergraduate and MBA students through increased understanding of the leadership requirements in these firms.</td>
<td>The primary objective of the leave is to gain understanding of how family firm employees negotiate and manage multiple bases for identity in family firms. Specific outcomes are: 1) Knowledge development that contributes to the understanding of employee relationships in family firms. Specifically, I hope to develop a model which describes how family firm employees manage multiple and sometimes conflicting identities and the outcomes of these processes. 2) Identification and securing of a data source that allows investigation into identity issues within family firms. First, this will involve identifying and securing agreement to participate from a select number of family firm employees for the first study, which will use qualitative methods to develop a model of identity management in family firms. Second, this will involve identifying and contacting a larger population of employees in family firms for a complementary quantitative study. 3) Dissemination of research with students, researchers, and policy makers. Dissemination opportunities will be sought through professional conferences and leading journals. 4) Expansion of personal skills associated with the qualitative methodology and analysis techniques to be used, which will be useful in achieving this project’s outcomes as well as other tasks associated with my academic career such as teaching and training of doctoral students.</td>

<td>The primary activity of my leave will be to conduct fundamental research in the area of laser-biological hard tissue/bone interaction through the interdisciplinary aspects based on physical science, biological science, materials science, mechanical engineering and orthopaedic medicine perspectives. The proposed research activity will be conducted in Perth, Australia in collaboration with multiple researchers at Australian Institute of Robotic Orthopaedics (AIRO), Curtin University of Technology (CUT), and University of Western Australia (UWA). My nearly one-decade research activities in the area of biomaterials will likely be greatly enhanced through proposed interdisciplinary/multidisciplinary collaboration with added dimensions in the fields of biophysics, bioengineering, and mechatronics/robotics. Especially, during these collaborations interactions with two renowned academic and practicing orthopaedic surgeons will provide an invaluable opportunity to learn and gain a perspective about translational research in biomedical engineering. The proposed activity will serve the primary purpose recently established Virtual Center of Advanced Orthopaedics (VACAO) to enable cooperation and exchange in all areas of mutual interest in research, development, implementation, and education related to the area of advanced orthopaedics between the founding organizations, UNT and AIRO. This activity is also expected to provide the platform to expand education and research in rapidly growing field of biomedical engineering which also a newly established academic department at UNT.</td>
<td>The proposed leave activity will be primarily aimed at 1) Seeking fundamental understanding of laser-biological hard tissue/bone at interaction at molecular and physical levels, and 2) Development of an intelligent laser system specifically engineering to shape biological hard tissue with an intensity for applications in clinical environment. These aims will be achieved through the following specific objectives via laboratory based research and engineering activities: Development of an analytical thermal model for laser-bone interactions, Development of non-invasive optical sensing during laser-bone interaction, Development of an artificial Intelligence system to monitor and control laser-bone interaction for thermal, molecular, cellular, biological and physical effects.</td>

<td>The purposes of my Faculty Development Leave for the 2016/17 academic year is to devote myself to a more robust studio practice both in my recently refurbished home studio and as a visiting artist in two international fine art printmaking institutions while developing relationships with significant professionals in my field. I have been invited to be an Artist-in-Residence at the Academy of Lithographic Art and the Museum of Lithography in Tidaholm, Sweden where I will reside one month making new lithographs, give a lecture on my work, present a solo exhibition of my work and an exhibition I curate composed of works by Contemporary American Lithographers. I have also been invited to be an Artist-in-Residence at Il Bisonte Foundation for the Study of Printmaking in Florence, Italy where I will reside one month making new lithographs, and give a lecture on my work. While in residence at each of these institutions I will create new works of art in response to local cultural stimuli that connect to my on-going central themes in food culture and more specifically the space of the meal. This Professional Development Leave will afford me the opportunity to invest more completely in creative research while building momentum to move to the next phase of my career.</td>
<td>I have four objectives with this Faculty Development Leave: 1) I will create a new body of artworks on paper including stone lithographs, screen prints, mixed media drawings and sculptural paper objects to be exhibited in future juried, invitational, and solo exhibitions. The work will expand my thematic interests in food culture while reacting to new cultural surroundings. 2) I will engage and make professional connections with the Academy of Lithographic Art I the Museum of Lithography in Tidaholm, Sweden (http://lithonet.org/) and Il Bisonte Foundation for the Study of Printmaking in Florence, Italy (http://www.ilbisonte.it/) while an Artist-in-Residence at these European institutions. My interactions with the faculty, staff, and students of these institutions will promote cultural connections and global creative practice. 3) I will develop relationships among and with a large number (20-30) of contemporary American artists exploring the lithographic print media while curating and organizing an exhibition and publishing an exhibition catalog of the work for an exhibition at the Museum of Lithography in Tidaholm, Sweden. 4) I will research and apply myself to new opportunities for future exhibitions and other creative endeavors while traveling and upon return to my home creative practice.</td>

<td>Why do death squads behave as they do? What incites or suppresses perpetrators of murderous policy? Existing research on mass killing focuses on the leader’s decision to kill civilians. Yet implementation is not perfect, and death squads tasked with executing civilians do not comply uniformly. To answer these questions and understand death squad behavior, I will gather new data based on primary source documents reporting the activities of Hitler’s death squads: the Einsatzgruppen. In addition to producing an original dataset of interest to a wide range of scholars and policymakers, I will write at least two original research papers that develop and quantitatively test a theory of death squad behavior over space and time. I will present these papers at conferences, and submit them for publication in influential peer-reviewed journals. By understanding what influenced the Einsatzgruppen, I hope to extend understanding to other cases where death squads act as agents of atrocity. If granted, this leave will enhance my academic career in multiple ways. It will allow me to conduct and publish new research. It will enable the creation of a dataset that will have value for political scientists, and may also be useful for historians, sociologists, and psychologists. It will better-equip me to educate and advise my undergraduate and graduate students. Finally, it may garner interest and support from policymakers focused on human rights abuse. Each of these actions will increase my visibility and impact, create new opportunities for collaboration, and help me build a case for full professorship.</td>
<td>While on leave, I plan to provide new insight into death squad behavior. First, I will gather new events data on the behavior of Hitler’s death squads: the Einsatzgruppen. The information will come from Operational Situation Reports sent regularly by each Einsatzgruppe to Berlin, and housed now at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. Once the data are complete, I will make them publicly available on my professional website. They will be of interest to scholars investigating (for example) repression, principal-agent relationships, the psychology of violence, and tyrannical regimes. Then, by focusing on the individual-level benefits of killing, I will develop a general theory to explain how and why death squad behavior varies over space and time. The new data will permit me to quantitatively test my theory’s expectations. I will write at least two new research papers, and present them at least three major conferences. I will then submit the papers for publication in widely read and highly impactful political science journals. By understanding what influences the Einsatzgruppen, I hope to extend understanding to other cases where death squads act as agents of atrocity.</td>

<td>I propose to conduct my Fall, 2016 Faculty Development Leave (FDL) at one of the top Business Schools in India - the SJM School of Management (SOM), located on the Indian Institute of Technology - Bombay campus, in Mumbai, India. In January, 2015, Dr. Bhargava, SOM’s Dean, and I jointly develop a teaching, research and service oriented FDL agenda that would be mutually beneficial. I am scheduled to meet with Dr. Bhargava again in January 2016 to work on the scope, logistical and operational details regarding specific research activities with faculty, and doctoral students, and the course that I am scheduled to teach, while at the SOM. We will also explore avenues whereby I can provide (and attend) seminars and development workshops that are of interest to the vibrant business community in Mumbai. For the past decade, my teaching and research has been centered on organizational capabilities. The FDL offers me a collaborative learning experience in this area. I would avail of the opportunity to interact with researchers in another country, thereby advancing my teaching and research skill-sets. What I ultimately seek to gain from the FDL is the opportunity to 1) participate in research, and pedagogical conversations, 2) actively observe how classroom learning and research activities are promulgated in a different (Indian) cultural, institutional, and academic context, and 3) build an enduring research network with Indian faculty and business executives.</td>
<td>My current research focuses on the three types of organizational capabilities (strategic, dynamic, and ordinary). The SJM School of Management (SOM) has several well published, researchers in this area. In addition, in fall 2015, the SOM, and Washington University, St. Louis, MO, will begin offering a joint executive-MBA program in Mumbai. Hence, when I arrive in fall, 2016, there will be several faculty from Washington U on teaching/research assignments at the SOM. I plan to actively interact with, learn from, and initiate joint research projects with some of these individuals. The offer to co-teach a course at the SOM brings with it the opportunity to interact with graduate (masters and doctoral) students, and to engage in pedagogical with faculty from the SOM, and Washington University. Having these conversations in a different (Indian) social and cultural setting, will provide unique perspectives on these issues. With UNT's student population growing increasingly international, this is experience could provide invaluable when I redesign my own course offerings at UNT. Mumbai is India’s business and financial capital. I plan to leverage the SOM’s reputation and its established industry network in Mumbai to build lasting connections with senior executives at large Indian corporations.</td>

