SECTION 012500.13

SUBSTITUTION REQUEST FORM

PRO	JECT	Г:		(After Contract Award)
TO:
NO.			DATE:
		or hereby requests acceptance of the following person of Division 01 Section 012500 "Substitution Proce		act or system as a substitution in accordance with s":
1.	SPE	ECIFIED PRODUCT OR SYSTEM
	Sub	bstitution request for:
	Spe	ecification Section No.:Articl	e/ P	aragraph:
2.	REA	ASON FOR SUBSTITUTION REQUEST
	SPECIFIED PRODUCT			PROPOSED PRODUCT
		Is no longer available		□ Will reduce construction time
		Is unable to meet project schedule	$_	Will result in cost savings of to Project
		Is unsuitable for the designated application
		Cannot interface with adjacent materials		Is for supplier's convenience
		Is not compatible with adjacent materials		Is for subcontractor's convenience
	☐ Cannot provide the specified warranty			Other:
		Cannot be constructed as indicated
		Cannot be obtained due to one or more of the fo	ing:
		☐ Strike ☐ Bankruptcy of m	nanu	facturer or supplier
		☐ Lockout ☐ Similar occurrer	(explain below)
3.	SUF	IPPORTING DATA
	Drawings, specifications, product data, performance data, test data, and any other necessary information to facilitate review of the Substitution Request are attached.
		Sample is attached □ Sam	ple v	vill be sent if requested
4.	QUALITY COMPARISON
	Provide all necessary side-by-side comparative data as required to facilitate review of Substitution Request:
		SPECIFIED PRODUCT		PROPOSED PRODUCT
	Mar	nufacturer:

	Name / Brand:
	Catalog No.:
	Vendor:
	Variations:
		(Add Additional Sheets If Necessary)
	Local Distributo	r or Supplier:
	Maintenance Se	ervice Available: Yes No
	Spare Parts So	urce:
	Warranty: □	Yes No Years
5.	PREVIOUS INS	TALLATIONS
	Identification of	at least three (3) similar projects on which proposed substitution was us
	PROJECT #1
	Project:
	Address:
	Architect:
	Owner:
	Contractor:
	Date Installed:
	PROJECT #2
	Project:
	Address:
	Architect:
	Owner:
	Contractor:
	Date Installed:
	PROJECT #3
	Project:
	Address:

all respects to specified product, except as stated above; B. The proposed substitution is in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances; C. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will incompose modifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) Date: By: (Name of Subcontractor)	Arch	hitect:
Date Installed: EFFECT OF SUBSTITUTION Proposed substitution affects other work or trades:	Owr	ner:
EFFECT OF SUBSTITUTION Proposed substitution affects other work or trades:	Con	ntractor:
Proposed substitution affects other work or trades: No Yes (if yes, explain) Proposed substitution requires dimensional revisions or redesign of architectural, structural, M-E-P, life so or other work: No Yes (if yes, attach data explaining revisions) STATEMENT OF CONFORMANCE OF REQUEST TO CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS Contractor and Subcontractor have investigated the proposed substitution and hereby represent that: A. They have personally investigated the proposed substitution and hereby represent that: A. They have personally investigated the proposed substitution and believe that it is equal to or super all respects to specified product, except as stated above; B. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will inconfifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) Date: By: Subcontractor:	Date	e Installed:
Proposed substitution requires dimensional revisions or redesign of architectural, structural, M-E-P, life so or other work: No Yes (if yes, attach data explaining revisions) STATEMENT OF CONFORMANCE OF REQUEST TO CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS Contractor and Subcontractor have investigated the proposed substitution and hereby represent that: A. They have personally investigated the proposed substitution and hereby represent that: A. They proposed substitution is in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances; C. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will in modifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution (attached); F. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opic knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) Date: By: (Name of Subcontractor)	EFF	FECT OF SUBSTITUTION
or other work: No Yes (if yes, attach data explaining revisions) STATEMENT OF CONFORMANCE OF REQUEST TO CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS Contractor and Subcontractor have investigated the proposed substitution and hereby represent that: A. They have personally investigated the proposed substitution and believe that it is equal to or super all respects to specified product, except as stated above; B. The proposed substitution is in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances; C. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will incondifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and bellef of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) Date: By: (Name of Subcontractor)	Prop	posed substitution affects other work or trades: □ No □ Yes (if yes, explain)
or other work: No Yes (if yes, attach data explaining revisions) STATEMENT OF CONFORMANCE OF REQUEST TO CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS Contractor and Subcontractor have investigated the proposed substitution and hereby represent that: A. They have personally investigated the proposed substitution and believe that it is equal to or super all respects to specified product, except as stated above; B. The proposed substitution is in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances; C. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will interpose modifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) Date: By: (Name of Subcontractor)
STATEMENT OF CONFORMANCE OF REQUEST TO CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS Contractor and Subcontractor have investigated the proposed substitution and hereby represent that: A. They have personally investigated the proposed substitution and believe that it is equal to or super all respects to specified product, except as stated above; B. The proposed substitution is in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances; C. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will interest in modifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opic knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) Date: By: Subcontractor: (Name of Subcontractor)	-	other work:
Contractor and Subcontractor have investigated the proposed substitution and hereby represent that: A. They have personally investigated the proposed substitution and believe that it is equal to or super all respects to specified product, except as stated above; B. The proposed substitution is in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances; C. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will intermodifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) Date: By: (Name of Subcontractor)		□ No □ Yes (if yes, attach data explaining revisions)
A. They have personally investigated the proposed substitution and believe that it is equal to or super all respects to specified product, except as stated above; B. The proposed substitution is in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances; C. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will incomplications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution (attached); F. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) Date: By: Subcontractor: (Name of Subcontractor)	STA	ATEMENT OF CONFORMANCE OF REQUEST TO CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS
all respects to specified product, except as stated above; B. The proposed substitution is in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances; C. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will incondifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) Date: By: (Name of Subcontractor)	Con	ntractor and Subcontractor have investigated the proposed substitution and hereby represent that:
C. The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product; D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will incomplications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) By: (Name of Subcontractor)	A.	They have personally investigated the proposed substitution and believe that it is equal to or superior all respects to specified product, except as stated above;
D. They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will incomplications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) By: (Name of Subcontractor)	B.	The proposed substitution is in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances;
modifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution; E. They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached); F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) By: (Name of Subcontractor)	C.	The proposed substitution will provide same warranty as specified for specified product;
F. They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) By: (Name of Subcontractor)	D.	They will coordinate the incorporation of the proposed substitution into the Work, and will inclu modifications to the Work as required to fully integrate the substitution;
special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product; G. They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) By:	E.	They have included complete cost data and implications of the substitution (attached);
become known after substitution is accepted. H. The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opi knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) By: (Name of Subcontractor)	F.	They will pay any redesign fees incurred by the Architect or any of the Architect's consultants, and a special inspection costs incurred by the Owner, caused by the use of this product;
knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendu issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work observed and reviewed. Contractor: (Name of Contractor) By: (Name of Subcontractor)	G.	They waive all future claims for added cost or time to the Contract related to the substitution, or the become known after substitution is accepted.
(Name of Contractor) Date: By: Subcontractor: (Name of Subcontractor)	H.	The Architect's approval, if granted, will be based upon reliance upon data submitted and the opinion knowledge, information, and belief of the Architect at the time decision is rendered and Addendum issued; and that Architect's approval therefore is interim in nature and subject to reevaluation a reconsideration as additional data, materials, workmanship, and coordination with other work a observed and reviewed.
Date:	Con
Subcontractor:(Name of Subcontractor)	Date
(Name of Subcontractor)	Dan	S
	Sub	contractor:(Name of Subcontractor)
Date: By:	D	,

Note: Unresponsive or incomplete requests will be rejected and returned without review.

8. ARCHITECT'S REVIEW AND ACTION

		Substitution is accepted.
		Substitution is accepted, with the following comments:
		Resubmit Substitution Request:
			Provide more information in the following areas:
			Provide proposal indicating amount of savings / credit to Owner
			Bidding Contractor shall sign Bidder's Statement of Conformance
			Bidding Subcontractor shall sign Bidder's Statement of Conformance
		Substitut	ion is not accepted:
			Substitution Request received too late.
			Substitution Request received directly from subcontractor or supplier.
			Substitution Request not submitted in accordance with requirements.
			Substitution Request Form is not properly executed.
			Substitution Request does not indicate what item is being proposed.
			Insufficient information submitted to facilitate proper evaluation.
			Proposed product does not appear to comply with specified requirements.
			Proposed product will require substantial revisions to Contract Documents.
	Ву:
	Date):
compl	etene	ess, or val	upon the information provided by the Contractor, and makes no claim as to the accuracy, idity of such information. If an accepted substitution is later found to be not in compliance with ents, Contractor shall provide the specified product.
^	O\4/1	NED'S DE	EVIEW AND ACTION
9.		OWNER'S REVIEW AND ACTION Substitution is accepted for items not involving additional costs
		g and a second s
Ву:	(Ow	ner's Cons	struction Manager)
Date:

END OF FORM