<td>The expected outcomes from my leave will be the creation of findings to be submitted peer-reviewed, high quality journals. I expect to disseminate my research results through: 1) Peer-Reviewed Publications - I expect to target the leading journals in the field of logistics and supply chain management including the International Journal of Logistics Management, International Journal of Physical Distribution and Logistics Management, and the Journal of Business Logistics. I will also seek publication in journals associated with the field of accounting. 2) Conference Presentations and Proceedings - I frequently present my research stream at conferences and publish working papers in conference proceedings. <td>I seek FDL for Spring 2017 to continue work on my monograph, Freedom's Ring: Literatures of Liberation from Civil Rights to the Second Wave. This project explores &quot;freedom&quot; as a key concept in important novels and nonfiction from leading writers of the civil rights, anti-war, free love, and women's liberation movements between 1955 and 1975. In addition, it discusses the related concepts of equality, responsibility, promiscuity, and escape and considers how appeals to freedom, belonging overwhelmingly to the conservative agenda at this point, once furthered the causes of left-leaning Americans from diverse backgrounds. I am currently completing the introduction for this project and will be at work on chapters during FDL: the chapter exploring manifestations of sexual freedom in popular literature, for instance, I will examine Jacqueline Susann's Valley of the Dolls (1966), Erica Jong's Fear of Flying (1973), and Judith Rossner's Looking for Mr. Goodbar (1975) among many others. My intention is to present findings related to this research at national conferences and to excerpt chapter material for article-length publication. In addition, I will complete an application for a year-long fellowship from the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH). I will present a paper (and am now chairing the Postwar Area Studies Group) for the ALA in May 2016, and I've received strong interest from a panel organizer at the American Comparative Literature Association (ACLA) in a presentation from the book's introduction for ACLA's 2016 meeting.</td>
<td>I will work on a book project, discussing novels and films dealing with the sexual revolution in one chapter, as well as memoirs and biographies from the Black Panther movement in another. I will submit articles based on this research to well-regarded journals and develop a narrative sufficiently detailed to apply for an NEH Fellowship. Freedom's Ring explores the permutations of freedom and liberation that shaped the cultural agenda of left-leaning Americans of all ages in the decades following the Second World War. From the civil rights movement's call for &quot;Freedom Now!&quot; and the Freedom Rides and Freedom Party campaigns that polarized the South in the 1960s, to the &quot;free stuff&quot; demanded by San Francisco's Diggers and other hippie collectives, to the social license sought after by more radical groups such as the Black Power movement, late 1960s antiwar movements, and bra-burning &quot;women's libbers,&quot; freedom was powerful currency spent lavishly in the writing, films, and public statements by and about these groups in this period. As rights movements sought new measures of political and sexual freedom, however, they repeatedly failed to achieve that other goal enshrined almost as often in national documents, equality. Equal access to education, jobs, and salaries eluded rights groups in the 1960s (as it continues to today), and my project explores the important differences between (political) freedom and (economic) equality for under-resourced US groups, as well as the various ways that women’s bid for sexual freedom almost always resulted in greater benefits to men.</td>

<td>My research focuses on the real-world practice of usability and user experience (UX) assessment. Usability investigates how well a user can accomplish a defined task (e.g., can a user rent a van at u-haul.com?). UX investigates the degree to which a user enjoys the interaction (e.g., would a user return to u-haul.com to rent another van?). On FDL, I will observe several usability professionals in their day-to-day work environment. Several members of the Dallas User Experience Group have invited me to observe their organizations regarding two particular mechanisms: &quot;personas&quot; and &quot;heuristic evaluation.&quot; Further, some organizations have given initial permission for a quasi-experiment that would involve one assessment using personas and heuristic evaluation and one assessment without personas and heuristic evaluation. I will also use connections with evaluators in San Francisco to compare geographical differences in UX assessment. Current UX practice is based upon anecdotes. Few studies have looked empirically at the activities and best practices of UX professionals, and those that have are now dated (from the early 2000s and thus omit the smartphone boom). These empirical observations and quasi-experiments will enhance my academic career by furthering my understanding and, thus, my reputation as a scholar of solid empirical evaluation of usability and UX within the field of technical communication. The immediate intended outcome of this leave would be at least one presentation at an international conference, at least one conference paper at an international conference, and at least one article in an international journal.</td>
<td>The primary outcome of leave is to collect a rich data set of empirically obtained data. I will be able to observe how usability professionals actually conduct usability evaluation in practice. An ethnographic analysis that includes a discourse analysis will provide the field with a much needed baseline of what is actually happening in the field, particularly in terms of persona and heuristic evaluation usage. I anticipate at least three outcomes from this work. First, I anticipate to present the findings at least one major international conference. I anticipate this conference to be either IEEE ProComm Conference or ACM Computer Human Interaction Conference. I will also submit a conference paper to the appropriate conference. I also intend to publish at least one full length article in either IEEE Transactions on Professional Communication or the Journal of Usability Studies reporting the findings gathered during the leave. However, the most important element of this data collection will be that I will create a corpus of data that I can use to compare later findings against. While this data will reveal how usability professional use heuristic evaluation with personas, I will be able to conduct a later study that could compare, for example the use of heuristic evaluation with A/B testing to the previously collected data. Further, this collected data will prove to be invaluable as I pursue funding from sources, such as the NSF. Therefore, I believe that the results of this leave could continue to be invoked for many years to come in upwards of 3-4 presentations and articles and possibly the funding of a grant.</td>

<td>My purpose in seeking faculty development leave is to extend my research stream on Branding by conducting research on a relevant topic that has not been explored. This research should yield at least two peer-reviewed papers targeted at top marketing journals, being the main objective to publish in the Journal of Consumer Research. The timing of this development leave would coincide with the beginning of my fifth year as an associate professor, and my intention is to give my research a final boost to go up for full professor in Fall 2017. Personal branding, surprisingly, is an area of branding that has been thoroughly analyzed in practitioner literature but has not been fully explored academically. The topic is ever more relevant as what used to be reserved for a few (namely celebrities and public personalities) has become a must for almost any person in the workforce. In college, students are invited to build and work on their personal brands, yet no academic research has explored the topic. Furthermore, with the growth of social media, people are developing multiple ‘personas’ in different realms of their lives. What my proposed research project will explore is how people build their multifaceted self-identities, what factors influence this process, and how this process influences their consumption decisions in the marketplace. The leave activities will likely lead to journal publications, conference presentations, and enhancement of teaching activities.</td>
<td>The proposed project is a continuation of my research on brand identity co-creation and a part of an ongoing collaboration with Dr. Oriol Iglesias of ESADE Business School and the ‘Brand Meaning Co-Creation and Co-Construction Dynamic Stakeholder Network’ hosted by Dr. Richard Jones and Dr. Sylvia van Wallapach of Copenhagen Business School. The primary outcomes anticipated from the leave include two peer-reviewed manuscripts, one at a top ranked marketing journal, presentations at leading academic conferences and incorporation of research into brand management courses. 1) Manuscript #1-empirical behavioral piece, describing the formation and management of personal brands in order to build consumer self-identities. Targeted to Journal of Consumer Research, submission by March 2017. 2) Manuscript #2-empirical piece proposing and validating a personal branding conceptual model. Targeted to Journal of Business Research, submission by May 2017. 3) Conference presentations at leading US and European conferences, such as the Association of Consumer Research (ACR), the Academy of Marketing Global Brand Conference, the European Academy of Marketing Conference (EMAC), the Winter American Marketing Association (AMA) conference, and the Cross Cultural Research Conference.</td>

<td>I'm requesting FDL travel to New York City to improve my performance and technology skills which would lead to professional growth and project development. Phase I: Skill development which leads to artistic ability at the highest professional level. The foundation of my development leave will be to study current trends in singing-acting for musical theatre not only in terms of best practices and entrepreneurship but also in the technological skill our digital age requires. Phase II: With the groundwork laid, proceed to identify collaborators and refine the research topic. The skill development and field knowledge will build momentum to the next stage which would be to select future collaborators and uncover possible directions for my performance project. Phase III: Create a scripted narrative musical performance piece. The final phase of this research will be to conceive, compile songs, cast and write the connecting scenes of a scripted narrative musical revue, which will focus on female composers and their work in the musical theatre. Previous genre models include: Aint Misbehavin’, Always, Patsy Cline, Side by Side by Sondheim and Jacques Brel is Alive and Well. This entire process is the same my students might encounter when moving to NYC to pursue their performance and creative careers. With the knowledge I'll gain during this leave I would be able to give them the most cutting edge advice and guidance upon my return. This life experience will lead to shared knowledge and inspiration in the classroom.</td>
<td>The expected outcomes of Faculty Development Leave will include: 1) Develop singing-acting skill at the highest professional level. 2) Gain expertise in digital marketing for the performing artist and the use of social media in artistic creation, career development and project promotion. 3) Network with Broadway professionals for the purpose of establishing a working relationship and potential collaborators. Learn from NYC theatres and festivals the process of new musical development with the goal of creating a summer New Musical Festival at UNT. 4) Identify suitable NYC venues/produces for the creation of a future musical theatre piece. There is a theory that music preceded language in our evolution. I see the actor-singer as a nurse practitioner of the heart: someone who ignites understanding and bonding. After medical practitioners and clergy, we artists are often the second responders at tragedies, social uprisings and political unrest. We strive to assist our communities to make sense of it all. The search for this communion and enlightenment is the theatrical artistic goal that has defined my career. During this renewal, I will seek artists who wish to explore the music that could give voice to an underrepresented population. Specifically, the stories of the few women Broadway composers whose contributions could be lost to history or are simply cast in the shadows of the men they served (e.g. Kay Swift and George Gershwin). As an actor and director, I am able to conceive and create theatre performances that could address this invisibility.</td>

<td>Over the past several years, I have worked hard to develop a research program focused on positive psychology, specifically focused on humility. Because humility research was at its beginning stages, much of this initial work involved consolidating definitions, developing measures, and describing theory for the importance of humility in developing and maintaining relationships. At this point in my career, I have a need to complete a few key writing projects in this area, develop and strengthen my research collaborations in this area, and set a plan for my research program going forward. Thus, the primary activities of my leave will be to (a) analyze data from previous grants, (b) submit two manuscripts, (c) develop and strengthen relationships with key collaborators, and (d) set a research agenda for the next several years. This leave activity will enhance my academic career by providing the needed time to analyze data, finish manuscripts, connect with key collaborators, and put me in a good position to take the next step in this research area. The intended outcomes of the leave activity are two submitted manuscripts, two planning meetings with key collaborators, and an outline of my research agenda in the field of humility for the immediate future.</td>
<td>There are three primary outcomes from the leave activities. First, I have existing data from previous extramural grants on humility that I need to analyze, write up, and submit for publication. Specifically, I plan to analyze these data, and write and submit two papers to peer-reviewed journals. The outcome will be copies of the submitted manuscripts. Second, I will schedule two trips to meet with key collaborators for my research program. The outcome will be a summary of the meetings and projects discussed. Third, I plan to spend some time planning and setting a research agenda for my work on humility moving forward. The outcome will be an outline of my plan for humility research moving forward.</td>

<td>The primary purpose of this request is to expand and enhance my research and educational activities using Streptomyces phage. Streptomyces phage are viruses that infect the members of the bacterial genus Streptomyces. I involve both undergraduate and graduate students in the isolation and characterization of these phage through my involvement with the Science Education Alliance’s Phage Hunters Advancing Genomics and Evolutionary Science (SEA-PHAGES) program sponsored by the Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI). While most institutions participating in SEA-PHAGES nationally have focused on phage that infect the genus Mycobacterium, I have taken the lead in developing Streptomyces as a host. During the proposed leave, I propose to develop additional teaching guides that will assist in the adoption of this host by additional SEA-PHAGES programs, adapt experimental protocols currently in use for Mycobacterium to the Streptomyces host, and utilize these protocols to complete analyses of current Streptomyces phage isolates for publication. These activities will enhance my academic career through continued exposure within and beyond the SEA-PHAGES community as a leader in the study of Streptomyces phage. Project outcomes will include a completed laboratory manual for Streptomyces phage isolation and analysis for use by SEA-PHAGES community and one or more publication drafts on Streptomyces phages for submission to peer-reviewed journals.</td>
<td>The primary outcomes of this requested development leave would include a completed laboratory manual for Streptomyces phage isolation and analysis for use by SEA-PHAGES community and one or more peer-reviewed publications on Streptomyces phages. Currently, the only official SEA-PHAGES laboratory manual is written for the isolation of Mycobacteriophage. I have revised this manual to create a draft version for use with Streptomyces phage, but would need additional development time to complete the process of adapting the complete manual for use with Streptomyces phage isolation. The completed manual could be utilized by institutions across the nation who participate in the SEA-PHAGES program and who are interested in working with hosts other than Mycobacterium. I would work with the University of Pittsburgh (lead institution on the SEA-PHAGES program in association with HHMI) to adapt and test protocols for the final manual. In conjunction with this, I would utilize training from the University of Pittsburgh in more advanced techniques to advance the study of Streptomyces phage. This would contribute additional data that would result in the preparation and submission of one or more journal article drafts analyzing Streptomyces phage previously isolated at UNT.</td>

<td>Research in the area of tax compliance has primarily been conducted in the United States, because the U.S. is one of very few nations that relies heavily on voluntary compliance. Most other countries enforce tax collections via high withholdings or by relying heavily on indirect taxes. Given shrinking enforcement budgets, revenue authorities in almost all jurisdictions are interested in learning about factors that influence compliance with tax laws. While there is a significant amount of compliance research in the U.S. dealing with direct taxes, there is a dearth of such research in Europe and little compliance research dealing with indirect taxes. This project is designed to be series of experimental studies investigating how economic (detection risk), behavioral factors (gain or loss domains), and personal traits (norms) impact compliance individually and interactively. Taxes investigated will be both direct and indirect taxes. The study will allow me to identify intra-country factors of compliance as well as perform cross-country comparisons. This also helps open up new areas of research, new data sources and provides me with the opportunity to collaborate with new co-authors. The intended outcome of the FDL activity is to produce research that will be presented in international accounting and tax forums and eventually published in highly respected accounting and tax journals. Manuscripts arising from research will be targeted to leading accounting and tax journals such as National Tax Journal, Journal of American Taxation Association, and Accounting Organizations and Society.</td>
<td>This project attempts to model tax compliance as an emotional decision, where economic, psychological and moral factors play a role in an interactive manner. Thus one outcome of this research effort is a greater understanding of tax compliance with direct taxes in the U.S. Research in the area of compliance with indirect taxes is rather sparse, with a notable exception in recent years being Webley et al., 2002. Given that revenue departments in almost all jurisdictions (in the U.S. and abroad) continually face reduced audit budgets, insight into the area of factors that influence indirect tax compliance will greatly assist policymakers and tax departments in designing programs and procedures to encourage and facilitate compliance. Compliance with indirect taxes is specifically more important to individual states (since most of them rely on sales and use taxes as their primary source of revenue) and to the E. U. countries (since the value-added-tax, VAT, is one of the most important sources of revenue). Compliance research on indirect taxes may also reveal the existence of different techniques that are commonly used to evade indirect taxes. The effect of specific intervention programs will also be investigated. Thus, the second outcome of this research is a greater understanding of compliance with indirect taxes in the U.S. and in the E.U. countries. Manuscripts arising from my research effort will be targeted to leading accounting and tax journals such as National Tax Journal, Journal of American Taxation Association, and Accounting Organizations and Society.</td>

<td>This application for Faculty Developmental leave is to request the time necessary to conduct a field study about the nonprofit sector in South Korea during Spring semester 2017. The project examines the role of the nonprofit sector in advancing social change in Korea and primarily focuses on the complex relationship between government policies and nonprofits' political, economic and social status in Korean society. Few scholars have analyzed how the nonprofit sector in Asian countries leverage social mechanisms to advance desired and legitimate change and this proposed FDL will help me examine nonprofit growth and its role in Korea. The research will contribute to government driven nonprofit sectors as a model to be used in civil society research in developing countries and I anticipate that multiple scholarly articles will be published from this project. The proposed project will be conducted by field research in Korea that is in a scope not permitted by a normal workload assignment. This FDL plan anticipates intensive study of Asian civil society literature and in person interview with nonprofit leaders and government officials from field research at Korea. During my FDL semester, I will be a visiting scholar at the Yonsei University (approved by Chair of the hosting department), which is among the top universities in Korea, and I will share my research experiences with scholars in this department and collaborate on joint nonprofit research projects. I believe FDL will give me an opportunity post-tenure to cement my role as a scholar-who-must-be-cited in the field of Asian nonprofit research.</td>
<td>I am a nonprofit scholar and the first primary outcome is to expand my scholarship in the field of nonprofit research and develop my expertise in Asian nonprofit research. I want to build a solid scholarship by producing a series of articles about the Korean nonprofit sector. Thus this is my objective to build my Korean nonprofit specialty by examining growth of nonprofit and exploring dynamic relationship between government policies and the nonprofit sector in Korea. This research will produce two manuscripts by the end of Leave semester and the data that will be collected from FDL will be used to support external funding applications. A second outcome anticipated from this FDL is to help me serve as more effective teacher to my students especially students who are interested in nonprofits in developing countries and international civil society. A graduate seminar course &quot;PADM 5700: Internationalization of the Nonprofit Sector,&quot; will be developed for the students of Masters of Public Administration and Ph.D. student in Public Administration.</td>

<td>Research in my lab is largely focused on applying molecular and genetic methods to active conservation programs, particularly those addressing the management of threatened and endangered bird species. The development leave will allow me to develop the skills necessary to analyze whole genome sequence data for the application to conservation biology. Recent technological advances in DNA sequencing allows us to generate huge amounts of data (e.g., one avian genome is typically 1 billion DNA base pairs long), and the skills required to analyze such data are fairly specific but highly technical and difficult unless one has a background in bioinformatics. The rate for which DNA sequencing technology has increased to generate huge amounts of data has outpaced our ability to analyze it. In fact, a high proportion of recently advertised research-track academic positions in the natural sciences are for bioinformaticians, or researchers that focus specifically on the analysis of genomic data. The Department of Biological Sciences currently has one bioinformatician who largely works on plant RNA transcriptions, i.e., gene expression in plants. I will use the development leave to learn the skills necessary to generate and conduct vertebrate whole genome (DNA) analyses. I will also use the opportunity to generate and analyze a whole genome dataset that will be published in a peer-reviewed journal. My lab must learn and use the methods for conducting whole genome analyses to remain competitive for research funds and to stay current in the field of conservation genetics.</td>
<td>The primary outcomes anticipated from the leave activities will be to obtain the necessary skills to generate and analyze whole genome sequencing data. The activities will also establish and/or further enhance collaborations with existing laboratories that conduct whole genome-based research, including those that extract and analyze ancient DNA (aDNA) from museum specimens. The wealth of tissues that currently exist in museum collections allow us to obtain tissues from rare or extinct species. However, because DNA becomes fragmented or degraded as soon as the organism has died, the skills necessary to extract and analyze aDNA are highly specialized. Only a few labs in the US conduct whole genome sequencing using museum samples, and the leave activity will allow me to develop the skills necessary to extract and analyze aDNA. Ultimately, I do not have the skill set required to conduct genomic research and remain competitive in my research discipline, i.e., conservation genetics due to rapid technological advances in our ability to generate whole genome sequencing data. Methods used for traditional genetic approaches such as targeted sequencing are not sufficient to conduct whole genome analyses. Therefore, the development leave will allow me to focus more attention on learning the necessary skills to conduct whole genome analyses. I will also generate and analyze a whole genome dataset that will be published in a peer-reviewed journal or used as preliminary data for a research proposal depending on funding.</td>

<td>The primary activities during leave will be the analysis and write-up of data I have collected. I will be examining a population that was not the focus of my interest in the past. The leave will give me the opportunity to enter a new research area &quot;at the ground floor&quot;. A FDL devoted solely to my research will allow me to submit several papers to peer-reviewed journals and re-start my publishing career after a lengthy commitment to administrative tasks. My primary interest in body image has been in men suffering with a phenomenon called &quot;muscle dysmorphic disorder&quot; (MDD). By definition, these men are heavily muscled, but suffer intense distress about a perceived lack of muscularity. My students and I have collected demographic, behavioral, and psychological data from over 1,000 college men in several different waves. The data resulted in publications and theses about college men with body dissatisfaction related to their perceptions of not being muscular enough, however, only 1% of any sample could be classified as having full-blown MDD. This finding mirrors that of other researchers and led me to question the value of studying MDD in college populations. A more prevalent reason for body image concerns is being overweight or obese. Using current medical definitions, more than 30% of my participants would be classified as 'overweight' or 'obese'. While the health risks associated with obesity are well-documented, few researchers in the US have investigated the potential psychological correlates (e.g., self-concept, psychological symptoms, etc.) of being overweight or obese in young adulthood.</td>
<td>There is a critical need to assess the psychological adjustment of overweight and obese college students. Such foundational research is required if we are to understand the psychological risks associated with being overweight and other factors that may contribute to better and worse outcomes. The overarching objective of my proposed developmental leave is to analyze the data and publish the results from datasets I have ready to be examined. Optimally, a FDL devoted solely to my research will allow me to submit several papers to peer-reviewed journals and re-start my publishing career in a nascent area of research with potential applications for millions of Americans.</td>

<td>Since 2001, Professor Jim Meernik and I have been conducting research on the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY). We were awarded research partner status by the ICTY (2011), and we began developing a survey with the ICTY Victims and Witnesses Services (VWS) unit to systematically evaluate and analyze the witness experience. The administration of the survey, the compilation of the statistical data, and our report to the ICTY will be completed by the summer of 2016. We then move into the completion phase of the project which is to prepare a book length manuscript and to present our findings to ICTY stakeholders at The Hague, Netherlands and within the region of the former Yugoslavia (Bosnia, Croatia, Serbia, and possibly Kosovo) during spring 2017. These presentations seek to cultivate support for undertaking a larger study that will include additional 700 persons. The leave activity positions us to be at the leading edge of research about war crimes victims and the impact of testifying on witnesses. There has never been a study of this magnitude about war crimes witnesses, in large part because no one has been given this unprecedented access to the ICTY. The outcomes of leave will be 1) completion of the survey report and delivery to the ICTY and United Nations; 2) presentations to the ICTY; 3) presentations to the witnesses and interested persons in the former Yugoslavia; 4) completion of a full length manuscript based on the final report, as well as multiple research articles; and 5) a preliminary report of potential grant providers for the larger survey (dependent upon ICTY approval in summer 2016).</td>
<td>The first objective of the FDL is to finish work on our survey of individuals who have testified before the ICTY. This study is the result of five years of work with the VWS to develop, field test, and implement the survey. The survey evaluates: 1) witness background and reasons for testifying; 2) the socio-economic impact of testifying on witnesses; 3) the security concerns witnesses face before, during, and after testimony; 4) witness physical and psychological well-being; and 5) witness perceptions about the ICTY's legacy of justice. A sixth section asks three open-ended questions which are audio-taped at the conclusion of the written survey. Here witnesses are given an opportunity to express concerns or issues about the testimonial process, their advice for future witnesses, and critical commentary they want to share with the ICTY about their experiences. Final work on the survey (including data entry, cross-checking, translation, analysis, and creation of figure) will be performed in fall 2015 through summer 2016. We will use the leave period to write the book manuscript based on the report along with research articles which incorporate our findings into our discipline’s knowledge about the impact of war crimes tribunals on peace, human security, and reconciliation. We will also travel to The Hague, Netherlands for several weeks in spring 2017 to make presentations to ICTY and UN officials. The final report for the pilot survey will become part of the ICTY’s legacy project. We will also travel to Bosnia, Croatia, Serbia, and if possible Kosovo with ICTY officials to make presentations on our results to witnesses and other stakeholders.</td>

<td>My area of research is matroid theory, a distillation of linear algebra and matrix theory. Over the past ten years, there were two significant advances in matroid theory. Internal to the subject is a proof of the matroid minor theorem, a result which allows a complete description of matroids (most of it in computable form) which can occur if certain restrictions are imposed. External to the subject is the discovery that the matroid stratification of the Grassmannian acts as the backbone for many applications. An important practical application is to signal processing, in particular, frames. Frames are cleverly constructed &quot;short fat&quot; matrices which minimizes quantization or other errors or maximize the amount of information retained under data compression. The matroid structure of a frame condenses critical combinatorial properties of a frame. The two advances, internal and external, have proceeded more or less independently. The primary leave activity is to bring these two advances together by collaborating with the group of Professor Geoff Whittle. This group has been instrumental in proving the matroid minor theorem. In so doing, I hope to be able to use the powerful theoretical and computational tools developed by Whittle's group to derive results of interest to other areas of pure and applied mathematics. If successful, this will enhance my academic career in that I will bring together two areas of mathematics and in so doing, enlarge my personal network. The short-term (within a year) outcome will be two or three research papers. The long-term outcome (within two or three years) will be a book aimed at the research community.</td>
<td>In the short term, the tangible primary outcome will be two or three research papers which will be submitted to international refereed journals. The intangible outcome will be closer communication and collaboration with an active group of researchers (led by Professor Geoff Whittle) at Victoria University Wellington, New Zealand. In the long term, I intend to write a book on matroid theory emphasizing its connections with other areas of pure and applied mathematics.</td>

<td>I plan to continue archival research in Salt Lake City, Utah and conduct interviews with former debaters in Utah, California, and Illinois, to complete two peer-reviewed article submissions on international debate in the United States from 1960-1990. I will read personal papers, organizational records, and publicity reports at the Marriott Library at the University of Utah. The project continues work I presented at a conference on the role international debate played in changing student cultural consciousness in the 1960s, and will benefit my teaching in the College of Arts and Sciences and enhance my reputation as a leading scholar in argumentation. Students will benefit from my research through the production of articles, book chapters and conference papers, and integrating my findings in events hosted by the university's debate team. This research and peer-reviewed publications would significantly advance my achieving full professorship. Awarded tenure in 2011, my appointment is 50% professor of Communication Studies and 50% Director of Debate, meaning that in addition to my teaching, research, and service obligations, I run the University’s nationally competitive debate team, oversee a full schedule of public and international debates on campus, and manage outreach activities such as directing two debate tournaments that UNT hosts as well as the Mean Green Workshop in the summer. This leave project will advance both portions of my faculty position at the University of North Texas.</td>
<td>Leave outcomes will include: 1) Peer-reviewed journal article in Contemporary Argumentation &amp; Debate focusing on the Russian International Debate Tour of the US. I conducted initial archival research to determine the feasibility of this project in summer 2015. My historical approach will contextualize the importance of the Russian-US debate exchange historically given the timing of the tour in the mist of the cold war. 2) Peer-reviewed journal article in Argumentation and Advocacy focusing on the cultural impact of the Japanese international debate tours of the US in the 1960s/1970s. I conducted initial archival research to determine the feasibility of the archival research project and presented my findings at Alta Argumentation Conference and published a portion of my findings in the peer-reviewed proceedings in 2014. The initial pilot project was well received and demonstrates an increasing interest in a broader history of communication movement from scholars in the discipline. As a former international debater and coach of the US National team, I will be able to secure interviews of former international debaters to provide context to the historic and cultural impact of the US/Japanese debate tours.</td>

Career theory provides a context for understanding the career development of individuals, including the intersection of interests, skills, values, personality, and cultural variables as well as potential barriers to and strategies for navigating career transitions. In CACREP accredited counseling programs, career counseling is a core course that students take relatively early in their programs of study. While students are learning about career theory, in a separate course they are tasked with identifying and developing a theoretical approach to personal counseling. This process often results in a dichotomous situation in which students lack a clear understanding of the relationship between career theory and personal counseling theory. Career counseling practitioners are increasingly recognizing the artificial distinction between career counseling and personal counseling. However, counselor education programs lag behind, and there is a dearth of literature regarding identification and integration of career theory. The purpose of the proposed project is to advance both my own and other counseling professionals’ knowledge regarding identification and application of career theory as it applies to the process of integrating career theory and personal counseling theory. During the proposed development leave, I will engage in continuing education regarding career theory and personal counseling theory, interview counseling students to gain an understanding of their learning needs and obstacles to integration, and interview career counseling experts to gain their perspectives. The project will result in three manuscripts for publication.

As a result of engaging in the proposed project, I will: 1) Strengthen my foundation regarding identifying and developing one’s career theory as a precursor to developing a teaching and learning model for classroom application. 2) Develop a foundation for integrating career counseling theory and personal counseling theory and conceptualize an integrated model for application to the classroom context. 3) Prepare a conceptual manuscript describing the false distinction between career counseling and personal counseling, the lack of research and pedagogy regarding identification and integration of career theory, and a model for use in classroom settings. 4) Conduct a research study examining students’ perceptions of the process of career theory identification and integration, including specific challenges and strategies, and prepare a related manuscript for publication. 5) Conduct a research study exploring career experts’ views on the process of career theory identification and integration and best practices for teaching and learning, and prepare a related manuscript for publication. 6) Develop an interdisciplinary network for increased attention to career theory identification and integration. 7) Deepen my understanding of exemplary practices in career counselor education, research, and practice.

<td>I plan to work with researchers at GuangFa (GF) Securities to study China's stock market during my leave. As the growth engine of the world's second largest economy, the stock market in China is playing an increasingly important role in China and the world. Recent turmoil in China's stock market had caused one of the biggest fluctuations in the U.S. stock market since the great recession. The Chinese stock market also exhibits unique characteristics like a high level of individual investor participation, strong momentum, government intervention, and speculator manipulation. Particularly, I plan to study two aspects of this market. The first paper will explore how the fluctuation of stock returns can be explained by the growth of fundamental factors in the long run. The second paper will examine momentum in the short term and reversal in the long term under a unified theory of investor underreaction and over-reaction. GF Securities is one of the first full-service investment banks and integrated security brokerages in China. I have contacted its top management and have met with its director of Equity Development Research, Dr. Gu Juan. The company is very positive about the opportunity of working with a finance professor from the United States. GF Securities will provide me a research assistant, office, and data to collaborate on my projects. This on-site experience also will provide me in-depth hands-on understanding of the mechanism of the Chinese stock market. My long term goal is to become an authoritative researcher in international investing, and this project is an important step towards that goal.</td>
<td>I have three main objectives: First is publication. I expect two publications in academic journals. One article will explore the relationship between fundamental factors (earnings growth, dividend growth, real interest rates, etc.) and stock return in the long term. China's stock market is often characterized as volatile and unpredictable. However, works by 2013 Nobel Laureate Robert Shiller and others suggest there is some predictability of stock returns in the long-run. Discovering the fundamental forces behind the short term fluctuations is important for the health and efficiency of international capital markets. The other paper will study the initial under-reaction, momentum chasing and eventual over-reaction from individual stock investors. The paper is motivated by recent works on behavioral finance and a high level of participation from individual investors in China's stock market. The second objective is to understand the unique mechanisms of China's stock market by interacting with researchers and traders at GF Securities. I want to understand the roles of institutions and governments; how the index future market feeds back to the spot market; why futures indexes often contain a discount that cannot be explained by classic future-spot equilibrium; how the newly developed options market affects stock trading; and how statistical and fundamental analysis is applied by its equity analysts, compared with technical analysis that is popular with individual investors. Third, I plan to write a book, introducing the scientific empirical research method to equity researchers in China.</td>

<td>Historically, banks have borrowed more than 90% of the money they use to invest and to lend to consumers and entrepreneurs. High levels of debt generate large returns when the economy performs well; producing big bonuses for employees, but excessive borrowing creates large risks in economic downturns. These risks are passed to taxpayers in different ways, for instance, by governments rescuing banks when they cannot pay their debts. The banking sector is experiencing a dramatic transformation, and academic research on this industry has relevant policy implications. Regulators have introduced measures to increase bank capital (the money that is not borrowed) to limit the effects of contagion from the financial sector to the rest of the economy. The banking industry has lobbied intensely to oppose this regulation arguing that more stringent capital requirements will reduce economic activity. Is this opposition to regulation based on concerns about economic growth, or on the possible negative effects of regulation on banks' performance and managerial remuneration? The primary activity of the leave will be to conduct research to answer this question. This research will offer me a unique opportunity to apply the knowledge on the theory of finance that I have accumulated to the banking industry. The intended outcome of this leave is to become an expert in banking. I am planning to convey my expertise to my students and publish my research in the most reputable journal outlets. During the last 13 years I have conducted research on mergers and joint ventures. Because of the growing relevance of the banking sector, I have become increasingly interested in applying the theories of finance to banks. The primary goal of my development leave is to conduct research aimed at becoming a leading expert in banking. This primary goal, which will extend beyond the period of the leave, will be beneficial for my professional development and for UNT in at least three ways: First, my expertise in the banking sector can be conveyed to our students in banking courses and seminars. The banking sector is one of our students' main employers. Second, I expect that my work will advance our knowledge in the field of banking. After the financial crisis many scholars have understood the large repercussions on the economy of an ill-functioning banking sector. More academic research is now being conducted aimed at reducing the consequences of the next crisis. I would like to contribute to this consequential body of academic work. Third, I will work to facilitate the signature of a memorandum of understanding between UNT and Business School, the institution where I will carry-out my research. I believe that UNT and students could greatly benefit from a collaboration with the IE Business School.</td>

<td>Fall 2016 is to be spent in the laboratory of Prof. Hua Guo at the University of New Mexico to learn how to apply quantum scattering theory to investigate reaction dynamics, i.e., the details of chemical bond breaking and formation when two molecules collide, which determines reactivity in various systems of practical importance. New computational techniques will be learned and applied. This will enhance my research capability at UNT by allowing quantitative comparison with and interpretation of the experiments I conduct here. It will provide material to incorporate in my classes, and enable more competitive proposals to be submitted. The immediate outcome will be submitted research papers, but in the longer term I look forward to a continuing collaboration and improved funding outlook for my research. Expected outcomes of faculty development leave will include: 1) Collaboration on projects of mutual interest with my host. 2) Become trained in state-of-the-art theoretical methods to investigate the details of chemical reactions, notably how to construct potential energy surfaces and analyze them using classical trajectory and quantum scattering methods. 3) Preparation of one or more refereed publications for submission to a major journal. 4) Incorporation of these new techniques to improve the competitiveness of at least two proposals for submission to federal agencies. 5) Implementation of new methods on UNT’s research computing resources. 6) Bring home information about state-of-the-art methodologies to include in an existing advanced graduate course.</td>

<td>Professor Kimi King and I have been working with the Victims and Witnesses Services section of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia to survey hundreds of witnesses who have testified before the ICTY. The administration of the first 300 surveys, and the associated data entry, coding, cross validation, translation work and final report will be finished by the summer of 2016. We will then move to our final completion projects detailed below. For my faculty development leave I will work with Professor King and VWS to write our book manuscript, present our findings to ICTY personnel in The Hague, Netherlands and make presentations to the witnesses and other stakeholders in the former Yugoslavia. We will make several trips to The Hague, Bosnia, Croatia, Kosovo and Serbia during the spring of 2017. The leave activity will position us as the world’s foremost experts on the study of witnesses to atrocities and the impact of the act of testifying on witness mental and physical health, security and personal relationships, as well as their views on international justice. No one before has undertaken such a major survey project, and no one has been given access to the ICTY like Professor King and I have enjoyed in carrying out this survey research. The outcomes of the development leave will be 1) completion of final elements of the survey report for the ICTY and United Nations; 2) presentations to the ICTY; 3) presentations to the witnesses in the former Yugoslavia; and 4) completion of work on a full length book based on the final report, as well as other research articles.</td>
<td>The first objective is to finish work on our survey of individuals who have testified for the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY). Professor King and I have been working with the Victims and Witnesses Section (VWS) since 2010 to develop the survey, pilot it and develop a series of ongoing, preliminary reports on the results. The survey evaluates: 1) witness background and reasons for testifying; 2) socio-economic impact on witnesses; 3) security concerns for witnesses; 4) physical and psychological health and well-being of witnesses; and 5) witness perceptions about justice and the ICTY’s legacy. A sixth section asks three open-ended questions which are audio-taped at the conclusion of the written survey. This section provides witnesses with an opportunity to express concerns or issues about the testimonial process and their advice for future witnesses. Final work on the survey (including data entry, cross-checking, translation, analysis and creation of figure) and final report will be performed in the fall 2015 through the summer 2016. We will use the leave period to write the book manuscript version of the report and research articles and finish any remaining work with the ICTY. We will also travel to The Hague, Netherlands for several weeks in spring 2017 to make presentations to ICTY and UN officials. The final report for the pilot survey will become part of the ICTY’s legacy project. We will also travel to Bosnia, Croatia, Kosovo and Serbia with ICTY officials to make presentations on our results to witnesses and other stakeholders.</td>

<td>The objective of my research is to explore device modeling, leakage-power optimization methods, and security-aware system design methods which can lead to development of secure-efficient mobile computing systems. Such activities are: 1) Leakage-optimization methods: For battery driven mobile applications standby power has strong impact on battery life. This research will be in collaboration with IIEST, Shibpur, India. 2) Security-aware system design methods: Security of the information that electronic systems process is critical for users. This will be researched in collaboration with IIT, Indore, India. 3) Nanoelectronic device modeling: For low-leakage system design, it is essential to have the right type of device so that systems can be built using such devices. This will be researched in collaboration with the Montpellier Laboratory of Informatics, Robotics &amp; Microelectronics, France. These activities achieve the following objectives: 1) Broadening research to emerging topics in nanoelectronic system design. 2) Quality student recruitment: My research activities will be tightly coupled with outreach activities for quality student recruitment as well as to enhance the visibility of UNT in the Int'l community. 3) Int'l visibility: Research and outreach activities at the Important Institutes will increase Int'l visibility of faculty/UNT in various parts of the globe including India &amp; France. Anticipated outcomes of the development leave include: 1) New leakage power reduction methods. 2) New secure system design methods. 3) New nanoelectronics device models. 4) Joint proposal &amp; publication activity: The target faculty at IIEST has visited UNT for the year 2013-2014 on a Govt. of India funding. UNT faculty want to strengthen this effort &amp; new connections with IIT to work on joint proposals &amp; publications. Similarly visit to LIRMM, France can lead to joint proposals targeted for the European Union. 5) Quality student recruitment for UNT: The specific Institutes identified, particularly IIEST &amp; UT, are Institutes of National Importance in India with a large body of undergraduate students that can be recruited. 6) Int'l visibility for UNT: UNT faculty organized an IEEE meeting, ISVLSI 2015 (http://www.isvlsi.org) at LIRMM, France. It was very successful &amp; well attended by researchers around the globe. <td>I wish to be granted leave in order to hasten the publication of my third book, The Theatre of Matrimony in Georgian Britain, which will be an extension of the research I gathered for my recently published book, Sex, Money and Personal Character in Eighteenth-Century British Politics (Yale, 2014). My original plan had turned out to be too encompassing, and I soon realized that I had material for two separate works. Now that I have established how the ideal of domestic probity that dominated political discourse over the course of the eighteenth century had fallen far short in the actual attitudes and practices of the ruling elite, I wish to address the way that individuals from a range of social classes wrote about their marriages in autobiographies, journals, and letters. This third book will compare lived experience with representations of domestic life in paintings, caricature prints, plays, and press coverage of adultery trials in order to determine why the idea that marriage promoted morality persisted in light of evidence to the contrary. In one anomaly, for example, the popularity of the conversation piece, a painting genre that celebrated fidelity and companionship, coincided with an upsurge in prosecutions for criminal conversation—cuckolded husbands suing wives’ lovers for trespass under the common law. Having leave to travel during fall 2016 will allow me to complete my archival research while attending seminars at the Institute of Historical Research in London to reestablish contact with historians in the UK and promote my work.</td>
<td>My main objective is to publish a book within the five-year window designated by my department to maintain my ranking in the top tier. I also intend to work on reestablishing my presence in the historical community in the UK. During several summers I concentrated all my efforts to complete Sex, Money and Personal Character. While I maintained communication with scholars in my field online and established new contacts via Facebook, attending the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies conference last spring break reminded me that one can accomplish so much more through face-to-face conversations. It is imperative for me to broaden my network of scholars to share research and have more readers for the first drafts of my book chapters. While in graduate school and during subsequent trips to London, I found that attending evening seminars at the Institute of Historical Research was the best means of staying informed of the current work of other scholars. Additionally, my publisher, the London office of Yale University Press, has expressed interest in helping me to publicize my last book during my next trip to the UK.</td>

<td>A fairly common medical condition amongst violinists is a nerve pain in the fingertips of the left hand. A sharp pain occurs while touching the strings even if it is done gently, resulting in not being able to play the instrument for days, weeks, or even several months. If untreated, this condition has the potential to become chronic. As a student, I dealt with this pain multiple times, alike several of my colleagues and current UNT students. The commonly recommended treatment in the US is to pause playing the instrument for several days or weeks until the nerve pain has disappeared. In Germany, intensive research has been done on how to medically treat and prevent the worsening of this condition, but it has not been pedagogically applied to violin playing. During my leave, I will document interviews and conduct field experiments with leading physicians in Germany that investigate this phenomenon in order to understand the neurological and psychological causes from a medical point of view. With the insights derived from this research, I have the potential to improve existing teaching practices and to inform the creation of new pedagogical and medically oriented solutions. I can use these insights to become an expert on these topics and thus contribute to new higher education curricula and methods in teaching. As an outcome of my leave, I intend to create specific methodology for my students to prevent the occurrence of the nerve pain and publish the results of my investigation.</td>
<td>The primary outcomes for the faculty development leave include: 1) Creating a new pedagogical methodology including exercises to reduce the finger pressure and prevent the occurrence and re-occurrence of the nerve pain. Publishing the results in an article (&quot;The Strad&quot; and &quot;Strings&quot; as potential magazines) and an online YouTube video. 2) Utilizing online platforms such as &quot;The Violin Channel&quot; and &quot;Violinist.com&quot; that have the highest reputation among string players to increase the distribution of the research results. 3) Enhancing the technical skill set of a violinist and therefore resulting in taking the violinist's musicianship to a higher level. To achieve the above-mentioned outcomes the followings steps are necessary: 1) Research the specific causes for the nerve pain from the medical point of view. 2) Document information on new medical treatments against the pain. 3) Collect preventative medical and physical solutions through interviews and field experiments.</td>

<td>My proposed leave is to leverage my role in the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (www.apec.org) to investigate marketing channel development in Vietnam and Indonesia. These member economies are in different stages of privatization. It is particularly timely and relevant given the multinational support of the Trans Pacific Partnership (TPP) that seeks to lower tariffs and increase free trade among APEC member economies. Vietnam has affirmed the TPP; Indonesia is paying attention to the TPP process, but it has expressed no interest in joining the TPP to date. With the assistance of the Vietnam Industry and Trade Information Center and the faculty of the Sekolah Tinggi Manajemen PPM, I will conduct qualitative research with key informants in marketing channels. The qualitative data will be used to identify factors underlying channel development in business-to-business marketing. The results will be submitted for journal publication and facilitate the development and dissemination of a survey research instrument. The research instrument (upon IRB approval) will be distributed in each economy to yield data sets for quantitative analysis. I expect to submit research manuscripts to top-tier academic journals. This data could assist doctoral students with developing their own dissertation research. Universities in each economy want to foster reciprocity agreements with UNT.</td>

<td>The field of digital libraries continues to grow in size, scope and maturity. In the past fifteen years digital libraries have moved from initial ideas into fully developed and robust infrastructure that supports research and learning across the world. Even with such a strong uptake in digital library technology and services, there still remains a number of areas that can benefit from further research with a focus on demonstration and large scale implementation. These areas include three specific fields of study: data visualization, machine learning, and data analytics. The purpose of this development leave is to build the skills necessary to lead the development and implementation of new types of interfaces, technologies, and services onto existing digital library infrastructure. It will focus on the three fields of study that include data visualization, machine learning, and data analytics. The result of this development leave will include a white paper exploring these three fields and opportunities for use in digital libraries, as well as an implementation plan outlining how these tools can be integrated into the local digital library environment of the UNT Libraries. The final output will include the initial draft of a research proposal for submission to a federal funding agency that leverages the research and knowledge gained during this faculty development leave.</td>
<td>The primary objective of this faculty development leave is to increase my proficiency with the theories, methods, and technologies of data visualization, machine learning, and data analytics so that I am able to incorporate knowledge of concepts into the software and technology infrastructure of the UNT Libraries, into new grant proposals that leverage these concepts, and finally into my future scholarship and research. My expected outcomes for the development leave are to complete a thorough investigation of the three areas noted and prepare a white paper outlining the resources consulted during the leave period and opportunities for implementation in existing digital library infrastructure. In addition to the white paper, I will prepare a plan for implementation of improvements to the UNT Libraries' local digital library infrastructure based on the findings of this investigation. Finally I will prepare an initial draft of a research proposal for submission to a federal funding agency such as the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS), or the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) that leverages the research and knowledge gained during this faculty development leave.</td>

The objectives of the Indo-U.S. 21st Century Knowledge Initiative grant is to (a) affect change in retail-related education in order, and (b) enhance economic performance of businesses in the retail sector. This entails a partnership among faculty, students, and retailers to share and apply leading-edge knowledge that takes into account cultural perspectives of India and the United States. I am the PI at UNT and will be traveling to India in March of 2017, for a 15 day period as part of the faculty exchange team to NIFT. The main purpose of this visit is analyze the information gathered by the NIFT faculty and graduate students with regards to needs assessments and competitive analyses for small retailers in India. This information will form the foundation for customized recommendations for value-creating business activities developed among faculty, students, and retailers. I will be submitting three manuscripts to refereed journals from cross-national collaborative projects already in progress. I will also be exploring research collaboration, both at NIFT and other universities in India which offer programs in retailing and/or in consumer experience. I will be setting up exploratory meeting with RAI to investigate collaborative efforts both in terms of executive education as well as research in the Indian retail industry.</td>

<td>Primary Activity of Leave: I began my research of ancient Mesopotamian tokens, cylinder seals, and tablets, this summer when I received access to the JP Morgan Library’s extensive collection of Mesopotamian artifacts. Since that visit, I have been continuing my research, and I plan to use my leave to write a book based on this research. Because I have spent the majority of my time at UNT (1997-2014) in administrative work and teaching, I have not been able to maintain the level of scholarship needed for promotion to full professor. Although I have published three text books, one article, and two research blogs since I received tenure, I need to finish my proposed book in order to qualify for promotion to full professor. I intend to complete a manuscript of my book. I have already been asked to submit a full proposal to the Association of Teachers of Technical Writing Book Series. The series’ editor, Jo Mackiewicz, asks for writers to have their projects approved by her before they submit full proposals. I discussed my project with her this summer, and she approved me to submit a full proposal. I have now completed the proposal, the book’s introduction, and chapter three.</td>
<td>My primary outcome is a published book based on my research of ancient Mesopotamian tokens, cylinder seals, and tablets. My timeline follows: Fall 2015—Submit proposal to Associate of Teachers of Technical Writing Book Series, Spring 2016—Continue research, Summer 2016—Complete draft of book, Fall 2016—Complete manuscript, Spring 2017—Publish manuscript.</td>

<td>I propose to finish a book project that I have been working on for some time. It is concerned with the Aristotelian foundations of opera at the formative years of the genre, the three decades around the middle of the seventeenth century. During these years, Venetian opera developed in such a fashion that it arguably made the genre of opera sustainable and into the successful artistic genre that it still is. I argue that those aspects in particular that were responsible for making opera a success are founded in principles found Aristotelian philosophy, and consciously applied by composers, poets, and producers of opera in order to make their work appeal to the public. The identification of these aspects, and the discussion of their efficacy, will allow us to better understand not just the development of opera over the centuries, but also fundamental issues of human communication and cultural developments. During my leave I propose to complete the work that I have already done in terms of primary and secondary source research, and to write and edit the final product of this project, a monograph of about 300 pages about the topic. The book will complement and add to other already existing research on Venetian opera by authors such as Tim Carter, Wendy Heller, or Ellen Rosand. It is intended to further strengthen my national and international research profile and to provide a point of departure for further research projects concerning the aesthetic foundations of seventeenth-century European music, as well as more detailed work on specific seventeenth-century operas by composers such as Monteverdi or Cavalli.</td>
<td>The primary outcome is the production of an English-language monograph manuscript on the topic of the Aristotelian foundations of opera, to be submitted for acceptance to a reputable scholarly press in the field of Music History, such as Oxford University Press, University of California Press, or Routledge. It is expected that the primary source base accumulated for the project will also serve for future research projects on aesthetics of seventeenth-century music, and on detailed studies of specific operas, such as Claudio Monteverdi’s Il ritorno d’Ulisse in patria (1640), his Incoronazione di Poppea (1643), or the operas of Francesco Cavalli.</td>

<td>The primary goal of the development leave is to conduct research on organizational benefits of Business Intelligence and Analytics (BI&amp;A), a highly promising IS research area. The proposed research project is a continuation of the work I have done while supervising a doctoral student in 2014-2015, and involves the development of the Information-Centric Theory of BI&amp;A-Enabled Organizational Transformation. To date, I have done significant preparation in terms of literature review and theory development. Therefore, crafting of a conceptual research manuscript for submission to MIS Quarterly, a top IS research journal, will be the main leave activity. Additionally, leave activities will include the design of follow-up empirical studies to test the theory, and the preparation of related NSF grant proposals. Requested development leave will enable timely completion of these activities as it will enable me to devote my undivided attention to the research project, and to travel for research purposes. Expected outcomes of the leave activities include submission of the manuscript to MIS Quarterly, plans for follow-up empirical studies, and submission of an NSF grant proposal. These outcomes will have immediate career benefits such as publication(s) in premier research journals, and, potentially, NSF research funding.</td>
<td>The primary outcomes of the anticipated leave activities are: 1) Completed conceptual research article presenting the Information-Centric Theory of BI&amp;A-Enabled Organizational Transformation. It is anticipated that the proposed article will be submitted to the Theory and Review Section of MIS Quarterly, a top research journal in IS. It will integrate the dynamic capabilities theory of strategic management with the taxonomy of information views, thus highlighting the role of information in connecting the seizing, sensing and transformational components of dynamic capabilities and explicating the mechanisms by which investments in BI&amp;A can lead to improved organizational performance. The completed conceptual research article is anticipated to make significant contribution to both the IS and strategic management literature. The theory is also expected to have important practical implications as it explains the organizational performance. 2) Detailed designs/plans for conducting one or more empirical studies for testing/refining the propositions of the theory. Following the development of the theory, specific empirical studies will be designed to refine and test components of the theory. The plans are expected to include potential research sites, data collection approaches, and/or problem specifications for analytical modeling. 3) An NSF grant proposal (to be submitted to Science of Organizations Program no later than Sept 3, 2017) to provide funding for data collection related to testing propositions of the Information-Centric Theory of BI&amp;A-Enabled Organizational Transformation.</td>

<td>The focus of activity during the Fall 2016 semester leave will be on the development and production of a new body of collaborative artworks to be initially exhibited at UNT on the Square, March 4-26, 2017. Since January 2013, I have been producing artworks as part of a four-person collaborative group, Collaborate4, based primarily in Istanbul, Turkey (two of the other members live there). We have exhibited these artworks at numerous venues in Turkey and this upcoming exhibit at UNT on the Square will be our first exhibition in USA. This leave will facilitate significantly more time to work together in Istanbul. Although not all of my studio production is collaborative, my greatest innovations have resulted from partnering with others. Just as working in the studio is a dialog with tools, materials, and processes, creative exploration with others presents endless new possibilities. Collaborate4 is comprised of two metalsmiths, a jeweler, and a painter. The variety of our perspectives and aesthetics combined with our trusting and open dialog has yielded innovative and successful works that have been regularly exhibited and purchased over the past several years.</td>
<td>The primary outcome of activities during the leave will be artworks to be exhibited at UNT on the Square gallery, March 4-26, 2017. Not only is the UNT on the Square gallery an important exhibition space for the UNT community, it is the largest exhibition space I have ever exhibited in with Collaborate4. Most of the artworks made by Collaborate4 are wearable and small-scale. Some of the pieces have resulted in framed and wall-mounted panels. All of our work is very time-intensive due the materials and processes that we use. Our shared sensibility results in an integrated aesthetic where individual contributions are often difficult to distinguish. Despite our disparate backgrounds and training, we are unified in our approach to creating artworks that invite the audience to participate, either through handling and wearing the jewelry or by creating their own narrative to the wall-mounted panels. Our conversations during the design and creation of the artworks transform into an ongoing conversation with the audience of the works. Following the UNT on the Square gallery, Collaborate4 will have generated a large body of work ready for additional public exhibitions. All members of the group will pursue other opportunities to share this work with the public, both in USA and internationally.</td>

<td>The purpose of this project is to analyze and assess the issue of long-run convergence in economic data. Variables that are converging are moving together through time along the same trend, or, are moving toward one specific value. My analysis will utilize a new and cutting edge test of convergence that allows for structural breaks in the data. This is important since all existing tests of convergence are invalid in the presence of breaks in the trend of the series. There are two primary activities that I will undertake during my leave: 1) collecting a large amount of publicly available data (from the web sites of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the Board of Governors, the Federal Reserve Banks of Dallas, New York and St. Louis, the National Bureau of Economic Research, and the International Monetary Fund), and 2) running computer simulations that implement the test for convergence. The intended outcome of this project is several high-quality research papers that will be submitted for publication to top-tier economics journals. This will enhance my academic career by bolstering my publication record, possibly making me a strong candidate for promotion to full professor, and helping me to establish a reputation as an internationally recognized expert in the field of structural breaks and convergence.</td>
<td>The long-run goal of this project is to further my research in the area of time series analysis by producing several high-quality research papers that will be submitted for publication to top-tier economics journals. In so doing, I seek to establish an international reputation as one of the leading experts in the field of structural change and convergence. In addition, the information that my work will provide can be used by economists, policy makers, and government officials to affect the behavior of economic activity and achieve various economic goals. In addition, the information provided by my analysis about whether certain economic variables are converging (or not converging) can be used by economists and government officials to move variables to a common path or specific value, thereby achieving various policy goals.</td>

<td>My research program is based upon producing traditional expository essays and upon creative research in the form of public performances. A peer-reviewed article and performance are the equivalent of two publications and fits within my department's tenure and promotion guidelines for a scholar within the performance studies area of the department of communication studies. Two publications would further me along my goal of going up for full professor. In addition to the peer-reviewed article and show that I will be working on during leave, I will travel and present at two conferences to receive feedback on the research I will be producing. Three primary outcomes: 1) I will complete a paper titled &quot;Big Tex is Burning&quot; about a show of the same name that I co-directed at UNT in the Spring of 2014. The paper will discuss the production concept and its theoretical and methodological aims and will be submitted to Text and Performance Quarterly, the flagship journal of our discipline. 2) I will research, write, adapt, and stage a complete creative research project in the form of a script on the subject of newly passed campus-carry legislation that I will put up in my department's Black Box Theatre in the Fall of 2017. 3) I will travel to a conference and attend an annual artist's retreat to work out my ideas and present my findings for the show I will be developing. I have directed five shows at UNT and know that the time allotted to me, including the summer months, would allow for a fully-fledged script that would be ready to go to rehearsal once students arrive back in the Fall. The two conferences I attend are part of my annual travel schedule, and will further promote the shaping and direction of my creative research.</td>

<td>World Languages, Literatures, and Cultures</td>
<td>The publication of W. G. Sebald’s seminal essay “Luftkrieg und Literatur” [“Air War and Literature”] (1997) and Jorg Friedrich’s bestselling monograph Der Brand [The Fire] (2001) triggered a renewed debate in Germany, Great Britain, and the United States about the politically appropriate representation of the World War II aerial bombardments. Whereas historians have discussed the Allied bombing campaign against Germany at great length, the related scholarship in the field of literary studies has remained limited. My research project aims to dispel the commonly posited hypothesis that the bombings were a taboo subject during Germany’s postwar reconstruction period. A closer look at publications from 1945 to 1961 points to a broad interest of the German public in revisiting the horrors of the city bombardments. I need to conduct necessary archival research in Germany in order to access eyewitness accounts published in magazines and newspapers. This investigation builds and expands on my published research on disaster narratives from the early-modern period to the 20th century. I focus on the following questions: Which narrative conventions have authors utilized in depicting the traumatic bombing experience? Did they appropriate or break with the language of National Socialist wartime propaganda? The reexamination of these nearly forgotten texts is especially relevant because they were instrumental in shaping the debate about “German victimhood” and “German guilt” that continues to this day. The outcomes of my research project will be published in peer-reviewed journals and will form the basis for a book-length monograph.</td>
<td>Literary scholars who study the bombing war, have focused mainly on texts discussed in W. G. Sebald’s essay. Other than Hans Nossack’s eyewitness account Der Untergang [Downfall] (1948) &amp; Gert Ledig’s novel Vergeltung [Payback] (1956), the scholarly analysis of other comparable German texts published during the same period has been sparse; this oversight seemingly substantiates the claim that Germans were not interested in the topic. On the contrary, my preliminary research has uncovered a wealth of overlooked materials dating from the 1940s and 1950s. Multiple editions of publications show that depictions of German wartime suffering resonated widely among the reading public. I plan to present the initial results of my research at the annual meeting of the German Studies Association as well as at the Modern Language Association conference in 2017. While the first is the largest gathering of scholars of German literature, culture, &amp; history in the US, the second brings together leading literary scholars of languages &amp; literatures from all over the world. Furthermore, I will publish my research findings in reputable peer-reviewed journals such as German Studies Review, Deutsche Vierteljahresschrift für Literaturwissenschaft und Geistesgeschichte, and Monatshefte. In the long term, I intend to turn this investigation into a book-length monograph. Beyond scholars of German literature, I expect my research to be of interest to experts in the fields of history &amp; sociology.</td>

<td>A critical issue that plagues the governance of security programs is the lack of easy-to-use measurement metrics for program evaluation. Meanwhile, a number of massive databases exist on system and software vulnerabilities and security breaches that capitalized on those vulnerabilities. Examples include the Common Vulnerabilities and Exposures (CVE) collected by mitre.org, the Exploit Database maintained by offensive-security.com, and the Cyber Reports distributed by the Secret Service. They constitute a wealth of data from which security metrics and patterns can be identified to guide individuals' actions on information protection or organizations' governance of their security efforts. To the best of my knowledge, however, insufficient academic effort has been spent to mine this valuable and rich source of data for these purposes. The development leave will allow me to commence an effort to identify interesting research questions in this respect, thus expanding my research into an area that I have been interested in for some time but not been able to explore due to time constraints. The primary activities during the leave will include a closer survey and analysis of the data in the vulnerability databases, a more comprehensive review of prior studies, if any, that may have been conducted in the same or similar line of thoughts, identifying potential research questions, and educating myself in data-mining and data-visualization tools that may be necessary. The intended outcome will be the preparation work that will lay the ground for publishing in a quality journal in the information systems (IS) discipline.</td>
<td>With the leave activities, I expect to gain a clear understanding of potential theoretical contributions that I can make to the information systems (IS) discipline by taking advantage of the rich data on system and software vulnerabilities and the related exploits. I also expect to acquire practical knowledge in the tools and techniques commonly used to mine and/or visualize information security data for generating and visually presenting insights. Another anticipated outcome is a preliminary blueprint on further theory development that will lead to research hypotheses and implications my proposed study may have for academic research and managerial practice. Together, I should be able to build the foundational work for a study that will be publishable in a quality journal in the IS discipline.</td>

<td>As digital technology has fundamentally transformed business models and the ways in which people interact each other, digital technology has become a force driving rapid consumer market change. Redefining how consumer markets are shaping the future retail landscape is the primary focus of my activity during faculty development leave. A funded research project sponsored by a Korean food company regarding consumer mobile food shopping behavior will be a part of the research project to redefine consumer markets with mobile technologies. As Co-PI, I will examine Korean consumer mobile food shopping behavior with a plan to extend the research project to an American consumer sample. During my leave at Chungbuk National University in South Korea, I will cultivate and acquire different research approaches, methods, and statistical programs to deepen my research skills and enhance my research productivity. Through workshop and conference participation, I will extend my scholarly network through international collaborations with universities and companies in Korea. Further, federal grant opportunities will be sought and proposals will be developed based on the leave activities. My leave activities will expand my research competencies and build my reputation as an international scholar through innovative research related to mobile shopping in the food category.</td>
<td>While the research project regarding mobile food shopping behavior may sound far-fetched, it is expected in the near future. The research project will enable my scholarly activities to advance innovative research and practice in the area of the research. While I work on the research project with Korean scholars, I will continue to work with retail industries both in Korea and U.S. in forecasting consumer interactions with digital retail encounters. A secondary activity is to continue an investigation of local farmers/retailers’ use of digital marketing strategies to develop a federal grant proposal regarding local farmers market promotion program. I will investigate how digital platforms can facilitate consumer shopping in local markets, resulting in improving local economies. My leave will be a prime time for developing journal manuscripts and a grant proposal. I will additionally focus on learning new analytical methods such as analytical hierarchical methods and conjoint analysis and incorporate this new knowledge of the research method and data interpretation into revising my graduate courses. Thus, my leave time will enhance my scholarly competencies in developing journal articles and grant proposals. My understanding and knowledge of the research and data implementation will be incorporated into the classroom teaching to equip students with data implementation skills and knowledge, which industries seek from prospective employees.</td>

<td>Through the Faculty Development Leave (FDL) in the Spring 2017 at UNT, I will enhance my research on physical activity and health promotion in school settings, targeting, in particular, health and physical activity intervention programs for minority and underserved children in preschool settings. This FDL will enable me to achieve three objectives: 1) To complete a research grant proposal investigating the effects of supportive physical activity interventions on underserved Hispanic children’s physical and cognitive health outcomes. I will submit a grant proposal to the National Institutes of Health (NIH) for review. 2) To wrap up research that I have been conducting and to submit four papers to top-tier journals in my field. These three inter-connected objectives can only be achieved with the FDL, which will release me from teaching and service responsibilities, and will offer me the concentrated time and effort to enhance my scholarly achievements and reputations. The FDL will enable me to focus on research and achieve three objectives: 1) To complete a research grant proposal investigating the effects of supportive physical activity interventions on underserved Hispanic children’s physical and cognitive health outcomes. I will submit a grant proposal to the NIH for review by the end of Spring 2017. 2) To wrap up research that I have been conducting and to submit four papers to top-tier journals in my field, including Journal of Physical Activity and Health, Journal of School Health, Journal of Teaching in Physical Education, and Preventive Medicine. These papers will provide systematic knowledge on the relationship between school physical activity interventions and health outcomes, and will significantly contribute to the literature in youth physical activity and health promotion. 3) To complete a 5-year research plan that will enable me to mature into an expert in the field of youth physical activity and health promotion on a national and international level. Title: Award of Honorary Degree

Background:

From time to time the University awards honorary doctoral degrees to recognize individuals who “have made meritorious contributions to society that have enlarged human understanding and enriched human life” (UNT Policy 15.1.16). An honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree is recommended for Mr. Paul Voertman.

Paul Voertman is the former owner of Voertman’s Bookstore, an iconic local landmark in Denton, which was started by his father, Roy, in 1925 as a general store. After his father’s death, Paul ran the store until his retirement in 1990. Paul earned his BS in Economics from University of Texas - Austin and served briefly in the military from 1950 to 1952.

Paul's relationship with UNT goes back to kindergarten when he attended the Demonstration School. He stayed through his sophomore year of college in 1947 before transferring to complete his degree. In the 1960s, he began the Voertman Art Competition, which continues today through UNT’s College of Visual Arts and Design. Winners of the competition receive cash prizes. Paul supported the $1.5M installation of the Richard Ardoin-Paul Voertman Concert Organ in memory of his late partner, Richard Ardoin. UNT’s College of Music named their remodeled concert hall in Paul’s honor. He currently serves on the College of Visual Arts and Design advisory board and in 2009, he received the Outstanding Alumni Service Award. Recognized philanthropists both Paul and Richard were especially supportive of the arts in Denton, which Paul continues today.

A generous UNT supporter, Paul has committed more than $9.2M to the university. In 2011, he announced his plan to leave an estate gift to UNT, split among the College of Arts and Science, the College of Music, and the College of Visual Arts and Design. His giving is primarily designated to various scholarships in the College of Music and the College of Visual Arts and Design. Paul is a member of the McConnell Society, the 1890 Society, and is a life member of the UNT Alumni Association.
